

CAL AND GENERAL.

Board of trustees met Monday... Mitchell wagons for $75 at Sander's, McMinnville.

First-class all hand-sewed hardware of the best material, go to H. Lafayette.

Scott, of Carlton precinct, took parture last Monday for an extended east. He will probably visit St. and the national democratic convention before he returns.

Saturday Jas. McCain, W. B. and C. E. Nelson started for Arlington court, where the latter has damages. The case was concluded and they returned on Wednesday.

OPERATING.—On Tuesday Frank W. and family took their departure for York county to visit relatives and friends. They will be absent till Monday, and during their absence Mr. W. W. will be in charge of Chas. W. W.

CONCERT.—Given by Prof. George W. on Wednesday evening was enjoyed by the large audience in attendance. The class which has been under the direction of Prof. George for the past several weeks indeed. The doll brigade of the novelty of the evening. Should Prof. George and company visit our town on their return from Europe, we bespeak them a hearty welcome.

GOING TO OAKLAND.—W. F. Lemon, well-known harness maker of this city, accompanied by his wife and two daughters, left recently for Oakland, Cal., where they will be their future residence. During several years residence in Salem both Mr. and Mrs. Lemon have had a large number of friends who will miss their departure with regret. Mr. Lemon goes into business there.—Salem Register. Mr. and Mrs. Lemon were formerly residents of Sheridan.

James Andrews was born in Madison county, Missouri, December 23, 1850, emigrated to Oregon in 1850, was married to Sarah Kibbey March 8, 1853, died April 2, 1888, aged 37 years, 3 months and 4 days. He has been a constant member of the M. E. Church for about 30 years, and died in the triumph of a living faith. He left a wife and nine children to mourn his loss. He will be remembered kindly by his neighbors and friends in Moore's city.

CARLTON.

April 1, 1888.

D. L. Hudson is complaining with sore throat. Say boys, be good and your name won't appear in public print. Mr. George Hanson's health is quite poor. Dr. Sellers is attending him. Never mind Bro. Rufus, Big Jake will come to the front one of these days with another cat story.

Our school commences one week from to-morrow, on April 9th, with Miss Agnes Sweet as teacher. Mr. W. A. Howe's goods are now arriving from Chicago, and ere long Carlton will have another store.

Mr. John Walker has gone to California after his son Jimmy, who went there for his health some time ago. A brother of Frank Matthews, of Portland, has been visiting his friends in Carlton, but has now returned to the metropolis.

Our blacksmith is still under the weather. Some good smith will do well to come and rent the shop and tools and buy stock on hand.

The republican primary passed off yesterday without any jar or discord, sending as delegates, W. Carl, W. D. Laughlin, D. J. Olds, J. H. Fairchilds, W. M. Merchant and John Wineburg, to represent them in the county convention.

Died—March 30, 1888, Grandpa Kelsey, aged 71 years. Mr. Kelsey was an old pioneer, coming to Oregon in the forties. He leaves a large family and an aged wife to mourn his loss. He was loved and respected by all of his neighbors, not supposed to have an enemy in the world. He now rests in peace.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ELECTION.

The Lafayette Sunday school on last Sunday elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Superintendent, Dr. J. W. Watts; assistant superintendent, Mrs. N. Ungerman; secretary, Miss Ettie Carey; treasurer, Mrs. Jamieson; librarian, Mrs. M. Bird; assistant librarian, Mrs. V. Nelson; chorister, Mr. T. C. Stephens; organist, Miss G. Hoberg, assistant organist, Miss N. Henderson. We have collected during the past year $36.26 and paid out $31.51; balance on hand $4.75. We have fourteen full classes with good teachers. The attendance now is about eighty, and room for more. Parents are earnestly invited to come—bring the children. We have a wide-awake Sunday school; come and see.

ETTIE CAREY, Secretary.

THE CLOTHING HOUSE

Of Bishop & Kay, of McMinnville, have opened a merchant tailoring department in connection with their ready made business. Having secured the services of an experienced cutter and arranged for skillful workmen, they are now prepared to cater to the trade of Yamhill county for any kind of business in their line. Their spring stock of ready made clothing, hats, neckwear and furnishing goods of all styles is now complete. They will in the future, as they have in the past, pursue a live and let live policy. Everybody should examine their goods and prices.

