

Where's There a Better One?

We live in a region that's scenic and pretty.
We live in a town that will soon be a city.
Oh, stores with fine merchandise you will find here.
And restaurants and taverns that serve better beer.

Our streets are well lighted with Bonneville power
Our town's getting better almost every hour.
Our church and our school and our lodges and clubs
Are better than those of some other town's dubs.

Our council, our mayor, our citizens fine
Cannot be surpassed anywhere on the line.
Now what we've been saying's no hot air or vapor,
And furthermore, now, we've a Cascade Locks paper.
