

CASCADE LOCKS

By Anna M. Haggblom

Rebekah Club

Cascadia Rebekah club met Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m. in the Odd Fellows hall. Mrs. Charles Nelson and Mrs. C. E. Carns were hostesses. A delicious lunch was served at three o'clock. The diversion of the afternoon was pinocle, knitting, and fancy work. The club decided to send presents to the home for the old people, who perhaps would be forgotten at Christmas. The next meeting will be December 8, and the afternoon will be spent in wrapping the Christmas gifts for the home.

The meeting for November 24 was postponed, being the day before Thanksgiving. Each club member is to give a dime to the secretary on or before that day to keep up the payments on the merchandise purchased for the hall. Several paid their dime at the meeting. Those who enjoyed the afternoon at the club were the following: Mrs. Breta Morgan, Mrs. Vera Sprague, Mrs. Zella Morris, Mrs. H. J. Titus, Mrs. Bess Harrington, Mrs. Clara Nix, Mrs. C. A.
