

CASCADE LOCKS

(By Anna M. Haggblom)

Birthday Party

Miss Ruth Buche was happily surprised for her birthday Sunday night by her fellow teachers at the lodge. The room was gayly decorated in festive colors. A lunch of dainty sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and wafers was served in front of the fireplace.

Monday night Mrs. Warren Davidson served a delicious chicken dinner in honor of Miss Buche's birthday. Miss Edna Merritt from Bonneville was a guest. A pretty hand-decorated cake was brought in with 16 candles.

Cascadia Rebekah Club

Cascadia Rebekah Club held its regular meeting Wednesday with Mrs. Charles Haggblom and Mrs. Karl Rosenback as hostesses. A delicious lunch was served at 12:30 consisting of potato salad, hot rolls, olives, baked ham and all the trimmings and cake and coffee. A surprise birthday shower was given in honor of Mrs. George Haggblom's birthday during the luncheon hour. Many useful gifts were received. After lunch a short business meeting was held. It was decided the club would have a Christmas tree and grab bag at its next regular meeting of December 22. Mrs. C. E. Carns, Mrs. Bess Harrington and Mrs. George Haggblom volunteered to get a tree and decorate the tree for the club. After the meeting the afternoon was spent in wrapping Christmas gifts for the home in Portland. Those enjoying the day were: Mrs. Frank Hall, Mrs. E. J. Broliar, Mrs. Joe Morris, Mrs. G. E. Manchester, Mrs. R. J. Wuner, Mrs. Lee Murray and daughter Joanne, Mrs. V. L. Garner, Mrs. Mae Elliott, Mrs. Charles Nelson, Mrs. Margaret Calandine, Mrs. C. E.
