

CASCADE LOCKS

(By Mrs. Clara Nix)

Mrs. Morgan Honored

To honor Mrs. M. L. Morgan on her birthday, Mr. Morgan entertained Saturday night with a surprise party in their home. The guests played games for the evening's diversion and were later served birthday cake and ice cream. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wuner, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Titus, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey, Frank Hall, Mrs. Joe Morris, Mrs. Charles Nelson, Mrs. Joe Miller, Mrs. Charles Haggblom, Mrs. Lula Cornett, Mrs. G. E. Manchester, Mrs. C. L. Rankin, Mrs. Maude Brolliar, Mrs. C. A. Brolliar, Mrs. Mae Elliott, Mrs. H. E. Pointer, Mrs. Arthur Nix, Mrs. Sanford Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith and Margaret Calendine. Mrs. Morgan received many lovely gifts.

Officers Installed

The Omega Theta Rho girls had their installation of officers Tuesday night and after their meeting entertained the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows with their drill which was very well done. Beth Manchester sang a solo and Betty Kelsay tap-danced, and after the program everyone played games. The girls served some lovely punch and cakes and cookies. I'm sure everyone attending had a grand time and these girls are certainly to be proud of for their wonderful work.

The Vallengs Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cross and children, Bobby and Mildred, of Oakland, Calif., visited at the L. N. Vallen home from Saturday to Monday.

On Sunday a number of relatives and friends including the Cross family gathered at the Vallen home and enjoyed a picnic dinner on the lawn in the afternoon.

They visited the fish hatcheries and the dam after dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Vallen and daughter, Lenore, Nouna and Gertrude Ginther of Portland, Mrs. Emma Stenger, Raymond and Lucile Stith of Carver, Mr. and Mrs. Orel Vallen and daughter, Dolores of Estacada, Ore., Irene Jones of Parkdale and Scott Griffith of Cascade Locks.

Munkres Return from Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Hank Munkres returned Monday afternoon from their two weeks' vacation. They visited relatives in Bend, Ore., and from there down the coast to Florence. On their way home they stopped at Seaside for a few days. They declared it a wonderful trip, but are all tired out doing nothing.

Spend Summer in Utah

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Walker's two sons, Glen and Dee, left Monday morning by train for Ogden, Utah, where they will spend the rest of the summer until school starts, with their grandparents on their ranch.

Odd Fellows Have Picnic

There were about forty members and Rebekahs that attended the Odd Fellows picnic last Friday evening at Eagle creek. A delegation of Odd Fellows from Hood River were guests. Everyone present had a grand time. The only thing wrong was it got dark too soon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Willett visited over the week-end at the home of Mrs. Willett's sister, Mrs. Freberg in Portland. Her little niece, Virginia Larson, who has been visiting here, accompanied them home.

So many of the Locks residents spent Sunday in Portland attending the air circus, it is difficult to mention them all. Among them were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tomkins, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nix, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Knopp, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jack, Margaret Calendine, Mr. and Mrs. France Reuterskoild and Monty Gay.

Elli Nelson celebrated her eighth birthday last Friday with a party at her home. Games were played and enjoyable time was had by all. Miss Elli was the recipient of an array of lovely gifts. Present were Rosalie Carstatter, Audrey Kelsey, Beverly Morrow, Mildred Phelps, Mary Ann Williams, Willa Lee Wilbur, Marjory Weeman and Barbara Ann and Elli Nelson.

Mrs. W. E. Cox and daughter, Nancy Joan, who have been spending a month with Mrs. Cox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tharp, left for their home in Walla Walla last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Tharp took them to the train at Bonneville, from there drove to Portland where they visited at the home of Major F. W. Mason, returning home by way of Vancouver, Wash.

Friends and relatives are very happy to know Malcolm McKinnon was able to leave the hospital Sunday evening and return home again. We do hope, however, that he has no more trouble and recovers rapidly.
