

CITY OFFICIALS OUT LATE

Early this week Mayor Ernie Manchester and Councilman W. H. Clark of Cascade Locks had some business in Portland that necessitated them taking the truck in. They arrived home at about 3 P. M. the next morning with the story that a great deal of work had to be done on the truck before they could drive it back. Nevertheless, they enjoyed the stock show, among other things, very much.

Social Party

A group of high school students met at the Cascade Lodge Friday night for a social time. This town has been in need of a social place for the high school students so they can have their amusement at home. Also the social club will be chaperoned by two of the patrons at each meeting. They will meet twice a month on Friday. Attendance at this social party will be limited to high school students. The society expects to have a variety of amusement, with a planned entertainment for each meeting, which will consist of games, singing and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sprague will chaperone the next meeting. The charter members are the following: Dona Davidson, DeEtte Moore, Luella Glazier, Eileen Sprague, Elane Prohaska, Verna Weeman, Jean Hardy, Genevieve Woodward, Clay Weaver, Bill Morgan, Noble Hyde Jr., Henry Brink, Bob Morgan, Lawrence Brink and Neil Weaver.

Utah Cowboy Band
To Stage Barn Dance

A barn dance will be presented at Koberg Beach on Saturday evening, October 9, the orchestra being a well-known travelling group, Utah's Novelty Cowboy Jazz Band. This group of seven artists, headed by J. H. Hull, has pleased crowds all over the West.

The four men and three girls in the troupe will furnish a free floor show during intermission that will feature tap dancing, singing, yodeling, whistling, and comedy. The band consists of J. H. Hull, trombone and cornet;

Fay Hull, saxophone; Linden Hull, drummer and bird imitator; LaVon piano and saxophone; Maude Hull, piano; Clara Hull, banjo, yodeler and tap dancer; Duke Bond, guitar and whistler.

Awilda Claire Bleskay of Boardman, niece of Mrs. Breta Morgan, visited at her aunt's home. Miss Bleskay is the outstanding club member of Morrow County and is the guest of the First National Bank in Portland for the Pacific International exposition. She has a week's board and room at the New Heathman Hotel, as guest of the bank.
