Army Engineers Build Footbridge in Eight Minutes

Zog—Another King Without a Country

London Paraders Protest Conscription

Members of the London No-Conscription league paraded in protest recently in answer to Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's proposal to bring a million Britishers under arms through conscription. Youths of conscript age, women and ex-service men took part in the parade.

WORLD'S SMALLEST?

Not much taller than the ordinary telephone he is using, Paul Del Rio, 19, claims to be the smallest man in the world.

Paul was born in Madrid, Spain. He weighs but a dozen pounds, and is 19 inches tall. Except for his small stature, Paul is perfectly normal. At present he is on tour of the principal cities of the United States.

QUEEN OF TEXTILES

Miss Jessamine Boyce of Gastonia, N. C., queen of the June Cotton festival at Gastonia, combed-yarn center of America, is shown here with cotton in the form in which it is most important to her community. Naturally her own clothes, even to the stockings she wears, are of cotton.

BEAU BRUMMEL JR.

This immaculately turned-out young New Yorker has topped his tan sun suit with a modern streamlined version of his father's straw hat, even to the contrasting band. The straw halo reflects the sun's heat from the head.
