STATE OF OREGON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, SALEM, Nov. 1st, 1887. I do hereby appoint the fourth Thursday of the present month, to be observed by the people of Oregon, as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God, the great Ruler of nations, for the manifold blessings he has bestowed upon this commonwealth.
The same courtesy that prompts us to expressions of gratitude to a friend, for favors received, should impel us all to give public thanks to God for his numberless mercies.

SYLVESTER PENNOYER,
Governor.
By the Governor,
Geo. W. McBride,
Secretary of State.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Dr. Davis: resident dentist.
Highest price paid for all kinds of wrought and cast iron. Apply to Carl Young.

The county court adjourned on Wednesday, without doing any business, until next week.

Mr. T. J. Belcher, brother of our fellowtownsman J. M. Belcher, arrived here from Texas on Wednesday.

Our old bachelor friend, Seth R. Hammer, of Salem, was in town on Monday and paid us a pleasant visit.

Money to loan on improved farming lands, from one to five years time in sums to suit. FENNER & FENNER, Lafayette, Or.

The editor who saw a lady making for the only seat in the car found himself "crowded out to make room for more interesting matter."—Jewelry News.

Jerry Caldwell, of the Oregonian, Mr.
Sanderson of the States, Portland, and St. L. Heath, of the Telephone, witnessed the execution today. We acknowledge calls.

Mrs. A. V. R. Snyder and family arrived in this city Thursday from Astoria, on their way to Kowall's mill, where Mrs. Snyder goes in search of better health. Mr. S. will soon follow.—Lafayette

Wm. Gammie, of Lawd & Reed's Broadmeads farm, left for the east recently. While gone he will purchase a fine stallion and some thoroughbred Short Horns. He will extend his trip to Chicago.

Of the seven Chicago anarchists, Lingg committed suicide; the sentences of Fielding and Schwab have been commuted to life imprisonment; the other four were to be hanged today and we suppose they were.

Benjamin Harris left this morning for the Dalles on his way to his new home on the Des Chutes. Mr. Harris has been suffering very much the past week, and all join in the hope that a change of climate will prove beneficial.

Our Newberg correspondent, Prohibi-tionist, refers to the runaway that happened to Hans Christensen last Saturday.
By the accident Mr. C. lost $40 in coin, for the recovery of which he will give a suitable reward. The money may be left with C. H. Christensen in Lafayette.

The latest manufacture of paper, is a cotton. You can now build your house of paper, eat from paper plates, wipe your face with a paper handkerchief, buy your writing with a paper pen, and go to the grave in a paper coffin. The coffin may be paid for with a piece of paper, and the dead may be published on paper, and the same paper used for a bier. There is nothing more useful than paper.

It has been discovered that the average length of time that the $12,000 a year clerkman is able to work without becoming a physical wreck and having to be sent abroad is seven months. The $10,000 man can stand it eight months; he who receives $7,000, nine months; the $5,000 preacher, ten months; and so on; but the man on a $500 salary works right along all the year around and he doesn't break down. Who can explain this?—The Disc.

CLUBBING RATES.

We have made arrangements with the New York World publishers, whereby we can furnish the REGISTER, the Weekly World and any one of three valuable books for $2.50. The books are the "History of the United States," "History of England," and "Everybody's Guide." Price of each book alone is $2.00. The REGISTER will keep abreast of the times the coming year. It is our intention to enlarge and otherwise improve our already popular paper on or before January 1, 1888. Our subscription list is increasing constantly, and the future for a REGISTER is bright. Present subscribers can take advantage of the above very liberal offer by paying all arrears and $2.50 for the REGISTER, World and choice of books for the year to come. You can get a sample copy of the World by sending your address to the publishers, and you can see the books by calling at this office.
These rates apply only to cash mail subscribers, to those who pay full year in advance, and will close promptly on January 1, 1888.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

During the month of October marriage licenses were issued to the following parties by County Clerk Friedwell: Edwin Ernest, Sarah Lawson
William T. Johnson, Nora E. Sallee Roland O. Jones, Edith E. Ingraham Jas. Edson, Mattie M. Fryer
Michael Aylward, Mary Aylward Harry J. Palmer, Edith Gibson
Geo. S. Barnholtzer, Minnie S. Case Bobt. A. Kink, Annie M. Cruse
Jesse N. Yocum, Belle Rhoads

THE WHEELS TURN.—At last after innumerable disappointments and vexatious delays arising from shipping the machinery from the east and other unavoidable causes, on Wednesday morning the machinery of the paper mill was put in motion, and the mill is now turning out straw paper. It will be a week or two before the mill will be running on regular time, but it is encouraging to note that it is at work. The Columbia River paper company deserves great credit for its energy in crowding to completion this great structure, and getting it in motion within a year after its destruction by fire. The company has large orders for paper, and the mill will be run day and night as soon as it is in complete working order. When running on full time it will employ about sixty-five hands, which must add considerably to our present population.—LaCamas News.

