A young man escaped from the jail at Dallas Wednesday night. The county court recently ordered the prisoners returned to Dallas from Salem, where they were confined for safe keeping. The sheriff refused to return Landreth, the murderer, therefore he is still safe in the Marion county jail.

At the local option elections in Michigan recently, prohibition was adopted by four counties with the following majorities: Cass, 765; Shiawasse, 1,680; Eaton, 3,700; Allegan, 2,000. Prohibition has been adopted by thirteen counties and thirteen more will vote on the question before March 1st.

At the late special election there were four votes cast in Bellevue precinct for Lafayette, and up to this time there are only nine men who claim to have voted these four tickets. As the taxes increase and it becomes more and more apparent that it was a mistake to move the county seat the men who will claim the honor of voting for Lafayette will increase.

W. M. Ramsey, an attorney of Salem, has located in Pendleton. We are told he will be a candidate for judge of this district. Doubtless he thinks we have no timber here suitable for the purpose, and wishes to obviate the difficulty, which is very kind of him to be sure.
Union Scout.

Judge Ramsey got his start in Yamhill, and if the people of the upper country want a good judge he can satisfy them.

A San Francisco exchange says that the O. & C. will put on a lightning express from San Francisco to Portland as soon as the roads get settled, to make the run in 30 hours instead of 36, the quickest time now made. This train will stop only at the principal towns. As it will leave San Francisco at 7 a. m., it will reach Portland about 12:30 the next day.

The prohibitionists of Marion county announce a banquet to be held at the W.
O. T. U. hall, Salem, February 22d, between the hours of 11:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. The object is to have a social reunion of all the members of the prohibition party, both ladies and gentlemen, who can attend. A conference for maturing plans for the coming campaign will be held the same day.

The Portland Journal of Commerce says: "The steam schooner Rosie Olsen which was built to run between Tillamook and Portland has been obliged to give up the trade she endeavored to establish, and her owner has decided to fit her up and run her in the sealing trade and after that is out of season she will trade in Alaskan waters. Here goes another enterprise off to the north."

INFORMATION WANTED.—Sedgwick Post No. 10, G. A. R., department of Oregon, at a late meeting authorized their commander to make, through the kindness of the press of the state of Oregon and Washington territory, the following inquiry: Any information leading to the knowledge of the whereabouts of Frederick and Alice Morter, children of the late Comrade William Morter, who died at Ogden, Utah, last May, will be gratefully received by this post. Address Z. M.
Parvin, commander Sedgwick Post No.
10, Salem, Oregon. State papers please

WRITING SCHOOL.—The lecture of Prof.
C. A. Bauer, at the schoolhouse Tuesday evening, was largely attended, and proved instructive and entertaining. The school opened on Wednesday evening with about 40 scholars in attendance, and more have signified their attention of attending.
Prof. Bauer is an experienced teacher, and his school here is sure to be a success.

OREGON MEAL.—Sutler & Daniel have several hundred pounds of first-class corn meal, which they are offering, in quantities to suit, at three cents per pound. This meal is made from Oregon corn, and is sieved and first-class in every particular. We have tried it and pronounce it of extra quality, and cheap at the above price.

RETURNED HOME.—E. R. Poppleton, the nurseryman, returned from a two-months trip through California on Friday last. Mr. Poppleton visited California for his health and was benefited considerably. In his journeyings as far south as Los Angeles he says he found no place that suits him as well as Yamhill.

ONCE AGAIN.—We desire to call attention to the fact that all communications, prose or poetry, received without the real name of the writer attached, are consigned to the waste paper basket, (we use a box), there to remain in eternal oblivion.

"OUR DUMB ANIMALS."—This is the title of a monthly paper published in Boston by the Massachusetts society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. It is neatly printed and the engravings are instructive.

