

TANNER CREEK BLUES

Tanner Creek at its mouth is a very nice brook,
Just a wonderful place to cast out your hook.

We had lots of fun in the year just gone by.

But this year along comes the law and says, "why,

This creek is closed from mouth to highway,

But we'll leave you room on another by-way.

You can fish beyond this if you have the nerve,

Only please keep off of the Bull-Run reserve.

The kingfisher and hawk can fish there still,

But anglers, you must go over the hill.

And when you go, all you need is your boots,

Unless you fish on the upper Deschutes."

In this little poem I mean no harm.

But I'll do my fishing down on the farm.
