I. O. O. F. INSTALLATION.

The officers of Lafayette Lodge, No. 29, I. O. O. F. to serve for the ensuing term were installed on Thursday night, January 19th. The ceremony of installation being performed by P. P. Gates, D. D., grand master; assisted by Dr. E. E.
Goucher, grand warden; W. G. Henderson, grand marshal; S. A. Manning, grand secretary of Occidental lodge, No.
30; and Dr. J. W. Haines, grand treasurer of Fraternity lodge, No. 56. There being visiting brothers from the various lodges: Samaritan No. 2, of Portland; Oregon No. 3, of Oregon City; Yamhill No. 20, of Dayton; Fraternity, No. 56, of North Yamhill; Occidental No. 30, of McMinnville; and about twenty members of Rebecca degree lodge of McMinnville.

Following is a list of officers: Dan Frazer, N. G.; C. S. Tustin, V. G.; Joseph Huston, recording secretary; J.
W. Dunn, per. secretary; J. Dixon, treasurer; C. Westerfield, warden; J. M.
Kelty, conductor; G. E. Lewis, I. G.; W. W. Lewis, R. S. to N. G.; R. P. Un-german, L. S. to N. G.; E. A. Hill, R. S. to V. G.; T. J. Harris, L. S. to V. G.
After the installation of officers all part-took of an elegant supper at Olds' hall, prepared especially for the occasion by the ladies of the members of Lafayette lodge. Supper over, upon invitation, the ladies and gentlemen were pleased to Littlefield's hall where a few pleasant hours were past in dancing.

THE ECLIPSE.—On Saturday (to-morrow) a total eclipse of the moon will occur. This phenomenon will be visible in this part of the world. Moon enters shadow, 4 h. 30.2 p. m.; total eclipse begins, 5 h. 30.7 m.; middle of eclipse, 6 h.
16 m.; total eclipse ends, 7 h. 9 m.; moon leaves the shadow, 8 h. 7.3 m. p. m.
It will be seen that the eclipse begins before sunset, the sun setting on that evening at 4.56. It will, however, be dark enough to watch its progress when it gets far enough advanced to be in the most interesting stage. The magnitude of the eclipse is 1-647, the moon's diameter being 1.

A BIG ONE.—W. W. Eretherton, right of way, tax and claim agent of the O. & C. R. R., was in town Thursday. His visit was for the purpose of having recorded with the county clerk a mortgage on the O. & C. R. R. Co's lines in this state, made by the said company to the Union Trust Co., of New York, for the sum of $20,000,000. These mortgage bonds are payable in forty years and bear interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum. This is the largest mortgage ever recorded in Yamhill county.
The mortgage has been recorded in every county through which the O. & C. runs.

TO THE ASYLUM.—G. W. Branson, a resident of Yamhill county, was brought over Friday morning by his sons, and W. H. Wood and John F. Wood, and in the evening was examined before Judge Shaw and by Drs. Byrd and Smith as to his sanity. Mr. Branson about six months since suffered an attack of the typhoid fever, which seriously affected his mind, and his mental malady became so serious that commitment to the asylum became necessary. He is about fifty-five years of age and has been a resident of Yamhill county thirty years.
—Salem Statesman.

ICE-O-LATED.—When a man is broke he is isolated, as it were. When the wires are down, the river froze up, and the mail boat don't arrive or leave, and no mail comes to Astoria, and no papers are received, and the oysters are all gone, and butter has gone up to a big dollar a roll, and under a protective policy wood and coal advances twenty-five per cent., and when we don't know and can't find out what's going on in the world, then the festive Astorian realizes that he is isolated and sighs for a railroad. So mote it be.—Pioneer.

FAVORABLE TO DEFENDANTS.—In the U. S. circuit court last Friday Judge Deady made a ruling favorable to defendants in the case of the United States vs. Ball, Daniel and Powell, of Yamhill county, on trial for violation of timber laws. Judge Deady decided that, whether the timber was wrongfully cut from the land or not, the United States having recorded final proof condoned the action of defendants. The case will be carried into the supreme court.

REAL ESTATE FIRM.—Chas. R. Fenton & Co. have opened a real estate office in this place with an office also at McMinnville. Any business in this line entrusted to these gentlemen will receive prompt attention. They have formed a connection with Portland and California agencies so as to give the widest possible advertisement of their lands and town property. Local office, Grange hall.

McMINNVILLE, Or., Jan. 20, 1888.

