For fresh candies and nuts, go to J. L. Vickrey's.
Judge Ramsey, of Salem, was in town during the week.
Clark Braly, of McMinnville, was in town on Tuesday.
Remember that fine glassware that Vickrey is giving away.
Mr. Starr, an attorney of Portland, was in town on Wednesday.
Dr. Moore and N. C. Maris, of Newberg, were in town Tuesday afternoon.
R. B. Hinton, a pioneer of '46, in Benton county, died last Monday, aged 75 years.
Surveyor Cooper passed through town on Tuesday to West Chehalem to do surveying.
D. C. Doughty has been appointed postmaster at Willamina, in place of R. L. Churchman, resigned.
John Epnery, of Portland, formerly of this place, was in town Wednesday and paid this office a pleasant call.
Prof. Carl LaDee will give one of his fine entertainments at Littlefield's hall Saturday evening, March 3d. See ad in another column.
Mr. M. G. Rudder returned the first of the week from an extended trip to the sound country. He expects to make that his future home.
Milton Redding took his departure last Saturday for Chicago, where he will assist W. A. Howe to select a stock of goods for his Carlton store.
Rev. J. W. Webb has resigned the pastorate of the Christian church in Salem, and accepted the position of state organizer of the prohibition party.
NEWBERG.—Last Friday we visited the thriving town of Newberg. The prospects of a steady and permanent growth of the town and surrounding country are very flattering. Already this spring there has been a large acreage of fruit trees planted, and the people are looking after other enterprises that will bring people to their town. The Friend's Pacific academy is the central figure in the community, and during its existence of only three years has been well patronized. A large immigration is expected to arrive this year, and the work of building and improvement will go steadily on.
MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.—Last Thursday morning Frank Woods, accompanied by his wife, drove into the river, just east of the bridge leading to this city, and almost instantly the horses had to swim and the buggy sank to the bottom. In some inexplicable manner the horses got loose from the buggy, and came rushing up to Burn's stable. How Mr. and Mrs. Woods got to shore is a mystery, as the water is very deep and the current swift. Neighbors took care of Mrs. Woods, who was lying in a dead faint on the bank when discovered. It was a close call for both of them.—Itemizer.
CHINESE WHO MUST GO.—Probably some action will be taken within a short time to rid the county of the sixteen lepers who occupy an inclosure on the poor farm and who periodically visit the city during festivals and levy tributes on their countrymen. Judge Catlin has consulted with Receiver Koehler of the Oregon & California railroad for the purpose of deciding on some means for the transportation of the lepers to San Francisco where they will be put aboard a vessel bound for China. No decision was reached in the matter.—Oregonian.
THE WRECKERS AT WORK.—Mr. Caldwell, the gentleman who bought the wrecked Yaquina City, is now engaged in taking her to pieces. He has a crew of four experienced wreckers at work. It is up-hill work on account of water some ten or twelve feet in depth immediately surrounding and extending about forty feet from the vessel. Mr. Robert Campbell, we are informed, has taken the contract to take out the engine and boilers and place them in a position to be put aboard a boat for the agreed sum of $6,000.—Corvallis Times.
CYCLOPAMA EXCURSION.—On Monday next an excursion will leave this place to visit the cyclorama of Gettysburg at Portland. Train will leave at 9 a. m., and excursionists can return on any regular train within ten days. The fare for the round trip is only $1.20. Admission to the cyclorama, 50 cents; children under fourteen, 25 cents. We are assured by Mr. Rockefeller, manager of the excursion, that there will be no crowding, everyone shall have a seat and a comfortable ride. Don't miss this opportunity.
DALLAS HOTEL.—The contract for erecting the new hotel at Dallas has been let to Messrs. Riely & Coad for the sum of $4,300, this being the lowest bid. The structure is to be completed on or before August 1st. The total cost of the property will be $4,900, and as it will take $2,000 more to furnish it, the whole sum in the hotel enterprise will be in the neighborhood of $6,900.

RAPID WRITING.
Prof. C. A. Bauer, from Pennsylvania, is the finest and most business-like penman that has ever been in our city. His pupils say he is so efficient, and his methods are so satisfactory that they are reluctant to have him leave, and efforts have been made to retain him; but engagements made at Dayton make it impossible for him to stay longer than this one term. Prof. Bauer graduated in the Business university in Rochester, New York, and also from the Pen Art hall and Business college in Oberlin, Ohio. We most heartily commend to all Prof. Bauer as the most efficient instructor of penmanship and fine drawing we have ever met. He will give you entire satisfaction. We are free to confess that for gentlemanly conduct and earnestness in his efforts to instruct he is all that can be desired. Not only is he an expert penman but also a fine crayon artist. We have had the pleasure of seeing a crayon portrait of Mr. E. Carpenter, of this place, by Prof. Bauer, which is pronounced by competent judges to be a fine specimen of the art.
