A JOKE ON "ROCKY."—R. P. Earhart tells a joke on himself in connection with a circus. While he was secretary of state he made it a point, when a circus visited Salem, to take all the boys at the Orphan's home to see it. On one occasion he went out with two express wagons to bring in the children, and his daughters were to meet him at the ticket office. The ticket seller saw them standing around, and heard them say that they were waiting for their father to come with "the boys." When he drove up with two wagon-loads and the boys began to jump out, the surprised ticket seller exclaimed, "Good land! here is a candidate for the poorhouse!"—Oregonian.

BASEBALL.—The Sheridan baseballists claim to be the boss on the west side this year. They have defeated everything they have tackled with the exception of the Amitys, although they defeated them two out of three games. The Sheridan club won big money from the Indian club. The Sheridan club is more than anxious that a tournament shall be held during the Yamhill county fair, Dayton and Forest Grove boys would probably enter the tournament, and Lafayette might also send a nine, just to make it interesting, you know.

HON. E. C. BRADSHAW.

Hon. E. C. Bradshaw, formerly of Lafayette, died at The Dalles, August 23, 1888, of neuralgia of the heart, in the 61st year of his age. His death was sudden and unexpected, he being in his usual good health up to within a few hours of its occurrence. Mr. Bradshaw was born in Mercer county, Kentucky, October 19, 1827. He was a volunteer in the Mexican war, serving to its close, after which he removed to Missouri, studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1850.

In 1864 he crossed the plains with his family in an ox wagon, and spent the winter of 1864-5 at Idaho City, from which point they continued their journey to Yamhill county in the fall of 1865, and located in Lafayette, where he resided until his removal to the Dalles two years ago. He was well known throughout the state, having represented Yamhill county in the lower branch of the legislature from 1874 to 1876 and in the senate from 1876 to 1880. July 5, 1855, he was married to Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, who died in Lafayette, April 1, 1885. To them three boys and one girl were born, of whom only one, Wm. L., of Lafayette, survives. Mrs. W. B. Carey is a daughter of Mrs. Bradshaw by her first husband. In March of the present year Mr.

Bradshaw married Mrs. Ruth Broyles.

He was enjoying a good practice in his chosen profession, and has been much respected and beloved by all who knew him all his days. The remains were brought here and were buried from the Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon, the Rev. Wm. Clyde conducting the services. May he rest in peace.

FROZEN FRUIT.—All day yesterday eager crowds gathered at Baum & Brandes', where a large cake of ice, in which were frozen several clusters of fruit, was on exhibition. As this is something new and novel in the extreme, there was no end to the admiration expressed. Three large bunches, one of Italian prunes, another of the egg plum and a third of the common prune were encased in a prison of crystal ice. The cake of ice was three feet high, two feet wide and one foot thick. Leaves, stems and fruit all retained the most natural appearance.

Towards evening, after the novelty had been on exhibition all day, air cells began to form on the fruit. These soon made a complete sheath and gave the fruit the appearance of being covered with countless globules of quicksilver.

The ice was frozen at the ice works of Harris & Salmon.—Oregonian.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—Albert Bowersox, of Salem, is living for the present with Mr. Gabriel, who lives about a mile south of Dayton, and on Saturday last while putting up a team, was called upon to drive from the barn an old broken-down work horse which had entered surprisingly. The horse came back shortly and Bert got after him with a pitchfork, striking him with the back of it. The horse retaliated by kicking. His hoof struck the handle of the fork, turning it around and forcing one of the tines an inch and a quarter into Bert's forehead, just above the right eye. The handle in some way struck his right hand, breaking his forefinger, and badly bruising the hand. He went into the house, and a physician was called.

COLLAR BONE BROKEN.—Monday night Geo. H. Westerfield met with a serious misfortune which will lay him up for several weeks. He has been sleeping in the barn during the warm weather, and on the above evening retired as usual, laying down near the loft door, where he was soon wrapped in the arms of Morpheus. This aged and usually sedate saint, however, allowed the sleeper to

AN EXCITING COMBAT.

