CASCADE LOCKS

(By Jerry Woodward)

Mrs. Tom Harrison left Sunday for Eugene where Mr. Harrison is employed.

Miss Eileen Sprague spent the week-end in Portland as the guest of Miss Ann Rasmussen.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunar Bergstrom and Alf Anderson of Coopey Falls visited friends in the Locks Saturday evening.

Mrs. Hilda Olin visited relatives in Portland last week.

Miss Ida Glazier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jes Glazier, was married last week to Mr. Wilfred Pernula of Deep River, Wn. They were married at Raymond, Wn., and drove up the end of the week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Glazier.
They were accompanied by Mrs.
Nick Harrison and Nina Glazier from Multnomah. The best wishes of the community goes to the young couple.

Mrs. Sue Woodward returned home Monday evening from a three-months' visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs.
Mike Weaver, at Jamestown, Cal.
A trip to the Fair and Yosemite and different places of interest made a real vacation. The temperature was getting a little too warm and hastened her trip home.
Doc Hammell has been nursing an abscessed eye this week, which has been very painful. We hope he will have a speedy recovery.

Eileen Sprague has her arm bandaged as a result of the skating party Monday night.

Mrs. Charles Bennett was called to Terrebonne Wednesday. Her mother was quite ill. Maxine Bennett accompanied her mother.

Mrs. Ben Scott entertained her Sunday School class at her home last Friday at a no-host party.
The children made home-made ice cream and derived a great deal of pleasure in turning the freezers.
Those enjoying the afternoon were Elli Nelson, Juanita and Pauline McCristy, Bonny and Virginia Martin, Shirley and Florence Smeltzer, Joan McCormick, Maxine Bennett, Betty June Stark, Billy Joan Harten, and Jean and Judy Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Manchester and George Lamont visited in The Dalles Sunday and attended the auto races. Russ Nichols placed third in his red racer which he won on a raffle and made $15 on the race.

Misses Helen Young and Ruth Buche, of the Columbia Gorge Hotel were visiting friends in the Locks Wednesday.

Homemakers' Camp Slated Next Week

The annual Homemakers' Camp, which during the last few years has been held at Lost Lake, has been scheduled for next week from Wednesday to Sunday this year at Camp Defiance at Green Point.
For a small fee, mothers, their older daughters and housewives are entitled to attend the camp, where meals are provided and the homemakers are allowed to sojourn from household duties. The camp is sponsored by the Extension Department of Oregon State College and is under the direction of Louise Harwood.

County Agent A. L. Marble, who is recording registrations, announced yesterday that registrations are short of the quota of 50 which is regarded as the minimum attendance by the Extension Service.
Unless more homemakers register for the camp, it may be necessary to cancel it this year, Mr. Marble stated.

An opportune time for that vacation or business trip. Economy fares apply practically everywhere.
