

Rockford Hall Scene Of Hallowe'en Dance

All the dark and ancient mysteries of All Hallowed E'en will be invoked at the big Hallowe'en Dance to be presented this Saturday evening at Rockford Grange Hall by the Hood River Eagles. Music will be furnished by the appropriately named Night-Hawks, a seven piece dance band.

There will be horns, comic hats, and balloons for every one attending, and the evening promises to be an unusually enjoyable one. All are invited.

Twenty-four boys enjoyed the supper, among them Everill Broliar, manager of the team, Wayne Burt, brother of Mrs. Wilbert Harrison and the coach, Hal Chapman.

It's a great kindness to trust some women with a secret; they feel so important while telling it.

A Style 'int

A liberal use of suede appears in autumn style collections. Suede is used to trim or make entire hats. It trims many many of the smartly-tailored street frocks and forms entire jackets that are combined with woolen skirts for sports.

The main trouble with last year's overcoat is that it always looks like last year's overcoat.
