

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

County court is still in session. Judge Hurley was in Portland this week. C. G. Scott was among the callers on Wednesday. Sheriff Harris made a trip to Portland on Tuesday. Our Dayton letter reached us too late for this issue. Thos. Huston is in Portland. He is a U. S. jurymen. James McCain visited Salem on business this week. C. W. Powell, of Dayton, called at this office on Wednesday. Mrs. Chubine, of Chehalis, W. T., is visiting relatives in town. F. J. Martin, the machinery man, of McMinnville, called Wednesday morning. W. Jamieson, of Lafayette, was registered at the St. Charles, Portland, Tuesday. Capt. Kellog, the well-known steamboat man of Portland, was in town this week. In looking for a county paper to send to friends in the east, give the REGISTER a call. Rev. Burlingame will preach at the M. E. church next Sunday, morning and evening. When you want a spade, rake, hoe, shovel, or any kind of hardware, give A. B. Westerfield a call. A large number of farmers were in attendance at the county court Wednesday looking up road matters. Wisdom's Robertine wagon was in town yesterday, advertising Robertine and the enterprising Oregonian. Wm. Grace had the misfortune to fall and break one bone of his right arm, while skating on rollers last week. C. H. Cook and H. F. Turner, of McMinnville, called on Tuesday. Mr. Turner is now engaged on the Reporter. DIED.—At the residence of his son, near St. Joe, March 2, 1888, Mr. W. S. Newton, aged 83 years, 2 months and 2 days. The steamer N. S. Bentley ran on to a snag between Lincoln and Salem and sank in four feet of water. Damage, slight. The prohibition party met at the court house last Saturday. The proceedings of the meeting will be found in another column. The Salena Vidette is saying some kind words about the Salvation Army. It believes the army should be allowed to do all the good it can. Chas. Nickell, of the Jacksonville Democratic Times, has purchased the Sentinel of the same town. The Sentinel was an old paper, and republican in politics. Ney Simmons committed suicide on Howell prairie, Marion county, by hitching a span of horses to his neck with a strap and allowing them to drag him to death. Rev. Clyde held divine services at the Presbyterian church last Sunday, morning and evening. At the morning service five members were added to the church. Parties desiring to visit Portland and the cyclorama can do so on Monday at excursion rates. Train leaves Lafayette at 8:45 a. m., and the fare is $1.20 to Portland and return. There were twenty-three excursionists to Portland last Monday. So far as we know all pronounce the cyclorama simply immense. No one should visit Portland without seeing the battle of Gettysburg. A young man who accompanied the excursion to Portland last Monday, visited a barber shop and wanted his mustache blackened, and the barber asked said young man if he had it with him. There were thirty-one applicants for teachers' certificates at the public examination at the court house last week. Only twelve of this number succeeded in passing the examination—ten second grade and two third grade. There was consequently some disappointment manifested by those who failed. SCHOOL MEETING.—At the annual school meeting last Monday there was a large attendance, and everything passed off quietly. W. B. Cary was elected director for three years, the term of R. P. Bird having expired. D. V. Olds was reelected clerk. A tax of $400 was voted, which will insure a nine-month's school next year. The directors were instructed to consider the propriety of securing another room for the primary department of the school.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

LAFAYETTE, Or., March 3, 1888. Pursuant to call a number of the prohibitionists of Yamhill county met at the court house and were called to order by C. E. Hoskins, chairman of county central committee. C. E. Hoskins was elected chairman and J. T. Watson secretary. The convention expressed itself in favor of placing a county prohibition ticket in the field the coming campaign. A. J. Nelson, C. E. Hoskins, J. E. Brooks, E. S. Craven and J. T. Watson were elected as delegates to the state convention at Portland, March 28th. The chairman was authorized to complete the central committee. On motion the place of J. A. Peckham, of North McMinnville, on said committee, was declared vacant, and A. J. Nelson was appointed. J. T. Watson, C. C. Poling, E. S. Craven, C. E. Hoskins and J. E. Brooks were appointed to prepare a party platform and present to the next county convention for approval. Securing public speakers was left to central committee. D. A. Snyder, Jas. Parrish, D. C. Collier, C. C. Poling, and Elder Russ appointed to secure a campaign paper. Ordered that a copy of the minutes be offered each newspaper in the county for publication. Minutes read, approved, and on motion adjourned. J. T. WATSON, Secretary.

CARLTON.

March 5, 1888. Our business men report a good trade. We want a shoemaker; come along somebody. Grandpa Kelsey is getting better; glad to record the fact. Our postmaster had quit; a tussle with the neuralgia last week. A dance in the Howe hall last Saturday night. All report a good time. Mr. and Mrs. Collins visited with Mr. and Mrs. Newman, of Lafayette, over Sunday. Our doctor has been sick for two weeks, but is better now; hardly fair for an M. D. to get sick. Kelsey & Bodle have the contract to build a fine cottage for James Edson, on the farm just south of town. There will be a lecture delivered next Saturday night and Sunday at 11 o'clock, in the schoolhouse, on a scientific subject. Come one, come all. At our school meeting to-day J. T. Fryer was elected school director for three years and J. E. Young for clerk. Everything passed off pleasantly. Our town needs about four small houses to rent. There is now seven families in four houses. Some of our men that can ought to supply this need. Wonder what office Newman is seeking. He has been out here twice lately and just as smiling as an old shoe. Alright, Alex, we will vote for you. Who next? HAWK-EYE.