MASQUERADE BALL.—On last Friday evening a masquerade ball was given at Littlefield's hall and proved to be the most enjoyable affair of the season. An excellent supper was served at the Essex house, and the dancing was kept up until early morning. Following are the mask-ers: Libby Perkins, Goddess of Liberty; Orice Laughlin, Gipsy; Mrs. D. W.
Laughlin, Sleight Bells; Sarah Nelson, Summer Girl; Doll Johnson, Red Riding Hood; Ellen Steward, Night; M. ud Johnson, Pop Corn; Cora Ball, Morning; Kate Wall, Red, White and Blue; Alice Wall, School Girl; Katie Jonsson, Queen of Hearts; Rose Bryan, Spring Time; Mrs. L. C. Thompson, Fancy Dress; Gussie Jucker, Fancy Dress; Mrs. G. E.
Johnson, Morning; Mrs. A. P. Fletcher, Fairy Queen; Mrs. J. E. Hembree, "All is not gold that glitters;" Della Bryan,

William Grace, Indian Chief; M. A.
Henry, Dude; S. Doney, Plow Boy; T. B.
Nelson, Pleasant Boy; Dr. E. Davis, Pleasant Girl.

THE RIGLER JURY.—There has been much curiosity to ascertain the standing of the jury in the case of Prof. Rigler, inasmuch as one juror has stated that an agreement was made to withhold that information from the public. Another juror said that the first ballot stood nine for acquittal and three for conviction.
The second, taken half an hour later, was ten for acquittal and two for conviction.
Thus matters stood almost until the close. One of the advocates for conviction is the father of a boy who not long since was punished for a misdemeanor in school, and he was in no mood to vote for an acquittal. Finally he gave in, and the other juror followed, making the vote of acquittal unanimous. The jury held that the evidence for the prosecution concerning the punishment of Charles Webber was exaggerated, and in view of this fact and others which were considered, it was decided that Charles Webber received but little, if anything more, than he deserved, and that a verdict of conviction would be adverse to the interests of discipline.—Oregonian.

Peterson's Magazine for March opens with one of the finest steel-engravings it has given in a long time, noted as it is for its excellence in that particular. The full-page wood-cut, "Across My Path," is also an excellent picture, illustrating a very dramatic story. In every way, the number is a complete success, and in some respects superior to its predecessors, admirable as they have been. Terms: Two dollars a year. Address Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa. Send your subscripregret it.

Circuit court convened at Salem on Monday, with Judge Bean of the second district on the bench. Judge Bean will probably hold court in this county next month, as it is not expected Judge Boise will be strong enough at that time, although gaining slowly.

The Chinese murderers, Chee Gong and Fong Long Dick, who were to have been hanged in Portland to-day for the murder of their fellow countryman, Lee Yick, were granted a stay of execution for ten days to admit of an appeal to the supreme court.

AMITY.

Geo. E. Getchell has most of his stock moved and his new store presents a very fine appearance.

One Jake, a poet of Amity, whose effort appeared in the Herald a short time ago, should, judging from the length of his ears, sign his name Jack.

Very healthy times now and the doctors look down their noses.

I see that Cumtux, that celebrated native, has got out of the well. I am glad you have Bro., but I see you are fatigued (judging from your last), and would advise that you go to your father's wigwam for rest; would also suggest that you need not wear that ku-klux shoe of Jake's if it does not fit.

Bro. Hawkeye I second the motion in regard to Friend Fryer for assessor. He can expect to hear from Amity. Shake, Tommy.

Mr. C. Allison will open out with a new stock of groceries and hardware soon, in the building formerly occupied by J. C. Mills.

O. P. Q. seems to be down on Jake, that he would be ashamed to shake him by the hand. While I do not like the way Jake does, nor his style or poetry, I had rather take him by the hand than take the Carlton "siwash."

Mr. Dennis O. Thurber will have his saloon in running order this week.

Barney Springer has sold his store building on Trade street to Hulery, of McMinnville, and the same will be moved to a lot near the depot, purchased for that purpose, and used as a saloon.
The lot was secured from Joe Watt, and the price paid was $150.

The youngest child of Jno. Dollarhide has been quite sick, but is now improving.

Dr. Smith went to Derry on business last week.

