RUNAWAYS.—Yesterday morning a runaway horse came tearing up the street, dragging a pair of whipple-trees, and when near Bird & Gates' store Claud Mag-gill left Dan Johnson's team, which he was driving, and tried to stop the runaway. As soon as he left the Johnson team started toward Carlton at a fast rate.
Just before reaching the Millican bridge they ran into Mr. Hollister, who was going in the same direction, throwing the old gentleman violently to the ground, and smashing his cart completely. One of the horses fell and they were caught.
Mr. Hollister was considerably bruised up but no bones broken.

THE CAMPAIGN.—Hon. J. D. Lee, of Dallas, opened the campaign here last Thursday evening. He confined his remarks mostly to the tariff. His coming was not well advertised, and therefore a small audience was in attendance. On Saturday evening last Hon. E. C. Bradshaw, of The Dalles, gave his old neighbors and friends a short talk on the political issues at the courthouse, and a large audience greeted him.

an, Prof. Crawford, Miss Adelaide Pop-pleton, Prof. Carl Young, Miss Katie

FROM TILLAMOOK.—T. B. Nelson returned from Tillamook (Lincoln) Monday, where he will start a livery stable soon. His barn is building now and as soon as completed he will take a few turnouts over there. Mr. Nelson reports times lively and immigrants coming rapidly.

Mr. E. A. Hill, an employe at Suiter & Daniel's flouring mill, met with a serious mishap last Saturday afternoon. He was oiling the machinery when his sleeve was caught by the rapidly revolving cogwheels which drew his arm into cogs lacerating it terribly. It was a very narrow escape.

DIED.—Mrs. S. Moore an old settler in Moore's valley; Dr. Morris and Fred Archibald, of North Yamhill, died the first of the week.

Wonderful Cures.

W. D. Hoyt & Co., wholesale and retail druggists of Rome, Ga., say: "We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklin's Arnica Salve for four years.
Have never handled remedies that sell as well or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always."

DAYTON.

May 15, 1888.

Politics on the boom.
R. L. Harris and A. Lafevre went to Portland on Monday.
Don't play ball in the park on Sunday —so say the city dads.
W. M. Hamilton is having an addition built to his house. George Reiser is doing the work.
A. R. Logan, of the firm of Logan Bros. & Henderson, of McMinnville, was in the city on Saturday.
John Hanson, the would-be coroner of Yamhill county, has built a picket fence around his premises.
Fred Robinson, who has been working in a logging camp on the Columbia river, returned home on Tuesday.
Twelve of the noted republicans of this precinct were delegates to the republican convention held on Monday.
A. L. Armstrong has been superceded on the mail route by his son Arvey, who is now Uncle Sam's duly installed servant.
Say boys, 8:30 o'clock is the appointed hour. Don't remain later or you might have the pleasure of Marshal Fletcher's company to the city hall.
The grand old maples on Ferry street loom up in majestic grandeur and afford a fine shade for loafers, bummers, politicians and office seekers.
Arthur and Kearney Carter, who have been working in the logging camps on the Columbia, arrived home on Saturday and were heartily welcomed.
Henry Taibot, formerly of this place, who is now living near Chehalis, W. T., is visiting with his uncle Frank. He will return to his home in a few days.
Charles Robinson and Joseph Baxter are cutting wood near town. It is to be hoped that they will both make a fortune, as they are industrious young men.
Hon. J. D. Lee lectured on the republican issues of the day at the Dayton hall on Friday evening. All of the g. o. p. men took great interest in the lecture, which lasted about twenty-five minutes.
The windmill has proved itself to be a great benefit to our town. Ferry street is now kept nicely wet down, and a great deal of dust which formerly flowed into the business houses is now entirely subdued.

AMITY.

Dr. Wise will be here this week.
J. A. Likens is in Portland attending Grand Lodge I. O. O. F.
The Springer Bros. came down from Bunchgrass to attend court at Dallas.
Miss Delila Goucher will start to Eastern Oregon in a few days, to visit her sister, Mrs. Nora Springer.
Amity got away with the baseball game here last Saturday by a score of 30 to 25. Amity, 30; McMinnville, 25.
John W. Briedwell, Jr., went to Portland this week. The firm of Allison & Briedwell is doing very well and have a good stock on hand.
Married.—At Ellensburg, W. T., April 26, 1888, Mr. Thomas Landingham, of this place, and Miss Mattie Miller, of Ellensburg. Mr. and Mrs. Landingham arrived here this week, looking very happy.
R. L. Simpson and Geo. Edwards returned from the coal fields of Nehalem yesterday. They report a fine trip, lots of fish and rough roads—as Dick got spilled out and sustained a severe scalp wound and hurt his hand. They brought home a fine specimen of coal. Rurus.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kind, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low cost, short weight alums, or phosphate powders held only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER.