IMMIGRATION.—The regular monthly meeting of the Oregon Immigration board was held last Friday. From the secretary's report we glean the following items:
"The majority of men visiting the board rooms are men of families.
Nearly all of them come from the cyclone states—Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri. Of ninety-two one way tickets issued by the board twenty-three were for Ashland; twelve for Medford; seventeen for Grant's Pass; five for Sheridan; two for Dallas, and the balance went to Douglas, Linn and Marion counties. The number of immigrants going into southern Oregon by way of the Southern Pacific is also large, and it is thought by those in a position to judge that the influx next year will outnumber any year in our history. Yamhill has room for a good many more."

GETTING LETTER.—Judge Boise, who has been suffering considerably during the past two weeks from an attack of rheumatic fever, is reported as steadily improving, though not yet able to leave his room, and, indeed, being confined a part of the time to his bed. Though it is probable that he will be nearly recovered by next Monday, to which time the October term of the Linn county court was adjourned, it is not expected that he will be able to preside at the session. It is likely that Judge Taylor, of the fifth district, will take Judge Boise's place, a request to do so having been dispatched to him.—Statesman.

FINE WORK.—Geo. H. Westerfield resented several of his fine horse shoes.
These shoes are made in some twenty different styles of shape, and weight, and each has a use and purpose. There are shoes for training, forging, iron forging, trotting, running, the toe-weight, side-weight, open plate, bar plate, Maul's bar, tip, ice and rolling motion trotting shoes. If you want any fancy or plain horse shoeing done you should give George a trial.

William Madrox, while bringing the mail through from Tillamook to North Yamhill a few days since, struck the pack horse which was carrying it, whereupon the animal leaped out with its heels, kicking Madrox in the instep and hurting him so severely that it was with difficulty that by the assistance of Mr. T. B.
Hawley who was with him he got so far as the Mountain House, where he was obliged to lie over.

MARRIED.—By Dr. J. W. Watts on November 5, 1887, at the house of Dr. E.
Poppleton, the bride's father, in Lafayette, Miss Minta Poppleton to Robert Alexander, of Dayton; all of Yamhill County, Or.

On Monday morning there came near being a fire in Westerfield's hardware store. The cause was a defective fuse.
This is the time of year to look out that everything about the stove and chimney is in good order.

The Execution.

Richard E. Marple Pays the Death Penalty for the Murder of D. I. Corker.

HE MAINTAINS HIS INNOCENCE TO THE LAST.

The murder of D. I. Corker on the night of Nov. 1st, 1886, was one of the most brutal and flandish ever perpetrated in this county. The harrowing details of this crime were given to the public at that time and it is not our purpose to recite them now. The condemned man spent the present week in much the same manner that he has since his sentence.
While the workmen were putting up the scaffold within his hearing he talked and laughed with them. Last night he was restless, spending almost the entire night, or until 4 o'clock this morning in talking to the guard: He kept the guard writing a good portion of the night. In these statements he accused some of our best citizens of the crime, but did not acknowledge any degree of guilt himself.

This morning people commenced to arrive, hoping to see and hear what was to be done. At a little past twelve o'clock the jury of twelve to witness the execution were called into the stockade built around the scaffold and were followed by the representatives of the press and a few invited witnesses. Sheriff Harris of this county and Sheriff Minto of Marion examined the scaffold to see that all was in readiness. At 12:30 sheriff Harris led the doomed man to the scaffold and seated him in a chair. Deputy Sheriff Collard told Marple that he now had an opportunity to speak if he had anything to say. After a moment's whispered conversation with Father White, Catholic priest, he arose and scanned the twenty-five or thirty faces turned to watch his movements and hear what he had to say.
He commenced by saying that he knew something about the murder, but that he was in no manner connected with it except that the parties who killed Corker sought his life also. He maintained his innocence and said his execution was murder in the eyes of the laws of the state and United States.