TO HORSEMEN.—Mr. G. H. Westerfield is now prepared to do any kind of work in the shoeing line. He has many years of experience in shoeing horses, especially race horses, and has traveled a great deal with horses, having been all through Oregon, and making a trip to Chicago and Denver and doing the shoeing for four celebrated Oregon horses, Lady Duffy, Repetta, Albert and Alta; the former two winning races at Chicago over many crack eastern flyers. Mr. Westerfield has the reputation of being one of the best shoers in the state and made the plates with which many Oregon horses have won noted races. He has done work for all the prominent turf men of the state, and won first prize at the state fairs of Oregon, California and Colorado. Any one wishing work done in the above line will do well to give him a call.

Exercise for rapid pronunciation: Two little bootblacks, one white and the other black, were standing at the corner doing nothing, when the white bootblack agreed to black the black bootblack's boots. The black bootblack was, of course, willing to have his boots blacked by his fellow bootblack, and the bootblack who had agreed to black the black bootblack's boots went to work.

Personal.

Mr. N. H. Frohlichstein, of Mobile, Ala., writes: "I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, having used it for a severe attack of bronchitis and catarrh. It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me and I have not been afflicted since. I also beg to state that I had tried other remedies with no good result. Have also used Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, is sold on a positive guarantee. Trial bottles free at J. M. Kelly's drug store."

THE REPUBLICANS.

A convention met at the court house on Wednesday to elect nine delegates to the republican state convention, which is to meet in Portland next Wednesday. P. P. Gates was chosen chairman and John Wortman secretary. Committee on credentials was appointed, which reported as soon as possible. A motion to appoint a committee on resolutions was lost, after considerable discussion. Adjourned till 1 o'clock.

Upon reassembling the convention took a vote on choice of presidential candidates, and out of about one hundred votes cast, Blaine received forty-nine; Gresham, sixteen; Sherman, fifteen; Lincoln, twelve; Cleveland, ONE; balance scattering. The convention then proceeded to ballot for delegates, which occupied about three hours, with the following result: S. R. Baxter, J. J. Spencer, W. A. Graves, R. R. Laughlin, E. H. Woodward, D. B. Kingery, W. H. Harrison, A. R. Burbank and Wilson Carl. Resolutions were passed favoring Binger Hermann for congress, Lee Laughlin for delegate to the national republican convention; and urging the republicans to stand by and support the Reporter. This last resolution caused an audible smile to pervade the whole convention. Speeches were made for the good of the cause and the convention adjourned.

INDEPENDENT TICKET.

I wish to say to the voters of Yamhill county that I am an independent candidate for the office of recorder. As I am not an able-bodied man, I trust you will see the justice in giving me your votes at the coming June election. Yours respectfully, JACOB E. SMITH, Carlton, Or.

TWO DOLLARS FOR FIFTY CENTS.—The Farmers' Record, a large forty column paper, has made arrangements to secure 10,000 copies of the twelve sermons which Dr. Talmage is now preaching to the women of America with practical hints for men, and until these are exhausted they propose to give a copy with the Farmers' Record one year to each person sending them fifty cents. This offer will be withdrawn as soon as the ten thousand are all sent out so it would be well to send in now. The price of the paper is one dollar and the sermons will be worth one dollar after theirs are gone. Persons should send at once to the Record, Muncie, Ind.

Wonderful Cures.

W. D. Hoyt & Co., wholesale and retail druggists of Rome, Ga., say: "We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Burkle's Arnica Salve for four years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always." Sold by J. M. Kelly.

COUNTY W. C. T. U.

The Yamhill County W. C. T. U. held its annual convention March 28th and 29th at Newberg.

The convention convened at 2 o'clock. Owing to the absence of Mrs. Calbreath, president, Mrs. Edwards presided. After devotional exercises the following committees were appointed: On credentials, on plan of work, on resolutions, on time and place, on nominations, on declaration of principles and on courtesies. After receiving some reports from superintendents of departments the convention adjourned to meet in the evening, when the following programme was carried out:

Scripture reading, Mrs. Edwards; prayer, Bro. Pratt; Song, The Drunkard's Child, by the Band of Hope; welcome, by five little girls; declamation, Calvie Martin; dialogue, God Counts; Song, Pretty Moon, by four little girls; declamation, Walter Woodward; declamation, Blanche Propts; Song, Our Coming Army; address of welcome, Mrs. Woodward; response, Mrs. Young; recitation, Mrs. St. Helen; remarks, by Brothers Pratt and Edwards; music, by the choir; temperance doxology and benediction.

