

CASCADE LOCKS

(By Jerry Woodward)

Locks residents enjoyed some of the best skating in years when the pond east of town froze over. The mild weathers brought out more than the usual crowd. Friday night a group of the High School students enjoyed skating and a no-host lunch around the bonfire which they kept on the shore of the lake to see to skate by.

Mrs. Esther Strader underwent a minor operation at the Hood River hospital last week and is recovering nicely at home.

Bob Jenkins was taken to the Hood River hospital Tuesday with a badly infected arm, coming from a cut with a saw.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hewitt were visiting in Hood River Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Langton attended the funeral of Mrs. Langton's brother in Portland Saturday.

Guests Sunday at the J. Kyle home were Mrs. Mable Carter and two sons, Ormond and Dick, of Portland. Mrs. Paul Tompkins was visiting in Hood River Friday.

Mrs. Mary Cole and Mrs. Elizabeth Cole of Portland were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cole.

Mrs. W. J. Carlson and son, John, and Miss Betty Smith made a business trip to Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Du Ross and son, Bobbie, visited relatives in Hood River Sunday.

Bobby Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Clark, was hit in the eye with a piece of steel while watching his father work Sunday, necessitating a trip to the hospital for removal.

Mrs. Harry Du Ross made a business trip to Portland Saturday.

Walter Erickson arrived home Saturday from Corvallis to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erick Erickson.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Goetz and daughter, Martha, spent Friday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Wilhelm and daughter of Salem were visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Peterson.

Mrs. Wm. Sundstein spent several days in Portland last week.

Among those seen on the streets of Hood River Saturday were: Mr. and Mrs. R. D. McKinnon; Mr. and Mrs. Franz Reuterskiold and Mrs. Burnham; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Haggblom; Mr. and Mrs. Newton Clark and children; John Johnson and daughter, Edna Mae; Mrs. Roger Osburn and two sons; Ivan Embree and Gyda Anne; Mrs. Mona Harrison; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sprague and Miss Eileen Sprague; Wm. Sundstein; Elin Whalen; Mrs. Karl Reuterskiold and daughter, Donna.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberg were Stevenson visitors Sunday.

Mrs. L. L. Amoth and son, Victor, and Mrs. Vera Perras spent Friday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Artie Sundsten visited Mrs. Sundsten's father, Mr. Clem Woodward, in Portland Sunday. Mr. Woodward has been in the hospital for some time with rheumatism.

Miss Anne Taylor and Vern Domogalla of Salem were visitors at the Burt Nelson home Sunday.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aleck Erickson were Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberg of Filoma, Wn. Jerry Miller cut his hand quite badly when the family were on a Christmas tree hunting expedition last Sunday. Jerry had walked out on the ice where the skaters were and on his return to the shore slipped and fell, the small axe coming down across his hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Spoerseen, former Locks residents, are receiving the congratulations of their friends. Born to them Dec. 15 was a baby boy, named John Stanley, weighing 7 lbs., 9 ounces. Mother and babe are at the St. Vincents hospital in Portland.

Mrs. G. E. Miller and Harold Fisher made a business trip to Portland Monday.

Mrs. Breta Morgan and the Misses Nell Rae Broliar, Eleanor Sprague, Verna Weeman and Helen Rosenback attended the convention of the Theta Rho girls in Portland Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lowell made a business trip to Hood River last Thursday.

Mrs. Ivan Embree and daughter, Murna, and Mrs. J. F. Kelsay were visiting in Portland Monday.

Mrs. Dave Vincenzi and Mrs. John Ernester shopped in Hood River last Thursday.

Among the residents of the Locks who were in Hood River Monday on different matters of business were: Mrs. C. Whitney, Colin Merrill, Jack Woodward, Archie Douville, Al Galtner, Abe Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Chancey Wineland.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Moore made a business trip to Portland Monday.

The local group of Campfire Girls sold holly and holly bouquets Saturday and netted their group several dollars.

Guests Sunday at the Frank Strader home were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ferguson and daughter, and Mrs. Noble Hyde and sons, Noble and Bobby.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben McEldowney are receiving the congratulations of their friends on the birth of a son, Arthur Ramsey at the Stevenson Hospital. Mrs. McEldowney will be remembered as the former Helen Chisenon to her friends here.

Mrs. Frances Randolph of Hillsboro is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tom Cole and expect to be here several weeks.

