

25,000 Boy Scouts Have $2,000,000 Camp Party

Gathered from all parts of the world, 25,000 Boy Scouts attended the National Scout jamboree at Washington, D. C. Above, Scouts from Albany and Abilene, Texas, are shown erecting their division sign at the camp close by the Potomac river. The cost of the camp and the expenses of the Scouts en route and back home were estimated at more than $2,000,000.

Mush 4,000 Miles to Bright Lights

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Carroll of British Columbia—the far northern part of the province near Alaska—with their team of Alaskan dogs after their arrival in New York city, recently, by dog sled. Their sled is equipped with both wheels and runners. They have been traveling this way for one year and three months, picking up data for a book they hope to finish soon.

Ready for Action in Mediterranean

Gas-masked gunners aboard H. M. S. Furious, one of Great Britain's powerful battleships, are shown operating a range-finder during recent battle practice in the Mediterranean. Threats of open intervention by Italy and Germany in the Spanish imbroglio resulted in a concentration of British naval craft in the Mediterranean.

Hitler Views Visiting Italian Black Shirts

GIANT PEACH CLUSTER

It's a good year for peaches at the home of G. F. Trotter near Wright City, Mo. They come in large clusters on his trees, instead of the usual twos and threes. Miss Madeline Sode of St. Louis is shown with a cluster of eleven.

Sons of Diamond Daddies Good at Baseball

These four stalwarts of the University of Florida baseball team ought to be pretty good at the national pastime—if there is anything in the theory of heredity. All are sons of famous major league fathers, whose names were household words a few years ago. Left to right are Ed Manning, twenty, son of Ed Manning, former pitcher for the St. Louis Browns; Lee Meadows, Jr., nineteen, son of Lee Meadows, old Pittsburgh Pirates mound ace; Jimmy Shotton, seventeen, son of Bert Shotton, a former St. Louis Cardinal, and Wilbur White, nineteen, whose father once played third for the Chicago White Sox.

PIONEERS NEW AIRWAY

Capt. A. S. Wilcockson, one of Imperial Airways' senior pilots, who has been chosen to command the Empire flying boat, which is shortly to make the first flight from Southampton, England, to the United States. Capt. Wilcockson is one of eight British pilots who have over 10,000 hours of flying experience and who hold the coveted master pilot's certificate.

No Place for Color Blind

In Beauvais, the famous tapestry city of France, threads of 745 hues are used in weaving the tapestries and there are twenty-five gradations to each hue.

Sin-Eating, London Custom
Sin-eating was a London custom in the Seventeenth century, when a man was hired to eat bread during a funeral to "eat" away the dead man's sins.
