Having Swell Time: Wish We Were There

While New Yorkers and Chicagoans are fanning themselves and watching the thermometer, arctic scenes prevail in some parts of Oregon. Here you see a snow plow hard at work on a 40-foot drift in the McKenzie pass high in the Cascade mountains. In some places dynamite is being used to reopen roads that have been blocked with snow since last fall.

Socialite Back From Wild Life Hunt

Bronzed George Vanderbilt, twenty-three-year-old socialite, pictured aboard his yacht, Cressida, on his return from a 20,000-mile, six-month cruise in the South Seas during which he gathered about 20,000 wild-life specimens for the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences. George is shown with Tag-Along, the tortoise-mascot he picked up on the Galapagos islands.

Marriage May Reunite the House of Bourbon

Prince Alvaro of Bourbon, Orleans, and his bride, Carla Delfino Parodi, just after their marriage in the Church of San Roberto Bellarmino in Rome. The wedding brought about the first formal appearance in six years of former King Alfonso and former Queen Victoria of Spain, stimulating reports that they are considering a reconciliation. They served as patrons for their cousin, Prince Bourbon-Orleans.

Famous Father and Two-Year-Old Son

An exclusive pose of John Jacob Astor and his two-year-old son, William Henry Astor, as they appeared in commune, on the steps of "Chetwode," their summer home at Newport, R. I. William Henry recently celebrated his second birthday with his dad and mother, the former Ellen Tuck French.

Honorable Artillery Company Has Birthday

Sir George Broadbridge, the lord mayor of London, inspects the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of America during a garden party in honor of the British Honourable Artillery Company on the four hundredth anniversary of its founding recently. The British company is one of the most exclusive regiments in England. The American company dates from 1638 when a group of planters in America who had been members of the British company formed a similar regiment.