EDITOR REGISTER.—On Thursday evening the Odd Fellows of this place concluded to have a sleigh ride and go to Lafayette to the installation of the officers of Lafayette Lodge I. O. O. F., and chartered horses and sleighs from the livery stables and gathered in the passengers for the ride. They numbered thirty-five or more and as jolly a set of folks you not very often see—old and young from over seventy down to ten years of age. They landed safe and sound at Olds' hotel in Lafayette and were received by the host and hostess with pleasure, and their wants attended to with alacrity and delight. The Odd Fellows then left the ladies at the hotel and went to the lodge room to witness the installation of its officers, but P. P.
Gates—they call him D. O. G. M. for short—seemed to be the boss, and he conceived the idea that the brothers of the order should not enjoy all of the pleasure at the installation. The ladies he said should share the pleasure of witnessing the same and declared it should be a public installation, and adjourned to Littlefield's hall where the ceremonies were performed in the presence of a large company of gentlemen and ladies.
After the ceremonies were concluded they visited like the reunion of one family that had not been together for years. The brother and sister Odd Fellows, and those who were not, seemed to enjoy the one as well as the other, and if I should have been lucky enough to have had my wife there I would have left her at home. After the social visit we were invited to step across the street to Olds' hall where some refreshments were prepared by the ladies of Lafayette, as Artemus Ward said, we went but Moses and Aaron and the twelve tribes of Israel, wasn't we surprised though? Three of the McMinnville Fellows had to be fanned for about eleven minutes and one from Dayton concluded he had crossed the river Styx into Elysium. Well I was surprised too, but not so much that it took my appetite away. I am one of those matter-of-fact men and do not get excited much on any occasion, or I should have been married long ago; but will say the supper was a success in every particular. If the same number of ladies in any town in this valley could get up a supper in all particulars and in the same length of time with the variety, quality and quantity I want to be present. It was a grand surprise to us; an old gentleman gave a toast with coffee, in the absence of something stronger, that was very good as far as it went, if it had been me I would have kept on until they cheered me to stop. Supper over, we were invited to go to the hall and have a social dance. An hour or more was spent tripping the light fantastic toe, and the visitors began soon to prepare for home. They parted with the best of feelings for the kind and affable manner they were received and entertained while there, hoping this visit will be the commencement of a friendship that cannot be easily broken. If the visit should be returned, which we hope will be in the near future, we will try to make it pleasant and agreeable for all concerned. The ladies and gentlemen of Lafayette lodge will please accept the best regards of the whole cargo of McMinnvillians. May the Lafayette ladies' shadows never grow less and that they may never have a wrinkle on their brows until after they are seventy is the best wish of your social friend,
XIX.

REAL ESTATE.

The following deeds were recorded during the week ending January 21, 1888:
A. J. Apperson and C. H. Cook as joint executors of the estate of Lydia J.
Cook, deceased, to Eva E. Cook, lots 7 and 8, block 10, Rowland's addition to McMinnville; $1265.
Colby Carter to Susan Jane Myers, 10 acres; $100.
O. W. Richardson and wife to W. R.
Brown, 4 acres in t 5 s, r 4 w; $250.
A. C. Chandler and wife to W. J.
Crawford, 1-20 of an acre in Chandler's first addition to McMinnville; $5.
P. W. Chandler to H. Bogue, lots 5, 6, 7 and 8, block 8, Chandler's second addition to McMinnville; $125.
P. W. Chandler to T. G. Lee, block 7, Chandler's second addition to McMinnville; $275.

There is already an increased movement on the part of California wholesale houses to capture the trade of different parts of Oregon, and especially of this section. They are meeting with considerable success, and Portland merchants will do well to awaken to the importance of the situation. It will be unfortunate indeed if they do not realize their danger and remain inactive. The completion of the overland system has placed San Francisco and Sacramento on an equality with the Oregon metropolis, as far as freight rates are concerned.—Jacksonville Times.

WIVES! MOTHERS! DAUGHTERS!
Be your own physician! A lady who for years suffered from distressing female complaints, weakness, etc., so common to her sex, and had despaired of a cure, finally found remedies which completely cured her. Any sufferer can use them and thus cure herself, without the aid of a physician. From feelings of gratitude she will send two prescriptions —which cured her—and an illustrated pamphlet entitled "The Stepping-Stone to Health," and full instructions, sealed.
Address (with 2-cent stamp), Mrs. W. C.
Holmes, 658 Broadway, N. Y. (Name this paper.) 13-ly

AMITY.
Two new brick buildings going up in the spring.

Two saloons in the near future. Amity will soon boom.