SHERIDAN.

Weather showery. Capt. Lafollette is pruning his orchard. Miss Casey is going to have an exhibition soon. Mrs. Brown is very ill. Dr. Fields is attending her. R. L. Booth has thirty head of stall fed beeves for sale. H. S. Maloney, C. E., has just finished platting the city. Mr. Breeding, a first-class mechanic, has located here. The school building is to be much improved this summer. Some more immigrants in town. Real estate men on the move. Mr. R. Jones has been cavassing this community for the "Royal Path of Life." A drove of cattle were taken from this vicinity to east of the mountains last week. Say, Mr. Sheridan correspondent in the Telephone, you are a little off on some things. Several schools here are vacant, will the superintendent please send us some teachers? The high schools of the county should furnish enough teachers. CORRESPONDENT.

AMITY.

[Received too late for last week.] Dr. Taylor has returned home from the east. The Masonic lodge will build a two-story brick in the spring. Mr. M. Mulkey wishes to hire a good girl, one that suits can get steady employment. Mr. J. Mills, a retired merchant of this place, wants a wife, and takes this means of letting his wants be known. Our shoemaker is hard at work and still he wants more. All who have wet feet and corns, call and he will make you happy. David Altizer, an indigent man, is lying very sick near th's place, of dropsy, and as yet the county court has taken no steps for his relief. Hawkeye was mistaken, it was Jake and O. P. Q. that sent him the photo, as they look so much alike they thought one would do for both. We want a man to come here and start a furniture store. He can secure a good store building at very low rates and would be well patronized. Mr. C. Allison has one of the finest stocks of groceries and hardware to be found in this country. Mr. Allison is a young man well versed in his business, and we bespeak for him success in his undertaking. R. L. Simpson has got his jars of beans ready and every one that buys one dollar's worth in his store up to the fourth of July, gets a guess at the number, and the one who comes nearest the number gets a fine set of jewelry. Mr. V. Nave lost a valuable cow this week. Moral: Do not throw out brine where a cow can get it. RUVUS.

The revival services, which have been held at the M. E. church by Rev. Poling for the past two weeks, closed last Saturday night. Several professed conversion, and at the last meeting five persons united with the Evangelical church.

NEWBERG.

March 6, 1888. H. J. Minthorn has gone to Salem. Mrs. Mary Hobson is having an attack of mumps. Benjamin Miles is putting out about 2,000 fruit trees. J. B. David and family, of Portland, have moved out on their farm. A. T. Haworth has sold his property to Mr. Churchman, of Willamina. Alva Macy and wife, of Dayton, were down on a visit Saturday and Sunday. Daniel Gubser was elected school director and N. L. Wiley clerk in district No. 35. B. S. Cook has sold his place to Wallace Graham, of Butteville, and moved to Salem. The school at the academy is doing finely under the management of Mrs. Laura Minthorn. Mrs. Swetman, of Dundee, died on the 28th of February and was buried on the 29th at this place. Pete Christenson has bought Fred Blair's place, and Fred and family have moved to the saw mill. Miss Maggie Blair closed her school at Chehalem mountain, and gave a good entertainment in the afternoon. J. T. Smith was elected school director and Andrew Pickett clerk in district No. 29. PROHIBITIONIST. Miss Maggie Blair's school closed last Friday. Miss Maggie Inglis visited in town Saturday. Mr. Greene, late from Michigan, bought James Bryan's farm last week. School opened at the academy last week with an enrollment of forty pupils. It becomes necessary to divide the public school in this district owing to the increase in the number of pupils. What is the matter with the Yamhill county teachers? It looks very strange to us that teachers of six years experience should fail to receive certificates. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cook have removed to Salem. We think we but voice the sentiments of the entire community when we say that we sincerely regret to lose them from our midst. Several parties are here from Ohio with a view to locating in our midst, and a number of families just waiting their decision. Thus our place is fast filling up. Our real estate agents are kept busy showing immigrants around. Alva Macy is blasting out the big stumps on the Newberg fruit syndicate's ranch. The grubbing is making good headway under the supervision of John Brown. The ground will all be summer fallowed preparatory to setting to fruit next fall. We venture the assertion that there will not be a better orchard in our state than this. Newberg can furnish political timber for any or all of the county offices, but as we are very modest down here we shall not ask the convention for more than three-fourths of them. W. C. T. U.

WIVES! MOTHERS! DAUGHTERS!

Be your own physician! A lady who for years suffered from distressing female complaints, weaknesses, etc., so common to her sex, and had despaired of a cure, finally found remedies which completely cured her. Any sufferer can use them and thus cure herself, without the aid of a physician. From feelings of gratitude she will send two prescriptions—which cured her—and an illustrated pamphlet entitled "The Stepping-Stone to Health," and full instructions, sealed. Address (with 2-cent stamp), Mrs. W. C. HOLMES, 658 Broadway, N. Y. (Name his paper.) 13 1y

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weights, alone, or phosphate powders sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N. Y.