Sheriff Harris said, "time is up. Marple answered, "But I'm not up." Deputy sheriff Collard then read the death warrant, during which Marple exclaimed, "Lie! Lie! Murder! Murder!" Then another little whispered conversation with Father White. The convicted man took his place upon the trap with a resolute and defiant step, showing that he was mad and did not intend to flinch or break down. His legs were strapped together and handcuffs placed upon his wrists. As the block was being placed over his head he exclaimed "Murder!
Murder! May God judge," and as the noose was placed around his neck he said "don't choke." Sheriff Harris stepped back and an awful stillness prevailed for the space of a second, and at twelve minutes to one o'clock the trap was sprung.
The fall was six feet, his neck was broken, and he struggled and twitched slightly. Doctors Calbreath and Michaux pronounced life extinct in eighteen minutes from the time the trap fell. Thus ended the last scene connected with the murder of a man respected by all, and who had not a known enemy on earth.

A HANDY POCKET ATLAS.

An attempt to put in pocket size the contents of a large reference atlas is usually accompanied by rough, inaccurate, and inelegant engraving and printing, but in the New Pocket Atlas of the World, published by Ivison, Blakeman & Co., 733 and 735 Broadway, New York, this is not the fact. Ninety-one maps containing nearly every geographical point of interest throughout the world, are given, and each is a gem of the engraver's art. Delicately yet distinctly colored, these maps are exquisite illustrations of the best color printing to-day obtainable. While the maps leave nothing to be desired by way of fullness, they are fully up to date, and show every recent discovery, or change of boundary.

One hundred and twelve pages of terse, well-arranged, and accurate information concerning every important country or state on the globe, follow the maps in this compact volume. In fact, the book is not only a comprehensive atlas, but also a condensed gazetteer of the whole world, and all put in an attractive and substantial binding, and sold for fifty cents. If not found at your booksellers, on the receipt of this sum the publishers will mail it to any address.

LIFE IN OUR OWN DAUGHTERS.

Be your own physician! A lady who for years suffered from distressing female complaints, weakness, etc., so common to her sex, and had despaired of a cure, finally found remedies which completely cured her. Any sufferer can use them and thus cure herself, without the aid of a physician. From feeling of gratitude she will send two prescriptions —a rich cured herb—and an illustrated pamphlet entitled "The stepping-stone to health," with full instructions, sealed.
Address (with 2-cent stamp), Mrs. W. C.
HOLMES, 638 Broadway, N. Y. (Name this paper.)

For cash in hand I will make ten per cent discount from Sept. 10th, 1887 to January 1st, 1888 on all dental work.
Respectfully, Dr. E. Davis, Lafayette, Or.
12-17

AMITY.
[Received too late for last week.] More sickness now than there has been for a long time.

One of Mr. John Dancer's boys has typhoid fever.

Major Brown is building more iron harrows.

Will have a wedding to report in a few weeks.

Woodson Maddox and party returned from the mountains a few days ago; they killed a deer.

Judge L. Laughery, Sheriff Harris and A. M. H. were in town last Tuesday.

The Christian church is holding a congress here. There are delegates from all over the state.

Dr. G. W. Gouchee was called to Carton last week to see Mr. Caldwell; he went down again on Tuesday and reports Mr. Caldwell some better.

Mr. J. W. Cary is improving the school hall with a new coat of paint.

Barney says he has the court house on ski's ready to move if required.

A letter from A. G. Smith, who is attending lectures at the Rush medical college, informs us that he is assistant in one of the most important chairs there.
Tally one more for Oregon.

M. B. Hendri is steadily increasing his stock and his trade is better every day.

Geo. E. Gatchell is having new counters put in his store.

J. Mill contemplates a trip to eastern Oregon for his wife's health.

Mrs. Mollie Allen starts next week to visit relatives in eastern Oregon.

Mr. Geo. Gammie, superintendent of Broadmeads, started last week on a business trip to Scotland.

Dr. Gouchee and Smith say they begin to want some money awful bad from those who owe them.

There is some talk of starting two more stores at this place.

I see Judge S. Haw says he is being respected by Camtux in the Dayton Herald.
That is right Brother C., stand in with your man and lead out. —Burus.

