

These New Patterns Have Lovely Lines

THE full-sleeved, high-waisted dress (1721) is a perfectly charming fashion for afternoon parties, club meetings and luncheons. It does nice things to your figure, because the bodice is gathered into just enough fullness, and the high waistline makes you look slimmer around the middle and over the diaphragm. Make it of silk crepe, georgette, prints or chiffon.

Here's a simple little pattern (1670) that brings you one of the very smartest styles of the season—the button-front frock for every day wear. It has wide shoulders, a flaring skirt, and the fitting is all by means of simple darts that draw in the waistline and fill out the bust. Flat crepe, prints, thin wool and linen are nice materials for this dress.

Veils and Veiling Are Omnipresent

Veils and veiling are that omnipresent in the millinery mode the eyes have to sight through yards and yards of veiling to discover the hat itself. To radiate the spirit of spring try tying a bright green veil over your new black or navy straw. Green veils are the "last word in chic."

It's the proper thing to match the color of your veil to your gloves and other accessories. You will like the new hats made all of veiling. They are appealingly feminine and in their exquisite colorings they tune to spring most charmingly. The all-veiling hat (most often a little sailor) is made of twisted strands of the veiling or layer upon layer. To add allure there are long streamer ends of the veiling to tie and twirl with provocative grace.

Object of Admiration

Resort visitors are telling their admiration for the rough straw sailor with a high perky bow of taffeta on its untitled brim.

New Color Harmonies

Grooming one's self according to the latest color charts becomes increasingly complicated.

New Styles Make You Appear Young

Designers Bend Energies To Follow Trend.

You are supposed to look your youngest this season. To this end designers are bending their energies with utmost enthusiasm—to do just that for you, give you youth.

It is of course an easy matter for the young to look the youth of their years in the new swing skirts, the frilly-frilly petticoat hemlines, the demure bonnets, the gay ribbons and flowers and colorful vanities that glorify the mode these days, but the big news is that fashion is giving a chance to each and every one of her followers regardless of years and "curves" to visit the fountain of youth and partake.

To prove our argument, consider the new pleated and multi-gored skirts that center the stage this season. If you are slight and slim and "sweet sixteen" pleats are let go flare from the waistline as turbulently and frolicsome as they please, but when it comes to the woman who needs must give the impression of being slender whether she is or not, fashion has in nowise forgotten her. There are pleated skirts that actually slenderize, in that the pleats are adroitly stitched down to a proper depth so as to achieve a smooth fitted line.

The new hats are youthful, too, and the gay colored accessories fashion insists you must wear be you young or not so young refuse to keep record of birthday anniversaries and what with costumes prettied with utterly feminine frilly-frilly lingerie touches there is no doubt about it we will all be looking "fresh as a daisy" in our new clothes these springtime days.

Of Silk Shirting

It's your play! And why not play in a sports dress of purple silk shirting striped in white, with self-color simulated reptile belt, as here pictured? Speaking of silk for sports frocks, here's another suggestion. If you select a dress of dull-surfaced nubby silk noil, in the new olive green and off-white color, you will be all set. Complement this with a separate lumber jacket top.

Navy Vogue Steps To Fashion Front

Contrasting the flamboyant plaids and stripes and gay prints now so much in vogue is the navy vogue which has stepped to the front. Suits with cunningly devised jackets, dresses with accompanying boleros and coats galore are neatly tailored of navy wools. The accessories may be either very colorful or follow the trend that calls for lingerie touches in immaculate white.

TIPS to Gardeners

Helping Seeds Along

THE first step toward insuring germination of seeds is proper planting. In exceptionally dry weather, however, even properly planted seeds may not germinate. It is advisable in such a case to prepare the dry soil for the seed. Water freely, as though you had a crop growing. Allow the water to soak in and when the soil has good moisture content, begin your planting. You must be careful, of course, not to plant in wet, muddy soil.

Excessive rainfall, on the other hand, may make the soil so moist as to cause rotting of planted seeds. If they have not germinated within a reasonable length of time after planting, a few of them should be dug up and examined. If rotting is indicated, another planting must be made.

While few vegetable seeds require special treatment to assist germination, numerous flower seeds can successfully be treated, according to Gilbert Bentley, flower expert.

He advises as follows: Nick the seed coat of lupin, moonflower and morning glory; remove the rough outer coating of nasturtium, momordica, castor bean and sand verberna; soak canna, lily, job's tear and sweet pea seeds in water for 12 hours before planting.

SAFETY TALKS

Like the Chicken, We—

IT BEGINS to look as though maybe we humans are second cousins to the chickens when it comes to crossing the road.

Of 7,250 pedestrians killed during 1937 in traffic accidents that occurred in cities, says the National Safety Council, in its 1938 edition of "Accident Facts," 85 per cent were struck while crossing the road.

About 2,900 persons were injured fatally while crossing a street somewhere BETWEEN intersections. Approximately 3,260 met their death at intersections. Either they were crossing the intersection with the traffic signal, against the signal, diagonally, or were crossing an intersection at which there was no traffic signal. Deadly and tragic work at the crossroads!

Uncle Phil Says:

We Cultivate That Field

Politics offers such a tremendous field in which to be bogus.

The world owes no man anything who does not serve it.

What is the greatest pleasure of an old man? Conversation. Indulge him—if you have a kind heart.

Let Us Add Courage

Confucius recommended five moral virtues—humanity, justice, order, prudence and rectitude; none of which is likely to accomplish much without a stout heart.

One of the mistaken virtues is candor in the wrong place.

If one earnestly wants to be a gentleman he can be one. The rules are plain.

That's All We Ask

Laws cannot change human nature, they can but, at best, change human behavior.

Everyone may be an idealist; but none should be a zealot. A zealot is a nuisance.

A father with youthful sons lives perpetually in the midst of alarms.