Mark Chapman is suffering from quite a severe case of laryngitis but after treatment in Portland and a rest is improving rapidly in health.

Mrs. Russell Nichols, Miss Beth Manchester and Frank Reed made a trip to Portland Wednesday on business.

School News

CASCADE LOCKS HIGH SCHOOL.

(By Virginia McMullen)

Friday night at the high school a Christmas program will be staged by both the high school and the grammar school. Numbers on the program will include a play, the rhythm band, and a singing play by all the pupils in the grade school. As the high school's part they will present a one-act comedy, "The Teeth of the Gift Horse," and the girls' glee will sing several Christmas selections.

Sunday night at the Epworth League the girls' glee will sing Christmas carols and Mrs. Harrison will lead them.

The Campfire Girls had a meeting last Thursday night at the high school. They plan on singing Christmas carols and have a play at the Cascade Lodge. Parents of the girls are invited and each girl is asked to bring a friend. All of the girls are participating.

Last Monday night there was a "Get Together" party at the high school. Refreshments and games were enjoyed by all. All high school students, their parents, and the teachers were invited.

The high school Student Body was very sorry to lose Bernice Mills of the freshman class. She and her parents moved to Seattle where she will attend high school.

Many of the high school students enjoyed ice skating at Swanson Lake where they have been going this last week. They roasted weiners and had bonfires several nights.

The play cast for the Christmas program has improved immensely through the help of Mr. Fisher, who has directed plays at Los Angeles.

CASCADE LOCKS GRADE SCHOOL.

(By Esther McMullen)

The Christmas Program at Bonneville and at Cascade Locks has been keeping everybody busy. Most of the children out of the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth grades are participating in the program at Bonneville.

Miss Jeffries has three new fish in addition to the three she already had in the aquarium. A new turtle was also brought in. It is larger than the one they had at the first of the year.

Christmas trees are being found decorated in every room. Each person brings an ornament for the tree in his room.

Millicent Mills of the fifth grade left for Seattle Monday. We all hope she will enjoy it there.

Names were drawn in each room to exchange Christmas gifts.

Wednesday night was the first that the large tree was lighted. It was erected by the Boy Scouts of Cascade Locks and adds immensely to the Christmas spirit.

Jerry Miller was in a Portland hospital with an injured hand. He has now returned to school.

BONNEVILLE SCHOOL.

(By Loraine Webber)

Christmas packages have started going through Power City Postoffice addressed "In care of Christmas tree."

The Dramatic Class has received the books of their new play. The parts have been cast and they will start rehearsing immediately after the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Susie Bonner Emmons, assistant school supervisor of Multnomah County, visited Bonneville school Thursday.

There will be a program in the school auditorium Friday. The 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th grades will go to their rooms after the program. The 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th will remain in the auditorium and open their presents.

Miss Stevens is going to Hood River and Portland during the Christmas vacation. Mr. Robertson is going to Brownsville.

The third and fourth grade birthday party last Friday was a great success. Rev. Cronk gave a nice talk to the children explaining why we celebrate Christmas. The talk was illustrated with colored slides of the Nativity. The children gave a short program, after which all repaired to the cafeteria where the cakes were cut, and all partook of cake and Paraguay tea. Twenty-five visitors signed the register.

Several children have been absent with colds or to go to town shopping. All are looking forward to the

(Continued on Page Eight)

FURNITURE
and
HOUSEHOLD GOODS

BOUGHT AND SOLD

Furniture Glued
and Renewed

JACK'S
Second Hand Store

Cascade Locks

G. N. Hesgard

GENERAL
BUILDING
CONTRACTOR

CASCADE LOCKS

For late-evening snacks
For lunches
For an appropriate dessert
Young's Popular Fruit Cakes

—and this is fruit cake season

YOUNG'S
DOWNTOWN BAKERY

Hood River

Phone 1651

LET US SOLVE YOUR

"Last Minute" Problems simply and economically. We have hundreds of ideas that are sure to make your usually worrisome problems a pleasure.

Solve and save at—

AMOTH
HARDWARE

Cascade Locks

HOLLYWOOD

Dairy

Warrendale, Ore.

A local Institution interested in serving you to your satisfaction.

Phone Bonneville 14-f-3

for Christmas . . .

We have that Christmas present you have been wondering about giving—come in and see for yourself.

CASCADE DRUG CO.

Phone 412

Cascade Locks