Returns to California

Miss Maude Smith of Wilmington, Calif., has been visiting her sister and niece, Verna and Irene Cederson the past two weeks. She recently left for San Jose, to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Huskey and

Mrs. J. O. Jones motored to Malin, Ore., to visit Marvin and Jack Jones, while Ted expects to go hunting for a couple of days. They are returning Tuesday.

Mrs. Shelzo Mondelli spent Friday in Portland on business returning the same day.

Mrs. Cederson was in Hood River on business Monday.

Grandma Jones has been ill the past week, but is able to be out again.

Glenn Neuffer and family of Hood

River are visiting for a few days with Mrs. Neuffer's father while the rest of the family is away.

Carl Kvaile has completed the painting of his house, occupied by the Mondelli family.

Louise Mondelli has returned to school at Huntington, Ore.

Bobby Sherwood is visiting his grandparents at Parkdale this week.

CASCADE LOCKS GRADE SCHOOL

Jack Docherty and Albert Jenkins are new pupils in the primary grades, making 29 the total enrollment for the first and second grade room.

Many of the children brought beautiful bouquets of flowers to make the room attractive, and Cecil and Donna brought plants. Cecil also brought back the gold-fish he had taken care of for the primary room during the summer.

There are 22 boys and girls enrolled in the third and fourth grade room. Those who are new in the room are Duane Smeltzer, Glenn York, Tommy Smith, Richard Langton and Edward Chamlin.

Jack Dunn is leaving Monday for California.

We have green crepe paper curtains for our windows and soon hope to have new green oilcloth for our tables and ledges.

The boys have been busy making chairs, davenport, tables and footstools from boxes. The girls have been putting upholstery on them, made from bright-colored cretonne.

The third graders are having a nice collection of building stones and rocks to study with their geography lessons.

Last Friday Willa Lee invited all the youngsters from her room to an outdoor weiner roast at her place. She also had marshmallows to roast. Jello was another feature of her party. Everyone had a most enjoyable time.

The third and fourth grade is having a politeness and kind deeds box in which are put the written kind and thoughtful deeds of their fellow playmates. Every Friday these are read.

The fifth and sixth grade room has three new pupils, Joanne Turnipseed and Opal Camplin in the fifth and Theodore Langton in the sixth grade.

The fifth and sixth grades studied the writing of the Constitution September 17.

Cascade Locks won the football game from Bonneville 32 to 0.

BONNEVILLE SCHOOL

By Virginia McMullin

The girls' industrial arts class is working on drawings for bread boards, which will be made into the patterns of fish, elephants, pigs, and zeppelins. The boys' fine arts class is studying color harmony and colored designs.

The fifth and sixth grades were weighing Monday. Their first project is keeping track of their weights.

Shirley Ross has been indisposed and out of school since Friday. Clem Brower finds it much easier to read with his new glasses. Carol Bucher brought a fine lot of wooly caterpillars for the third and fourth grade's nature study class.

The third and fourth grade girls' sewing class is being organized and will meet Monday afternoons. The boys will make baskets, paper mosaic jars, and some say they wish to learn to sew. These children will be taught knitting.

The football game between Bonneville and Cascade Locks Grade Schools Thursday, resulted in a score of 32-0 in favor of the Locks. Those playing on the Bonneville team were Billy Fargher, Roy Lusch, Jimmy Haskett, Richard Teerink, Earl Pitzer, Jimmy Dow, Virgil Anderson, Eugene Pomplitz, Wallace Laxton, Edward Locke, Jimmy Rabideau, Jesse Mosso and Larry Beck.

Elaine Regnier is moving to Hood River for a period of several months.

Boys' industrial arts are making knives and boats. Boys' gym class is working hard on football to strengthen their weakness that had shown up in the game against Cascade Locks. The team is quite small, but hopes are to build up a speedy and tricky squad. Billy Fargher, Roy Lush, Jimmie Dow, Jim Haskets, Earl Pitzer, and Virgil Anderson are looming up as good prospects.

FISH NOTES

Local trout fishing was good last week-end and Sunday. Buck Vaughan made a nice catch of trout on flies. Several limit catches were made Sunday, with some Silver-side and Chinook salmon being taken daily out of Hood River.

Celilo salmon fishing has slowed up some. Good hauls are being made at the mouth of the White Salmon River.

Central Oregon fishing is still good. Ex-President Hoover made a nice catch on the Deschutes last week. The following lakes: East, Paulina, Elk, Sparks, and Three Creek, will be closed to fishing after Sept. 20.

Hunting

In spite of the warm weather, hunters are flocking to the woods for their meat. One nice buck was killed by K. F. Taylor. Mr. Taylor is with the Oregon Lumber Co., at Dee, and the kill was made in that vicinity.

The wealth of the U. S. in 1932 was estimated at about $375,000,000,000, or 40 per cent of the total wealth of all the world.

Texas agricultural experts have isolated the poisonous principle of the loco weed and now they call it "lo-coine."
