BONNEVILLE SCHOOL NEWS

Last week the student body of the Bonneville School elected officers. Those named were: President, Billy Fargher; vice-president, Jesse Mosso; secretary, Virginia McMullen; student council, Jimmy Haskett's; fire chief, Earl Pinner; safety officers, Dorothy Drus, Margaret Joy Miller, Wallace Laxton and Gary Woods.

Mr. Roy Cannon, the superintendent of schools of Multnomah County, visited the school Tuesday. He went to all of the rooms to see how they were getting along with their work.

The students of the seventh and eighth grades are much interested in the Code Club, which Mr. Robertson recently started. They are now learning the International Morse Code.

Elaine Regnier, who had moved to

Hood River, came back. Patricia Ward has been out of school for several days on account of sickness. Jean Van Orsow is a new student in the eighth grade.

Mr. Wiesendanger, the Forest Ranger at Eagle Creek, called a fire drill and then talked to the boys and girls on fire prevention.

Many gifts were given for the kit-