FINE.—The current number of the West Shore is accompanied by a large, tinted supplement, showing the famous Shoshone falls, of Snake river, a cataract superior to Niagara in many respects, though carrying a smaller volume of water. These monthly supplements will continue a feature of the magazine for 1888. The illustrations of the number are devoted to the cities of East Portland and Albina, and the Quaker settlement of Newberg, this county. In the March number will appear the opening chapters of a highly interesting story of the great civil war, written by James P. Shaw, whose service in the army during the entire period of the rebellion qualifies him to write enterprisingly of the scenes he witnessed. Another feature of the March number will be illustrations of Tacoma, the city of phenomenal growth. A large supplement of Mt. Tacoma, the most magnificent snow peak in the world, will be furnished with the March issue. The West Shore is published at Portland, Oregon, by L. Samuel, at $2.50 per year. Sample copy, 25 cents.
GRANT SUED.—A few weeks ago an attorney was searching the records of Washington county, this state, and came across the original papers in a civil action, wherein the late U. S. Grant was defendant. At the time of this suit Washington county extended to the Columbia river and we are not sure but that Vancouver barracks was included in that county at that time. U. S. Grant was chief of the commissary department at Vancouver barracks and had purchased a bill of goods for the barracks, and the United States not liquidating as soon as the creditor desired, said creditor commenced suit against Grant personally to recover the amount of the bill.
CHANGE OF TIME.—A new time schedule went into effect on the narrow gauge yesterday. There are now two trains each way daily. The mail train leaves Portland at 7:30 a. m. and arrives here at 10:08 a. m.; returning the mail leaves here at 3:25 p. m. and arrives in Portland at 6 p. m. The Sheridan mixed passes Lafayette at 8:47 a. m. for Portland, arriving at 12:30 p. m.; returning leaves Portland at 1:30 p. m. and Lafayette at 4:40 p. m. This arrangement will be found more convenient for the traveling public than any which has been in force for some time.
DIED.—In Lafayette, Or., February 28, 1888, Mary, wife of G. W. Morris. She leaves a husband and eight children to mourn her loss. Deceased was born in Steuben county, Indiana, March 6, 1842; crossed the plains in 1853; was married to G. W. Morris in February 1858.

WIVES! MOTHERS! DAUGHTERS!
Be your own physician! A lady who for years suffered from distressing female complaints, weaknesses, etc., so common to her sex, and had despaired of a cure, finally found remedies which completely cured her. Any sufferer can use them and thus cure herself, without the aid of a physician. From feelings of gratitude she will send two prescriptions—which cured her—and an illustrated pamphlet entitled "The Stepping-Stone to Health," and full instructions, sealed. Address (with 2-cent stamp), Mrs. W. C. HOLMES, 658 Broadway, N. Y. (Name his paper.) 13-1y

DAYTON.
Feb. 29, 1888.
Robert Alexander and wife went to Portland Tuesday.
Mr. Busbee and wife, of North Yamhill, were in town Sunday.
Charles and Fred Robinson will depart for the logging camps on the Columbia on Thursday.
Austin and Joseph Bowman, formerly of this place, now of Newberg, were in town Saturday.
C. C. Call left Dayton on Tuesday for the Cour d'Alene mines. He has been at home for the past two months.
Miss Ella Jones, Minnie Switzer, Emma Bertram and Prof. D. H. Hartson went to Portland Monday on the narrow gauge.
The scales which stood in front of Peery & Harris's drug store were removed by Dom Barnholter on Wednesday. They were the property of W. S. Powell, of Portland.
The ladies of the M. E. church gave a necktie party at the Dayton hall on Saturday evening. A large number of people were in attendance and a good time enjoyed. Refreshments were served for the small sum of forty cents a couple.
Say, don't tell anybody that I told you that the drygoods clerk on the corner of Third and Ferry streets would like to "ketch on" to the correspondent. He says that it is some man who stays around town and has not got anything else to do. Mine friend you vhas not quite smart enough to "ketch on."
