Mrs. Don Crow and daughter, Donna Jean, visited Mrs. Lester Pike at Newberg for a week, returning home Saturday night.

Cascade Locks

(By Gerry Woodward)

Mrs. B. M. Bartlett of Astoria and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holbrook of Butte, Mont., were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. McCormick Wednesday.

Mrs. J. F. Kelsay and sons, Bob and Paul, made a business trip to Hood River Tuesday.

Freddie Walker and Bobby Brown, with assistant Scoutmaster Alvah Foote, left Saturday morning by way of the Herman Creek trail for the Scout Camp at Lost Lake for a short vacation. They will return the Eagle Creek trail.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stewart made a business trip to Portland Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sundsten, Miss Elin Sundsten, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Rosenback and daughter, Helen, and Gene Kelter drove to Oregon City Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Herb Frazier and daughter. The occasion was Mrs. Frazier's birthday. Mrs. Reuterskiold and daughter remained for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dixon and children visited in Portland Monday. Mr. Dixon is progressing rapidly on their new home. We were told it was going to be a garage to begin with, but it rapidly changed proportions.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Jenkins of Portland visited Mrs. Emma Woodward Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Miller and sons spent the week-end at Rainey Lake fishing. We heard Jerry caught some fine trout.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Harris of Clackamas were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Preston Bassart Tuesday.

Jack McCristy and daughters were Hood River visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Carnes visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller in Portland Saturday evening and saw the fleet's searchlight display.

daughter of Portland are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gunderson for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Hesgard, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Hesgard and children and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Amoth and son, Victor, picnicked at Starvation Creek Sunday.

Ray Fultz left Wednesday on a business trip to Detroit.

Mrs. Preston Bassart spent several days in Portland last week.

Emmett Winkle lost three prize mallard ducks from in back of the White Spot last week. We heard they were brought from Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Reed of Adams, Ore., and Russell Woodward of Stevenson visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Woodward last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Webber were down from Tacoma to spend the week-end here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Oakes of Scappoose are visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hepner of Warrenton drove up Sunday and returning with them was their daughter, Norma, who has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haggblom. Betty Kelsay and Herbert Haggblom will spend two weeks with the Hepners.

Mrs. Francis Randolph left Tuesday for Hillsboro after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tom Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Meyers and children and great grandmother, Mrs. Siltz, of Vernonia, picnicked at Eagle Creek Monday and drove up to the Locks where the children wanted to see their granddad, Al Meyers. Needless to say, he's pretty proud of the twins, now 18 months old.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bohres entertained at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rice and three children of Portland.

Warren Davidson and daughter, Norma, and Audry Kelsay were Portland visitors last Friday.

Mrs. Henry Rosenback, Mike Long and Miss Fay Barnes drove to Portland Sunday and returned with Mrs. Long and small son, John Dale.

Jim Merrill and sons, Jim and Dub, drove to Portland Monday to visit Mrs. Merrill.

Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Sundsten and children and Mrs. Jack Collins of Coulee visited in the Locks over the week-end and also to Portland to visit Mrs. Jim Merrill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Peterson and two sons, accompanied by Mrs. August Peterson and Charles Nelson, drove to Portland last Thursday to visit relatives.
