School News

CASCADE LOCKS HIGH SCHOOL

(By Virginia McMullen)

It was a reporter's mistake in last week's news that said the high school students were going on a skate. They had planned to but they later found out that the skating rink in Hood River was closed. Instead they had a party in the High School gymnasium. They hired a music box and danced and roller skated on the gym floor. Some also played ping pong. They had a pot-luck supper consisting of hot dogs, buns, salad, cake, cocoa and ice cream. Visitors were Colleen and Maralyn Caron of Bonneville. A good time was enjoyed by all attending.

Mr. Langton, the high school principal, was absent Friday and Monday on account of business and the illness of his mother.

Wednesday afternoon the faculty took the pictures for the Annual which will be out very soon. Pictures were taken of the Student Body, the football and basketball teams, the Girls' Glee Club, the Senior Class, and the Staff for the Annual and High School Paper. Each student is writing an article for it.

Sunday in the local church the high school will have Baccalaureate Services. Thursday night, May 18, will be Graduation night for the Seniors. The following day report cards will be given out and there will be a school picnic. Semester exams will be given Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

BONNEVILLE SCHOOL

The third and fourth grades held the last birthday party of the school year on Tuesday by going by train to Viento Park for an all-day picnic.

The Union Pacific consented to stop the train at Viento for the party, although Viento is no longer even a flag stop. An extra coach was attached to the train and Mr. T. W. Swobe, Traffic Agent at The Dalles, came down to accompany the party. The train was a bit late at Bonneville, but soon the anxious party was put aboard the first coach after noticing the mail being put off and on. The children were conducted through the length of the train, while curious passengers smiled on them. The dining car steward, Mr. Du Lay, presented each child with an ice cream slice. The porters had made up a few berths so they see just what beds on the train are like. Mr. Swobe gave them all picture post cards and other literature.

The children were thrilled at passing through the tunnel—in fact the whole trip was one continuous thrill.

Alighting at beautiful Viento Park, the little folks scattered all over the place, up the bluff and along the creek. Roderic Short had brought his fishing pole and caught a 7-inch trout. He also caught a large water dog, which had to be returned to the creek.

Well-filled baskets had been provided by kind mothers, as well as a cake with candles for each child having a birthday during the summer.

Early in the afternoon the school bus came to take the party home.

Those whose birthdays were being celebrated were George Chaney, Eleanor McCreery, Danny Barham, Altha Stewart, Marie Wallace, Donna Johnson, Jacqueline Downing, Jorlyn Lautman, John O'Neil and Lillian Bucher.

Mothers who accompanied the party on the train were Mrs. Downing, Mrs. Webber, Mrs. Leitheiser, Mrs. Lautman, Mrs. Racanelli, Mrs. Brower and Mrs. Chaney. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Barham drove up later in the morning.

Thanks are due the Union Pacific System, Mrs. Collins, agent, Mr. Dalrymple, conductor; Mr. Swobe and Mr. Du Lay, as well as the entire train crew for an instructive and happy day.

Last Friday was the third and fourth grade room's turn to conduct the assembly. They invited Mr. Noyes E. Tyrrell of Bonneville to give a talk on birds. Mr. Tyrrell talked entertainingly of the birds of prey, those birds that are usually thought of as being a menace to the farmer's chickens and stock and to small birds. He showed interesting pictures of many hawks, owls and other birds, and explained how really useful they are because of the rodents, such as mice and gophers, which they destroy. He explained that the life of the earth would soon be destroyed by the

At the close of the meeting Mr. Tyrrell was given a rising vote of thanks for his talk, and he promised to come again next year and describe some of our animals.

Mr. Wiesendanger was to have followed with a reel of wild life, but was called away at the last minute, so is giving his talk a little later.

The East Room Stamp Club took down its exhibits on Friday. The prizes awarded for the best displays were as follows: For foreign stamps, Patricia Ward was awarded a set of foreign stamps as a prize for her lovely display. For the Army-Navy set, Patsy Leitheiser received a prize in the American stamp division. Wallace Laxton was awarded the Texas Centennial First Day Cover for his display of first day cancellations.

The grand prize went to Phillip Rabideau for his display of foreign stamps with the American flag on them. This was really a very attractive exhibit and very worthy of the grand prize, which was a set of the prized Red Cross Abyssinia stamps.

The upper division has been working on Stanford Tests, and the Progressive Tests the past week.

There was a Student Body Meeting Tuesday. New officers for the coming year were elected. They are as follows: President, Dolores Siefer; Vice-president, Jim Haskett; Secretary, Loraine Webber; Student Council, Jeanette Caron; Fire Chief, Nelson Ross; Safety Officers: boys, Dave Caron, Donald Carlton; girls, Marilyn Tietjen, Dorothy O'Neil.

Your reporter asked each one to say something. The President, Dolores, Siefer, said, "Oh Gee! I'm the happiest girl in the world."

Vice-president, Jim Haskett, said, "I appreciate very much the honor of being elected Vice-president." The Secretary, Loraine Weber, said, "I'm speechless."

Student Council, Jeanette Caron, said, "I'm happy I'm elected." Fire Chief, Nelson Ross, said, "I'm happy and I like the job."

Dave Caron, Safety Officer, said, "Oh, I think it's swell." Marilyn Tietjen, Safety Officer, said, "It's exciting. Wow!"

Dorothy O'Neil, Safety Officer, said, "I'm happy to think the children elected me." Donald Carlton, Safety Officer, said, "I'm very highly honored to serve my school."

The Bixbys are going to the World's Fair, which means Keith and Denny will be leaving us Friday.

There will be a track meet at Stevenson Friday. Some of the Bonneville students will participate.

There will be a softball game Monday between Bonneville school and Corbett.
