

CASCADE LOCKS

(By Jerry Woodward)

Miss Jane Geltner was home from Hood River bringing Miss Shirley Sti as her guest.

Oscar Lewis spent the week-end at the Folsom brothers.

Don Crow enjoyed the football game at Hood River Friday.

Mrs. Olin Harrison visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Erickson, Friday and Saturday of last week.

Mrs. Agnes Brennan made a business trip to Portland Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Silver Perras visited friends in Portland over the week-end.

• Birthday Celebrated—

Friends and relatives of Otis McKinnon dropped in Monday night for a surprise party honoring Mr. McKinnon on his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Artie Sundsten and son, Philip, and Paul Sandstrum enjoyed a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Hayes at Stevenson Monday, later attending the show in North Bonneville.

• Get-together Enjoyed—

A group of young people enjoyed an informal get-together at the Cascade Lodge Saturday night. Games and singing were the attractions of the evening and all enjoyed toasting marshmallows and roasting weinies in the fireplace. Those enjoying the evening were the Misses Betty and Margy Smith, Genevieve Woodward, Celeste Coe, Iileen Prohaska and the Messrs. Jim Smith, Daryl Strader, Bo Jenkins, John Carlson and the hostess, Miss Donna Davidson.

• Miss Smeltzer Honored—

Mrs. R. J. Wuner was hostess Monday night for a shower in honor of Miss Lois Smeltzer, bride-elect of Mr. Gibson Harrison. The evening was spent singing and playing charades, after which Miss Smeltzer opened her gifts, the first being a rolling pin, a gift of the Mayor, investing her with legal authority as boss of her own home. Mr. Harrison received a rousing welcome when he dropped in late in the evening. Delicious refreshments were served the guests. Among those who attended were Mesdames Karl Rosenback, Charles Haggblom, George Miller, Eugene Lovell, Clarence Carns, Chris Brolliar, G. E. Heggard, E. Smeltzer, Thomas Harrison, W. C. Cronk, George Haggblom, T. J. Langton, John Woodward, Victor Wigrin, Wilbert Harrison, Ben Scott, M. Miestrell, Warren Davidson, Carlyle Harrison and Addison Harrison, and Mrs. Mae Elliott and the Misses Jean Walker, Eileen Sprague, Nell Rae Brolliar, Frances Botts, Jean Hardy, Helen Rosenback and Jeanne Orvis. Those unable to attend for various reasons were Mrs. E. J. Brolliar, Mrs. Ernie Manchester, Mrs. Henry Rosenback and Miss Donna Davidson.

• Luncheon Enjoyed—

Mrs. Oscar Hyde and Mrs. Vernon Goetz enjoyed luncheon Monday at the home of Mrs. Johns at mile post 40. Other guests were Mrs. Charles and Donald Goetz, Miss Dolly Grant and Mrs. Hyde of Portland.

Mrs. E. J. Brolliar entertained members of the Ladies Aid at her home last Thursday. A large attendance answered the roll call and final plans were made for the tea this Friday.

• Visitor From Coquille—

Mrs. Walter Norhnberg, who will be remembered as Miss Averill Stewart of Coquille visited the Wilbur Harrisons Monday on a trip to Longview, Wn., to visit relatives.

• Attend McMinnville Conference—

Mrs. Wilbur Harrison attended the Christian Youth Assembly of Oregon at McMinnville, Thursday to Sunday, as a delegate from the Church here.

• Fishing at Hebo—

Ivan Embree and T. J. Langton and T. Thompson of Portland were fishing at Hebo, Ore., over the week-end. Mrs. Embree and children and Mrs. T. J. Langton and sons, Ted and Dick, visited their respective parents in Portland over the week-end.

Mrs. G. E. Heggard and son, Norman, made a business trip to Hood River Tuesday evening.

George Bogardus arrived in the Locks last Thursday to visit his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carlson, and his uncle, Ben Wahl, in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hewitt visited relatives in Portland Saturday.

Portland.

Wilmer Olson of Gaston, Ore., visited his sister, Mrs. Nels Heggard, for several days.

Earl Beam made a business trip to Portland Saturday.

Mrs. John Jones made a business trip to Hood River Tuesday.

• Return From Project—

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Chancy Wineland and son, David, and Jackie and Bobbie Douville, who have been at McCredie on the Sam Orino job, have returned to their homes here.

Mrs. Newton Clark was hostess for a bridge luncheon at her home Saturday for a group of friends from Hood River and Mrs. S. Spoorsen of Bonneville.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Brennan and infant daughter arrived home Saturday from a several weeks' stay in Portland.

• Sustains Broken Arm—

Lost some place in the news was the item of Rodney Hawkins who fell off the Miestrell front porch and broke his arm. Rodney, a first grader, is able to be in school and is getting along fine.

Mrs. H. E. Pointer made a business trip to Portland Tuesday.

• Seal Sale Chairman Here—

Mrs. Jesse Jones of Hood River, County Seal Sale chairman, was a Locks visitor Monday afternoon conferring with Mrs. E. J. Brolliar and Mrs. Jerry Woodward on the plans for the Seal Sale campaign.

Karl and Erlin Rosenback and Jack Woodward were transacting business in Hood River Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Haggblom and Mrs. Charles Haggblom made a business and pleasure trip to Portland Saturday.

• Attend Grid Game—

Mrs. Sue Woodward and Bud, Stella, Clifford and John T. Woodward motored to Salem Friday and attended the Pacific U. vs. Willamette U. football game and attended a show in Portland on their return. Robert Woodward returned with them and spent the week-end at home.

Members of the Swing Club met at the home of Mrs. Lester Sprague Wednesday. The afternoon was spent informally after dessert luncheon.

Mrs. Juanita Lewallen was hostess to a group of ladies Wednesday afternoon at dessert luncheon, followed by bridge. Those present included Mesdames Silver Perras, Louie Amoth, Irvy Hall, Henry May, Lee Murray, George Kerr, Glen Brower and the hostess.

O-H B-O-Y!

Will You Be Surprised!

?

WATCH

NEXT WEEK'S

CHRONICLE