

ELECTION NEWS.

Before this paper reaches its readers the result of the presidential contest will have been pretty generally ascertained. Gen. Harrison has won, and the republicans are happy.

In Oregon there is a considerable increase over the June vote, both democratic and republican. The republican majority in the state, according to latest news, will be about 1,000 more than in June.

Yamhill county shows an increase in the total vote, of 108. Republican increase, 87; democratic increase, 16; prohibition loss, 4; labor ticket received 8 votes in Carlton and 1 in North Yamhill.

Following is a comparative table, showing the official vote in June and November:

The prohibition law of Iowa has been sustained by the U. S. supreme court. John S. Kidd claimed that under the state prohibition law the state officers could not prevent the manufacture of intoxicating liquor for export to another state.

Hon. C. W. Fulton spent last Sunday at home and then went east of the mountains and gave them some sound arguments on the tariff question. Charley has made a good impression—especially among the people of the valley—and that being the case we may reasonably expect that Oregon's representative to congress will be chosen from the lower Columbia in early years.

Rev. Travis will preach next Sunday morning and evening, at the Presbyterian church. Choir meets Saturday afternoon as usual.

Work will commence immediately on the railroad to be built from Gray's harbor to Central, on the Northern Pacific.

A prominent Astorian while recently in San Francisco had a lengthy conversation about the recently announced plan of establishing a democratic paper in Oregon, with the business manager of the San Francisco Examiner.

The wealthy society men of Denver have been seized with the coaching mania and have purchased a genuine English four-in-hand. A correspondent of the Chicago Herald tells the following story agent this vehicle: "Years ago it was imported from London by Harry Oelrichs, a well-known New Yorker."

Here is an item of interest to the type-sticking fraternity taken from a recent issue of the Oakland (Cal.) Times: "The speed contest between teams of compositors at the Tribune office was finished yesterday, when the last galley of the great register was corrected."

One of the attractions at the Paris exhibition will be an endless railway train, consisting of 400 platform cars. The line will be sunk so that the platforms will be on a level with the surface, and the train will run slowly enough to permit most people to step on and off while it is in motion.

The Baker City Democrat says: "Stock owners in Baker county are in the midst of the fall round up. A general horse gathering is now in progress in the Lower Powder country and the range from there to this valley will be thoroughly searched."

Fritz Anschlag has confessed the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock, near Anaheim, California, last winter, the horrible details of which were given at that time.

Another minor planet. The discovery is announced of another asteroid by Dr. Palisa at Vienna. This makes two hundred and eighty minor planets that have been found since 1801 moving within the solar system.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26, 1888.

Senator Gorman came over from the national democratic headquarters in New York, and had a long conference with Mr. Cleveland this week.

There will be a public oral discussion in Silverton, Marion county, Oregon, between Clark Braden, of Ottawa, Kansas, and B. F. Underwood, of Chicago, Illinois. The debate will begin Wednesday, November 21, 1888, and continue eight days.

Democrats here are confidently figuring on the senate after the 4th of next March, as well as the presidency and the house. It will only take republican legislatures in West Virginia and New Jersey to accomplish that much desired result, and then the democratic party will have a real opportunity to bring about some of the many reforms that are so badly needed.

Mr. Cleveland leaves to-night for New York, where he will to-morrow afternoon review the mammoth business men's Cleveland and Thurman parade. He will return to Washington immediately after the parade.

HINTS ABOUT BUTCHERING. If the hogs to be slaughtered are fed within twelve hours of their killing, the food is wasted, the meat will be more disposed to sour, and it will be more difficult to remove the distended intestines and take from them the lard.

Nearly all of the members of the cabinet are actively engaged in the campaign. They are doing excellent work, too.

Washingtonians now rejoice in the possession of a genuine English lord. The British minister here has recently, through the death of a relative, become Lord Sackville.

Frank Taber says in the last issue of the American Grange Bulletin, that if the problem of an increased membership in the West is solved in time to benefit the present generation, it will be done through a more careful attention to, and a greater use of the financial advantages of our organization; what we must have, is a greater membership, not a sudden and overpowering rush of heterogeneous materials.

New York city, who was in Washington this week, gave it as his opinion that Cleveland would have a plurality of 25,000 in his state. He says that the national committee are now certain of holding their own in the labor vote, and that they are daily making gains among business men and men who study.
