

CASCADE LOCKS

(By Mrs. Clara Nix)

Monty Gay Marries

Friends will be interested to hear of the marriage of Monty Gay, formerly of the Locks, but most recently of North Bonneville, to Miss Edith Ainsworth of Stevenson.

The wedding took place at Goldendale, Wash., on Sunday, Aug. 15. Mr. Herman Hapgood was best man, while Miss Bonita Adams acted as maid of honor.

We wish them much happiness.

Elmers Visit Cascade Locks

I had the pleasure Monday of a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Elmer, formerly of the Locks. They just came from Burns, Ore., where they have lived the past year, and are enroute to California, where they will make their home. They stopped for short visits with their many friends and were over-night guests at the C. A. Saunders home.

Needlecraft Club To Meet

The Needlecraft Club will meet at the home of Mrs. John Thompson for a dessert luncheon and sewing Wednesday afternoon. Those invited were Mesdames M. L. Morgan, R. J. Wuner, G. E. Manchester, Jim Layne, Lester Sprague, Vic Wigrin, Warren Davidson, C. A. Saunders, Clyde Foulkes, Art Warren, W. J. Carlson.

Harringtons Have Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Horn and Mrs. E. Horn of Londail, Calif., arrived Monday morning at the Melvin Harrington home. After a short visit, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Horn drove on to Twin Falls, Idaho, to visit relatives.

Mrs. E. Horn remained for a few days' visit with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harrington. She will go from here to Mt. Vernon, Wash., and then back to her home in California.

Attends Safeway Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. Hank Munkres and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McChristy and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Foulkes, attended the Safeway picnic Sunday at Koberg Beach. Hank must have been in good shape, for he knocked the first home run in the ball game and also received first prize in the men's race.