Mr. Parker Allison will open up a first-class grocery store before long, and will sell at bedrock prices.

No, Hawkeye, we will not blow you up, for as yet you have not given us anything worth notice. But we would like to know if Cumtux is still acting as your hitching-post.

O. P. Q. is the most honest man in town. It generally makes a man mad to call him a pig, but when he acknowledges it himself why, then comments are not required.

So Flash is not dead yet. I thought he was burned up in the late fire. But mistakes will sometimes happen.

R. B. Putman, our harness-maker, has purchased a new breech-loading shotgun, No. 16, which though small, Bob says is the best shooter in town for money.

And still they say that our solid man, mentioned in last issue, will wed before long.

Hawkeye send up your man Jake.
There are lots of widows here that are on the marry, and I think Jake could be suited.

Dr. Doty is on the sick list, but is improving; also Mr. Grissney.
Dr. Byrd, of McMinnville, came up one day this week on a professional visit.
The Baptists are holding another protracted meeting.

Miss Etta Galentine returned to Mc-Minnville the 24th.

A stranger while passing through this burg the other day was hailed by us and the following conversation took place:

Rufus—"Hello, Stranger, where are you from?"

Stranger—"Carlton." R—"How is Cumtux, and what is he doing?"

S—"The last heard of that poor benighted native he was down in a well with a crosscut saw."

R—"What in thunder was he there for?"

S—"Hawkeye made him think that if he could saw the well up in post (office) holes that he could sell them and make his fortune."

R—"Hawkeye should be arrested for cruelty to animals." Rufus.

NEWBERG.
Jan. 17, 1888.
[Received too late for last week.]

Barber cold the past week for Webfoot.
Mrs. C. W. Tolson has gone to Dilley, Washington Co., to visit her relatives.

Albert Westfall, of Portland, formerly of this place, is up on a visit.

There is considerable sickness among the horses in this vicinity.

Wm. Davis, who has been quite ill for the past week, is recovering.

Roland Watson's health is quite poor.
Mrs. E. Spaulding health is poor.

The old batchelors ought to rejoice this year, as it is leap year.

J. B. David, of Portland, was up to his farm one day last week.

Miss Violet Holston and Miss Maggie Ingalls have returned from a visit at Lafayette.

The series of meetings at the Evangelical church closed Saturday evening with good success.

Misses Mary and Annie Schneller have gone to Portland to work.

Lots of tramps nowadays.
Miss Joycie Hoskins sprained her ankle about a week ago while at school.

Wm. Hash, who has been away for several years, has returned.

Ed. Round is down with the mumps.
Dr. Moore was called to Middleton today.

Alva Macy and wife, of Dayton, are down on a visit. PROHIBITIONISTS.

CARLTON.
Jan. 22, 1888.

Finest sleighing we have ever seen in Oregon.

Now comes J. E. Swanson, of West Carlton, stepping as high as a blind horse, with a Swedish grin on his face, saying "it is a boy this time sure, for the doctor says so." Mother and child doing well, but Joe's case is doubtful. The Reporter take notice, this is a republican vote.

Oh no, Bro. Rufus, we know your fingers are not dough, but don't let it fly off the handle and hit your head.

Mrs. L. Bodle met with what might have been a serious accident. She slipped and fell, breaking one bone in her arm and hurting one of her legs. Dr. Calbreath was called and reduced the fracture. She is resting as well as could be expected at present.

Mr. Hudson will open his store next week if nothing happens, as some of his goods are here now. Glad of it.

W. A. Howe, of North Yamhill, is remodeling his storehouse and dwelling, and painting and papering it in fine style; then he will put in a stock of goods, and Carlton can trade at home again. So mote it be.

Our old friend Bally, of McMinnville, was on our streets yesterday. Bally says he thinks he will get that city office after all. HAWK-EYE.

DAYTON.
Jan. 25, 1888.

A number of members of the Odd Fellows of this place, went over to the public installation at Lafayette on Thursday evening.

E. E. Snow and wife returned from Portland Thursday, where they have been the past week.

Miss Etta Gillanders, who has been visiting in Portland for the past week, returned home Saturday.

E. E. Crane, formerly of this place, arrived here on the narrow gauge Saturday.

R. L. Harris, one of Dayton's popular druggists, who has been agent for the narrow gauge at West Dayton since the erection of the office at that place in 1886, has resigned his position on account of a rush of business in the drug store.
The office is now closed.

Willie Logan, of McMinnville, was in town Monday.

G. T. Hedrick, sawyer in the Excelsior mills, was on our streets Tuesday.