CARLTON.
Nov. 8, 1887.

Another immigrant arrived yesterday; the more the better; plentiful room for our sick seem to keep about the same.

Lutichy, come Dutelny; none of them keep the ball rolling.

J. T. Forns, J. J. Hendrix, and G. W. Landis went fishing to Netchuk a few days ago; they had good luck and caught three barrals of the finest kind of fish already salted. This story looks a little fishy, don't it? but then they were salt water fish.

Haven't heard when John is going to open his store at the crossroads.

A late dispatch from Poppleton's mill informs us that Jake Road is the happy dad of a bouncing boy. Jake was bound to have that boy weighed; so he ran to the mill secured the 200-pound stilyards and tried to see how much that boy would weigh; after trying several times he concluded that a common pair of scales would do. Happy Jake.

McCasky & Redd have bought J. R.
Caldwell's grocery business and will stock up in the shape. I am simply giving them a hint to send you an ad.

Alex Westerfield called on us in our den the other day. Come again Alex, string is on the outside.

W. L. Bradshaw was on our streets a few days ago.

Come on some one with a good stove; always welcome—lots of room.

NEWBERG.

Nov. 8, 1887.

The welcome rain is coming.
I see Maggie Blair commenced school yesterday at the Chehalis mountain schoolhouse.

Dr. Elias Jessup, of New Providence, Iowa, formerly of this place, is here on a visit, and is holding a series of meetings at Friends church with good success; the meetings will continue this week, and a quarterly meeting will be established next Saturday and Sunday.

Calsh Ballin, of California, is here on a visit.

Roland Watson is quite feeble.

Benjamin Miles and wife were at Middleton Sunday.

Alva Macy and wife and Alph Moore, of Dayton, were down on a visit Sunday.

Last Friday night Vincent & Spaulding's saw mill caught fire, but as it was soon discovered and put out not very much damage was done.

D. J. Wood and family are visiting at East Portland.

A. J. Winters has rented C. T. Tooz's place.

Sam'l Woodward has rented F. J.
Wood's farming land.

W. R. Everest is hauling lumber to build a new house.

Following are the officers installed last Saturday evening at Newberg lodge I. O.
G. T.: N. L. Wiley, C. T.; Anna Austin, R. H. S.; Ethel Clark, L. H. S.; Lydia Washburn, V. T.; Elmer Washburn, Sec.; Alva Cook, E. S.; Eugenia Samms, Treas.; Eda Wiley, Chap.; Ernest Heater, Marshal; Ethel Rubert, D. M.; Cordis Hackett, Guard; C. A. George, Sentinel; J. A. Cook, P. C. T.

Riley Smith has moved into his new house.

C. W. Tolson has moved into his new house, and gave a dance last Friday evening.

The W. C. T. U. women gave free lunch to the voters to-day, and the voters should thank the ladies for their kindness and hospitalty.

Mr. Christenson, of West Chehalis, met with an accident last Saturday. On his way home from the place his team became frightened and ran away throwing Mr. C. out and bruising him up pretty badly. Dr. Moore dressed the wounds and at last accounts the patient was doing well.

PROHIBITION.
W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

FOR GOD AND HIS KING AND SAVER MEB. F. A. MORRIS, Press Superintendent, Newberg, Oregon.

The new front to the hotel is about completed.

Mr. Benjamin Miles and wife went to Middleton sabbath to hold divins services.

A team of horses belonging to Mr.
Hans Christenson, of West Chehalis valley, became frightened last outside Newberg one day last week and ran away. The driver sustained several injuries in the way of cuts and bruises.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook have returned from their trip to Tacoma. We are always glad to see Mr. Cook at home, and regret that his stay is so short.

Mr. Spencer, of Portland, formerly of Philadelphia, was in town last week.
He is traveling for the firm of Gill & Co., of the former place.

Do not forget that next Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 12th and 13th, will be quarterly meeting of Friends at this place. All are cordially invited to attend.
Dr. Jessup, of Iowa, will be in attendance.

The aged mother of Mrs. Elizabeth Miles arrived Sunday from California.
She was accompanied by her son Mr.
Joe Bean, of the same place.

Mrs. Bell, of Newberg, who went east one year ago, is still working in the interests of the F. P. A. with good success.
She intends returning to New York, before coming home, we understand.
