School News

BONNEVILLE SCHOOL NEWS (By Loraine Webber)

The 7th and 8th grade listened to President Roosevelt's speech over the radio Wednesday at 10:00 o'clock. It was interesting and enjoyed by everyone.

The art class is getting along nicely. It started a new problem Wednesday.

Mrs. O'Keefe will attend a special music meeting in Portland Friday.

We are very sorry that Richard Swayzie has moved from Bonneville.

The electric radio-phonograph which the P. T. A. has so kindly provided for the school arrived this week. It is a fine piece of mechanism and we expect much pleasure from its use.

John O'Neil is absent from the third grade because of the sudden death of his father. The teacher and pupils extend to John and the family their deepest sympathy.

The boys and girls of the third and fourth room are now taking up basketry, having finished their knitting project.

CASCADE LOCKS HIGH SCHOOL NEWS (By Virginia McMullen)

Celeste Coe of Stevenson High School visited school all day Tuesday. She stayed with her cousins, Shirley and Genevieve Woodward, over the Christmas holidays.

After the Christmas program the play cast and advisors had an important party given by Mrs. Kyle. The evening was spent singing and playing cards, after which refreshments were served. Those attending were Marjory Smith, June Hardy, Donna Davidson, Sallie McMullen, Hank Brink and Jim Kyle. Miss Wetzel and Mr. Fisher, the advisors, arrived later. A good time was enjoyed by all.

There is to be a basketball game Tuesday, January 10, at 7:30 p. m. in the Cascade Locks High School gymnasium. The Locks Pirates and Stevenson teams are playing. Prices will be 10c and 15c. Come one, come all, and help the boys out.

The Camp Fire Girls met at the Cascade Lodge Saturday night for a New Year's Eve Slumber Party at which not very much slumbering was done. They had a mid-night supper of sausages and went to bed at about 4:30 a. m. After a waffle and sausage breakfast they attended Sunday School with circles under their eyes from lack of sufficient sleep. Those enjoying the party were Donna Davidson, Sallie McMullen, Eileen Sprague, Verna Weeman, Helen Rosenback, and Virginia McMullen.

CASCADE LOCKS GRADE SCHOOL NEWS (By Esther McMullen)

While the pupils of the grade school were having a good time during the Christmas holidays, Mr. Embree and the janitors worked hard re-decorating the rooms, which improves their looks immensely. A bookcase was put in the eighth grade room.

The lunch room was opened Wednesday. The eighth grade girls will serve and cook.

Yearl Lovgren entered the eighth grade Tuesday.

The Jones children recently moved to California where they will attend grammar school.

Churches

What Is An Interdenominational Church

More and more there is a growing feeling on the part of not only church members of all denominations but those who are not members of any church that it is not only a sinful waste of the financial support given to the different churches, but a splitting up of forces of righteousness into such weak and helpless groups that the influence of the churches for moral and ethical standards is almost nil, to have in every little community a number of small and ill supported churches. More and more there is a growing feeling that in some way the large numbers of religious sects and denominations ought to find some way of reconciling their differences and uniting their forces at least in some effective working unit that will allow for a reasonable measure of success and a more harmonious spirit.

With this thought in mind the Oregon Council of Churches, working together with the Methodist Church, which has had the only organized church in Cascade Locks for a number of years, decided to make Cascade Locks and Bonneville into a larger parish interdenominational church. The idea is that all denominations accepting the faith of Jesus Christ shall have a place where they may worship together and work together for a common cause and still each and every one retain the peculiarities of his particular faith and membership in his own denomination, but that at the same time he may be an associate member of the interdenominational organization.

Of course, the success of this effort depends on the amount of cooperation which is given the movement. Everyone of every Christian faith is profoundly urged to rally to the cause. The pastor of the Interdenominational Church is going to spend the remaining four Sunday morning hours in explanation and exposition of this whole question and urgently invites all, both old and young, to turn out and hear all about this most important question. The general theme for the rest of January will be: "The People's Church." Next Sunday the subject will be, "Progress"; Jan. 15, "Adequate Vision"; Jan. 22, "Fortified and Fortitude" and Jan. 29, "Individual Responsibility."

The same subjects will be treated at both Bonneville and Cascade Locks. The hour at Bonneville is 9:45 a. m. and at Cascade Locks 11:15 a. m. Will you not only come but bring your families and friends.