Jason Hamilton, a farmer who resides near the Cascade locks, Mrs. Hamilton and their hired man, had an experience which is worth relating. The Hamilton family had a number of chickens, and these began to disappear inside of one or two nights in an alarmingly rapid manner.

The coop was almost empty and Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton mourned thereat.

At 9 o'clock one night a noise was heard in the coop and Mr. Hamilton and the hired retainer sallied forth to capture the marauder. Mr. Hamilton was armed with a shotgun loaded with bird shot, while the hireling carried a fire-torch.

Hearing their approach something darted from the coop and took refuge in a tree.

Mr. Hamilton, thinking it was a wild cat, climbed the tree and when he got close enough emptied his shotgun into a dark object perched on the branches above him. Down came the object, striking Mr. Hamilton, and he came down by the run. The hired man saw that it was a huge cougar and dropping his torch he fled like a scared wolf.

The cougar began to feel for Mr. Hamilton, when the latter's dogs took a hand in the fight, and distracted Mr. Cougar's attention. Then Mrs. Hamilton picked up the torch and joined in the melee, which by this time had become quite interesting and exciting. The cougar made for Mrs. Hamilton, but that plucky lady burned his chin whiskers with the torch and so held him at bay. Mr. Hamilton clubbed his gun and struck the cougar, breaking off the stock. Then he took the barrels, and with the assistance of Mrs.

Hamilton and the dogs, soon beat the cougar to death. When stretched out the animal measured some nine feet.

The hireling has been discharged, the cougar skinned, and the pelt will be tanned and made into a cloak for Mrs.

Hamilton.—News.

a part of sections 20, 21 and 29, t 4 s, r 4 w; $500.

Worth Knowing.

Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe cold, attended with a distressing cough, and running into consumption in its first stages. He tried many so called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep.

Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures, as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it. Trial bottle free at J. M.

Kelty's drug store.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Dairy association will be held in Portland on the first Friday in September at 11 a.

m. A full attendance is desired.

EDWARD CASEY, Secretary.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. M. Kelty.

DUST.—It is not uncommon to hear residents of this vicinity complain of the dust. But we imagine that the people of Eastern Oregon do have just cause for complaint on this score. The Burns, Grant county, Herald comes to this office filled full of dust, and the wrapper is nearly worn off by a stage journey of a hundred miles or more in that country.

AT HOME.—On Tuesday "Uncle" John Bird and family returned home from Tillamook, where they have enjoyed themselves for the past six weeks.

CARLTON.

The threshing season is drawing to a close.

H. W. Sitton visited the metropolis last Saturday.

J. B. Smith is troubled with the erysipelas these days.

Master Biga Hendrix visited the Mises Stott for several days last week.

Mr. Nels Christenson is keeping books for J. E. Swansen this season.

Mrs. McCune was very sick a few days ago, but is better at this time.

Lots of wheat coming in. It is of fine quality and is worth 68 cents a bushel.

Nasby has some nice pictures of Cleveland and Thurman hanging in his office.

I didn't say the three doctors, I said the three D. D. would take our town yet.

J. H. Fairchild's little child is about well, but Mrs. Hutchcroft is quite poorly yet.

It takes a rich man to shave his own note, a poor man cannot afford such a luxury.

For sale, one German canary singer.
For particulars call on Mrs. Campbell

Hendrix.

Walter Thompson, of Portland, has been visiting his brother, L. C. Thompson, for a few days.

J. W. Redd has bought the grocery business of Bob McCaskey, and can be found at the old stand.

Some tight-fingered gent visited F. L.
Robert's watermelon patch yesterday during the absence of the family.

Mr. W. A. Howe has let the contract for the building of a hall on his lot in town, which will be 30x70 feet and two stories high. Mr. Asa Kelsey is the contractor. So you see that our town is growing some. This building will be nice finished with all the modern improvements. HAWK-EYE.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died.—In Lafayette, Or., Aug. 20, 1888, of pneumonia, Wayne Bliss, infant son of G. F. and Josie Johnson, aged 9 months and 21 days.

Soon called away from scenes of strife To grace the silent tomb,

With glorious hope, eternal life,
And never fading bloom.