The second day was taken up in election of officers for the coming year, reports from committees and superintendents of departments.

The following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Vannie Martin; secretary, Mrs. M. C. S. Young; treasurer, Mrs. M. H. Bowerman; besides nineteen superintendents of departments of work. Mrs. Morris, of Newberg, was elected as delegate to the State W. C. T. U., which meets in Eugene City in May.

The committee on resolutions made the following report which was adopted by the convention:

WHEREAS, The Yamhill County W. C. T. U. at its first annual meeting at Newberg feel as if they have no cause to be fully discouraged in the great temperance work of the past year; Therefore be it Resolved, That this organization use every means in its power to further the work during the coming year. Resolved, That we continue our most able efforts in the schools and Band of Hope to educate the children till they learn to fear this greatest of evils. Resolved, That the ladies of the W. C. T. U. dress with simplicity and that the wearing of birds on our hats is detrimental to our usefulness, and that mothers spend more of their time in studying heredity and hygiene.

Resolved, That the thanks of this convention be tendered the trustees of the Evangelical church for the use of their church. The thanks of our delegates coming from other portions of the county to the excellent ladies of Newberg for their hospitable entertainment. That we tender our thanks to the Register, Telephone and Reporter for their kindness in printing temperance matter for us during the past year free of charge, and last but not least the Band of Hope which so elegantly entertained us on the first evening of this convention.

The programme for the last evening was: Scripture reading, Mrs. Edwards; prayer, Mrs. Bowerman; music, by the choir; address of Welcome by the Ys, Miss Brown; response, Mrs. Vanatta; recitation, Poor Little Will, Walter Edwards; essay, The Ys, Miss Maggie Ingles; recitation, Robert and I; recitation, The Drunkard's Widow, Miss Mary Cook; address on Social Purity, by Mrs. Calbreath, read by Mrs. Vannie Martin; music, by the choir.

The convention adjourned by singing the temperance doxology—benediction by Bro. Edwards.

The convention was enjoyed by all who attended. M. C. S. Young, Secretary.

WEST CHEHALEM.

This neighborhood has had a siege with colds, also a few cases of mumps.

The school has about sixty scholars enrolled. The teacher gives good satisfaction.

Mrs. Shearer, of Goldendale, W. T., mother of Mrs. P. A. Bates, is here on a visit.

Mr. A. Nelson has an elephant on his hands that will be hard for him to get rid of.

P. A. Bates is able to be around again. He has been under the care of Dr. Michaux.

Mr. E. Wallace, of Amity, has been here looking after his sheep, which are in a poor condition.

I was mistaken about Bates buying John Shearer's land. He did not buy it, he just took it back.

J. H. Minger starts for Clatsop county on the 3d of April. J. M. Conlee is going with him to look at the country.

These showers have put a stop to farmers sowing grain. March came in like a lamb and goes out like a whole drove of lions.

Born—To the wife of Samuel Brisbine, March 15, 1888, another democratic voter. Mother and child doing well. Some hope for Sam, with careful nursing.

AUNT BECKEY.

NEWBERG.

April 2, 1888.

Mrs. Henry Austin is still on the sick list.

Mrs. Martin Cook has been quite sick for a few days past.

Mr. Alva Macy and lady, of Dayton, attended the lecture Friday night.

Several Iowa and Minnesota gentlemen are in town prospecting for homes.

Mrs. Ben Cook, of Salem, spent a few days of last week in Newberg, attending the bedside of her sick mother.

Miss Ella Hadley, who has been attending school at Monmouth, returned home Friday. She expects to teach the spring term of school on Parrot mountain.

Lafayette and McMinnville furnished their full number of delegates—eleven in all—to the county convention held last week at this place. The convention was a lively one; the discussions on dress reform, hygiene and heredity, and the social purity question being especially interesting and instructive.

W. C. T. U.

April 2, 1888.

James Tooz, of Woodburn, is over on a visit.

Born—To the wife of Prof. T. T. Vincent, a fine son.

Alva Macy and wife, of Dayton, were down yesterday.
