

CASCADE LOCKS

(By Gerry Woodward)

Mrs. C. A. Saunders presented the pupils of her music class in recital Wednesday night at the Cascade Lodge which was well-attended by both the Locks and Bonneville. Prizes were awarded to Nell Rae Broliar, Jeanne Orvis and Virginia McMullen for putting in the longest hours of practice on their lessons. Children taking part in the program were the Misses Sally, Virginia and Esther McMullen, Eileen and Eleanor Sprague, Nell Rae Broliar, Jeanne Orvis, Norma Davidson and Dean Davidson. Mrs. Owen of Bonneville rendered a violin solo and the women's quartet, which Mrs. Saunders plays for, sang "Calm as the Night." The group consists of Mrs. Cronk and Mesdames Locks, McAuslan and Owen of Bonneville. The program was very much enjoyed by those present as the children gave a very creditable performance. Mrs. Saunders was presented with a potted plant of tulips by her pupils in appreciation of her work. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapin of Portland were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reid's Wednesday night.