The only good school that has been in Dayton since its commencement as a town has been during the past nine months. Prof. Hartson and Miss Ella Jones taught the first three months term, and during this term, under the experienced eye of the professor, it was noticed that two teachers could not do justice to 120 scholars, and during vacation through his influence school 1-w8 were printed, a partition was placed in the lower room and a third teacher hired. The school is now divided into three grades—grammar, intermediate and primary, with Prof. Hartson, Miss Minnie Call and Miss Ella Jones as teachers for the six month's term. During this term there will be many new branches of study introduced. Dayton can now boast of having the best school in Yamhill county. BLACK HAWK.
OBITUARY.
We clip the following particulars of the death of Mrs. Peckham, formerly of Carlton, from the Winfield, Kansas, Telegram: The home of Edward L. Peckham is sad and silent. All the light and gladness went out Sunday, February 19th, with the life of Mrs. Lelia R., wife of Edward L. Peckham. Mrs. Peckham, a few days ago was the picture of health. She was a handsome woman, idolized by her husband and loved by all who knew her. Mr. and Mrs. Peckham were married seven years ago and have been residents of this city for about seven months, Mr. Peckham being of the firm of Peckham & Henderson. He has the sympathy of a large number of friends who but recently mourned with them over the loss of their little child who was scalded to death. How sad and inexplicable are some of the ways of Providence. The husband sits in weeful sadness—unable to see light through the dark pall of grief that has settled upon and around him, while a little helpless infant is left to go through life without knowing the heavenly effect of a loving mother's kiss and the soothing quality of a mother's advice and counsel. But that mother,
Out of the night and dark,
Out of the storm,
Where no quick, frightened "Hark!"
Calls an alarm,
is no doubt safe beyond the clouds, whose shadows hover so darkly over her dear ones, over that home where her presence has been its light, its everything.
DEATH OF REV. SAILS.
Rev. T. L. Sails, pastor of the M. E. church of this city, who has been ill since January, who, by the way, is well and favorably known all over the state of Oregon as an earnest Christian worker, and who it may be truthfully said, has given his life to the cause he so dearly loved, died at the Methodist parsonage on Sunday, February 28th, at 8:30 a. m., in the 47th year of his age, surrounded by kind and loving friends and his immediate relatives. He leaves a devoted wife and three children to mourn his untimely death. Memorial services were held at the church on Monday at 2 p. m., presided over by Rev. Wm. Roberts, of Dayton. The body was taken to East Portland where funeral services were held, and interred at Lone Fir cemetery.—Reporter.
SLIGHT SCARE.—About 11 o'clock Tuesday morning the cry of fire was heard in the vicinity of the Essex hotel. The Hook and Ladder company and citizens turned out in double quick time and were directed to the residence of Mr. Ike Sampson, where the roof had caught fire from a stovepipe which passes through it. A few buckets of water were sufficient to put out the fire, and what might have been a large and disastrous conflagration was prevented. Damage, slight.

CARLTON.
Feb. 26, 1888.
Ace Kelsey went to McMinnville on Thursday.
J. B. Smith has returned from the mountains.
Grandpa Kelsey is on the mend, so we are informed.
Dr. Sellers is quite sick, and not able to set up much.
Our town is rather dull these days. Farmers all very busy.
Mrs. Connor and Miss Caldwell, of Ballston, are visiting with Mrs. Caldwell.
Some fellows are getting very friendly of late—guess it must be near election time.
Somebody will get gloriously left on the next political contest in old Yamhill, and don't you forget it.
Our fall sown grain is looking very fine considering the late freeze. Farmers need to feel alright, so far.
Eldridge Sitton will start in a few days for bunchgrass with a lot of cattle. Eb says he never was any good for a granger.
Married.—At the residence of W. T. Kutch, by Elder McCutcheon, Miss Bell Kutch to W. E. Bodle, all of Carlton. May they live long to enjoy the union thus consummated is my wish. They received a fine set of decorated chinaware as a wedding present.
Our militia was out drilling the other night, Col. Ace in command, with Major George, Capt. Hudson and Lieut. John as officers. They first marched to the residence of W. E. Bodle armed with tin cans, shotguns, bells, horse-fiddles, etc., and after serenading them they were called in and right royally treated. From thence they went and serenaded Chief William where they received a hearty welcome. Chief says it was funny to see Major George trying to hit his tin can. You see the Major is rather copulent, he couldn't hold the can in front of him, so he had to carry it on his shoulder and get a cheap boy to hit the can for him. They left Chief William and serenaded others and were treated again, after which they adjourned to their barracks wishing the newly married couple many years of wedded bliss.
