Newberg should have a friendly feeling for McMinnville as the latter has sent a

McMINNVILLE'S LAMENTATIONS.

We are dying, Yamhill dying,

Turn our wailing not to mirth,

To vote the county seat we're trying,

In the worst mud hole on earth.

If we fail, with all our booming,

Suffer an Icarian fall.

Spared good Newberg, help a neighbor,

And with us the burden share;

Spared we either time or labor

To attend your county fair?

Should we lose, how great the pity,

Yamhill's jewel would be pet,

Fail to make our's a great city,

For the sake of Lafayette?

Have they not our progress heeded,

Can, or will, they pass us by?

We count two stores where one is needed,

With ambition soaring high.

If button-holing the grand jury,

Fails to make for us a gain,

Then, we've perverted truth like fury,

For a boggy, marshy plain.

Here's our secret, how laudible,

And, for once we write it down;

We have got it bad, yes chronic—

Ruin of our neighboring town.

We will promise voters money,

Then, refuse it, what's the harm?

Tempt them with sweet words like honey—

Pay them, from the Derby farm.

Come, and help us in our trouble,

Wheatland, Dayton and Bellevue,

Help us boom our empty bubble,

Then we will remember you.

Help us, East and West Chehalum,

Amity and Sheridan;

Then with gratitude we'll hail 'em

Willamina, join our clan.

Then, it must not be forgotten,

By our sister North Yamhill—

Carlton knows the jail is rotten,

And will vote for McMinnville.

Jury's boss of good condition

Of the court house and the jail—

Strange, that men in their position,

Should so in their duty fail.

Faith is all we want by thunder—

McMinnvillians kneel with me,

Pray that the court house yonder,

Leap from thence into our sea.

—ONTARIO.

THE NARROW GAUGE.

NESTUCA AND TILLAMOOK TO BE IMPORTANT

POINTS ON THE OREGON COAST.

Wm. Reid, C. N. Scott and others who are closely connected with the Oregon railway went through the pass by the way of Willamina to Nestucca bay to examine the route with a view to extending their road to that point. This we understand to be a summer resort, but the objective point is to be Tillamook bay, and eventually along the coast to Astoria.

This when accomplished will make Nestucca and Tillamook important points on our coast. There are but few harbors on the Oregon coast and Tillamook is the most accessible, and can be improved at a mere nominal expense, and when this is done it will be the shipping point for Yamhill and Polk as well as a large portion of this end of the valley. We understand that the Southern Pacific railroad company is at the back of this move, and intend to control that part of the Oregon coast. Tillamook bay is large enough,

"FOR GOD AND HOME AND NATIVE

LAND."

Mrs. F. A. Morris, Press Superintendent,

Newberg, Oregon.

Vote for the amendment!

The recent showers of rain remind us of old times, and serve as a kind of prelude to the approaching rainy season.

Services were held at the Evangelical church on Sabbath last, with the Rev.

Mr. Pratt, in charge.

Mr. Martin Cook occupied the pulpit at the Friends' church Sabbath.

Uncle Wm. Holson returned Saturday from his religious visit to eastern Oregon.

He reports a pleasant and profitable time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Maris, who spent the past year in Oregon, started on their homeward journey Wednesday the 28th

ult. They expect to spend a few weeks in the "sun kissed clime," whence they will go to Kansas City and Lawrence to visit relatives and friends, thence to their home in Indiana.

There was a called meeting of the W.

C. T. U. Saturday afternoon, the main object of which was to take steps toward getting Mrs. Skelton to lecture in this place, some time in the near future. Mrs.

Skelton is an eastern lady—a German by birth—who speaks both English and German fluently, eloquently and pathetically. She is a noble, gifted, refined lady, pleading for her home, her boys, her country.

Mrs. Mary Lathrop, a temperance lecturer of national reputation, will be at McMinnville October 17th. As many of our citizens as can do so, should avail themselves of this rare opportunity of hearing a lady, who we understand, is second to none in the United States as a lecturer.

We had the pleasure of attending a large and enthusiastic (?) meeting of the Newberg Agricultural Association last Saturday afternoon. The principal object of the meeting was to decide whether Newberg shall have a district fair with enclosed grounds, gate fees, premiums, etc. The matter was discussed by only a few of the members, however, and a committee of five appointed to determine whether now is a proper time to take steps toward a permanent organization.

Some who oppose the measure argue that
