CASCADE LOCKS HIGH SCHOOL
(By William Morgan)

Superintendent Langton was a Portland business visitor Tuesday. Miss MacRae attended the homecoming at Linfield College over the week-end. During the past week some of the equipment for the Home Economics room has been received. Tonight is the night for the High School Carnival. Free admission with many a laugh and lots of joy for all.

CASCADE LOCKS GRADE SCHOOL

A Hallowe'en party was enjoyed by the 5th and 6th graders Friday afternoon. Games were played during the afternoon. Refreshments were served at 3 P. M., which consisted of cake, salad and punch. Two football games were played during the past week. The first game was played Wednesday at Bonneville. The game was won by the Locks, with the score at the end of the game standing 9 to 0. Friday a game was played with Barrett on the home field, with the score at the end of the game standing 40 to 13 in favor of the Locks. The lineup for both games was as follows: Quarter, Bo Jenkins; halfback, Dubie Merrill; half back, Bobby Hyde; fullback, Norman Novell; end, Forrest Hess; end, Dan Abescher; guard, Kenneth Woodward; guard, Dick Harrison; center, Howard Broliar; subs, Melvin Collins and Broliar; subs—guard, Melvin Collins; center, Bobby Kelsay; end, Riley Jenkins; end, Freddie Walker. A game is to be played with Frankton next Monday and another with them on Friday. Everyone hopes we will win, so our team can play for the county championship. The Primary room had a Hallowe'en party last Friday afternoon and a good time was enjoyed by all. Dalton Borall entered the first grade this week. He had previously been attending school in Camas, Washington.

The third and fourth grade room had a jolly Hallowe'en party Friday afternoon. One of the features was the parade through the other rooms and into the high school. Many comical and pretty costumes were worn. There were ever so many goodies to eat. Paul Kelsay, Elli Nelson, and Helen Jenkins served and were the best of help. The third and fourth grades were sorry to see Glenn York leave for Portland where he is now going to live. Dean Davidson spent the Hallowe'en vacation at the beach and brought back some starfish for the seashore collection. Robert Nichols and Dean Davidson brought plants and Pauline McChristy brought flowers to make their room attractive. The Pilgrim house in the 3rd and 4th grade room is nearly finished; the roof is thatched and the logs are chinked and trees grow about. Soon they will make Pilgrim men and women. The 7th and 8th grade room is planning their booth for the carnival to be held November 5. They are going to have many interesting games.

BONNEVILLE GRADE SCHOOL
Bonneville had a football game with Cascade Locks last Wednesday, but was defeated by a score of 7-0. The starting lineup was: Fullback, Billy Fargher; left halfback, Roy Lusch; right halfback, Steven Memovich; quarterback, Eugene Pomplitz; left guard, Virgil Anderson; right guard, Jesse Mosso; left end, Jimmy Dow; right end, Jimmy Hasketts; center, Edward Locke.

The seventh and eighth grades listened to the radio last Friday. They heard of an experiment and the eighth grade is trying it out. One pupil brought an egg in vinegar and pupils are watching it carefully.

Pat Bedford has been absent two days with a very bad cold.

Some of the ambitious children of the third and fourth grades are getting extra work books to use up their spare time.

The phonograph has been sent to the shop to be repaired so the third and fourth grades can continue their music appreciation.

The first grade had a pet show all last week. All the pupils brought their pets.

Last Friday the Girls' League members had their Hallowe'en party. They served doughnuts and cider.

The boys' industrial arts class has finished its first two projects which were hot plate holders and sand rocks.

Mrs. Emmons, the assistant school superintendent, visited Bonneville Wednesday.

There was a P.-T. A. meeting Wednesday.

Bonneville

Talk for P.-T. A.

At the Bonneville Grade School Wednesday afternoon, the P.-T. A. met and was entertained by two speakers from Portland. Mrs. Emmons and Mrs. Inez Miller spoke about the new report cards which are now in use. The mothers of the seventh grade pupils served the refreshments, coffee and cookies. The new chorus, which Mrs. Lautman has lately organized, sang under the direction of Mr. Fraser.
