TALKS OF ITALY

At a social meeting given by the Art Department of the Sorosis Club of The Dalles on Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. C. A. Martin of Hood River gave the high lights of her adventures in collecting antiques in Florence, Italy.

In the course of her talk, Mrs. Martin traced the history of the pieces of Florentine furniture which can be seen at the "Hood River Big Apple" which is now located at number 17, Hall Building, adjoining Mrs. Halsted's Lending Library.

Mrs. Martin also sketched interesting anecdotes from the colorful lives of the artists of that period which she said coincided in point of time with the date that Columbus discovered America.

Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Halsted have recently installed a telephone at their headquarters and can be reached at 2621.

HALLOWEEN CARD PARTY TO BE GIVEN

At the meeting October 12 of the Cascade Locks P.-T. A. it was decided to give a real old fashioned Halloween Card Party October 28 at the High School. Pinochle, "500" and Bridge will be played.

All the ghastly, gruesome, ghostly, noisy details associated with Halloween will be used in the decorations, according to the committees in charge.

They also state there will be a doctor in attendance to care for anyone who cannot stand the shock of meeting all the spirits of Halloween.

A small admission will be charged and refreshments will be served.

ELECTRICIANS GO HUNTING

These Western Electric boys that are staying at Penn's while they are putting the insides into these telephone relay stations, with the help of M. L. Morgan and his dog, Red Mike, are getting to be real hunters.

With pheasant season but of the way, they took a crack at the ducks around Irragon and Boardman this last Saturday and Sunday. The result—38 ducks.

Those making the trip were Howard Black, Jack Evans, E. J. Chandler, Bill McIntyre and Morgan.

CARNIVAL SET FOR 27th

Big things will be happening around the Bonneville School house Thursday evening, October 27, when the annual Bonneville School Carnival will start at 7 o'clock.

A complete evening is planned for the children and the grownups. Side shows, a mystery tunnel, a fish pond, magician, movie, and Beano will provide plenty of entertainment. Eats will also be served during the evening. The affair will be put on by the children themselves. Of course the teachers will help a little.

ODD FELLOWS INITIATE

A degree team from the Cascade Locks Odd Fellows lodge put on initiatory work last night at Hood River Idlewild Lodge for a class of 10. Eight of these were from Cascade Locks and two from Hood River. On Friday night Cascade
