Miss Galasheff attended the Multnomah County Primary Executive meeting Saturday.

Donald Caps has been absent from school on account of illness. The 2nd grade wrote him letters.

The 2nd grade had a spelling contest. There were 60 words. Those spelling them all correctly were: Willis Memovich, Joan Lash, and Jean Lewis. Their reward was they do not have to take spelling all this week.

Bobby Des Islets brought a beautiful primrose to school for the 1st and 2nd grade room.

The third and fourth room are mourning the departure of Snowball, their white mouse. Whether he climbed out the window, down the air shaft, or whether he had help to get away we do not know. But he has been gone several days, seemingly to stay.

Carol and Lillian Bucher, Gilbert Glazier, and Barbara and Alden Johnson have returned to school after an absence caused by illness.

The third and fourth room are much interested in a new "History Wheel" which gives occupation after lessons are learned.

Valentine's Day is coming. The school store has a nice supply of valentines for sale.

Wednesday evening, Jan. 24, the Hood River Sophomores defeated the Cascade Locks Pirates at Hood River by a score of 49-19. The locals weren't used to as large a floor and were handicapped by the fact. The lineup for the home team was as follows: Chet Woodward, Hank Brink, Cliff Woodward, Noble Hyde, Bo Jenkins and Jim Smith.

Mr. Gibson, the Hood River County School Superintendent, visited Cascade Locks Schools Wednesday morning.

Friday evening, January 27, Odell met the Pirates in two games at Odell. The second squad met their defeat by a score of 23-19. The lineup was: Clarke Brathford, Bob Morgan, Jimmy Merrill, Bob Hyde, Dub Merrill and Norman Lovell. The first string of the locals was also defeated by their Odell opponents by a score of 45-24. The lineup was the same as that of the Hood River Sophs game.

Donna Davidson, a member of the senior class of the Cascade Locks High School, quit school so that she may finish her last term in Portland. We were all sorry to see her go and will miss her very much.