Henry B. Newby has purchased the property of Rev. Doty on Trade street.

extends his congratulations. shake

The Polk county Itemizer must be a prophet or a son of one to get this news item one week in advance. Rufus.

FOR YOUNG MEN.

This, from the Philadelphia Press, is heartily endorsed:

It is about time that this nonsense, which has grown into a cant, that American girls are so extravagant that young men cannot afford to marry them, should be exposed with something of the severity it deserves. The young men do not marry either because they do not want to, or because they are so little worth it that the girls will not have them.

If the average young man of the period would reckon his weekly earnings and proper expenses, then reckon the weekly sum of his squanderings, and then compute the cost of housekeeping, with a snug home and a life mate to cheer and bless it, he would find his better account in the home—as as a mere matter of expenses. The joys and comforts and blissfulness of the married state cannot be computed. Eloquent as human tongue or pen has ever been, neither has yet, in all the ages of the world, been competent to the subject. The "Go west, young man" of Horace Greeley, is bettered by the admonition, "Young man, marry!" It is the best thing a young man can do.
Too many men who are not young eagerly learn the lesson later in life. But the question with many of the young men of this age is, not the fear that they cannot support the girl they would like for a wife; but, could she support him? Our girls are excelling our boys in the better ways of life.—News.

Corvallis is to have a new paper. Two ambitious young journalists have bought the material of the late Chronicle of that town. It will probably have a new name.

DAYTON.

Feb. 15, 1888,
C. W. Powell was in Portland last week on business.

J. T. Watson, school clerk for district No. 28, took a census of Dayton on Thursday.

The meetings which have been held in Hollness chapel during the past week closed on Thursday evening.

Thomas Charlton, who formerly worked in the sawmill at this place, for W. S.
Powell, was in town Friday.

Dr. V. A. Humphrey and wife returned from Sellwood Friday, where they have been visiting friends and relatives during the past week.

Arley Armstrong has been quite sick during the past two weeks.

Born.—On February 10, 1888, to the wife of Prof. D. H. Hartson, a son.

J. C. Nichols and F. J. Fletcher made a flying trip to the metropolis of Yamhill county on Saturday.

Miss Lucinda DeForde, a student of the Dayton academy, will teach a school in Happy valley this summer.

There was an ordinance passed at the last meeting of the council for the benefit of the children; that is all boys under 20 years of age and all girls under 18 are requested to remain at their homes after the hour of 6 o'clock during the winter months, and the hour of 8 o'clock during the summer months. This is a good ordinance and it should be strictly enforced.

From the appearance of the windows in the millinery store it looks as if they were selling valentines at wholesale.

The question chosen by the debating society for next Tuesday evening is, "Resolved, that fire is more destructive than water."

Dayton wants a shoemaker, harness-maker and hardware store. Where is the enterprising man who is going to build his new hardware store where the old Fisher house used to stand?

BLACK HAWK.

NEWBERG.

Feb. 14, 1888.

We are having spring wear now.

Miss Maggie Inglis is visiting at New-berg.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Maris are rejoicing over the arrival of a little son.

The Chautauqua literary and scientific circle of this place, will give an entertainment Wednesday evening, February 22d, in honor of Washington's birthday.
The members of the circle will appear in costume, personating the old-time characters. Come and see them.

Mrs. Round, of Albany, was in attendance at Friends' quarterly meeting held last Saturday and Sunday, and delivered excellent sermons at both sessions. Mrs.
Round admonished the people to give freely of their means for the spread of the gospel, and suggested the plan of giving one-tenth of our substance as under the old dispensation.

The closing entertainment of the F. P.
A. will consist of recitations, etc., from the three popular poets, Longfellow, Whittier and Scott. w. c. r. u.

WIVES! MOTHERS! DAUGHTERS!

Be your own physician! A lady who for years suffered from distressing female complaints, weaknesses, etc., so common to her sex, and had despaired of a cure, finally found remedies which completely cured her. Any sufferer can use them and thus cure herself, without the aid of a physician. From feelings of gratitude she will send two prescriptions —which cured her—and an illustrated

Health," and full instructions, sealed.
