Rev. F. L. Post will plant a large acreage of fruit trees on his farm below Dayton.
Always on hand at Westerfield & Bryan's, a fresh supply of large pop-corn balls.
Graham Glass, Jr., of the Reporter, was in town Monday and gave us a pleasant call.
G. A. Churchman, of Sheridan, has commenced the study of medicine with Dr. Michaux.

A decision in the narrow gauge case in the United States supreme court is promised January 7th.
Money to loan on real estate in sums to suit by Fenton & Fenton, at Lafayette and McMinnville, Oregon.
Mrs. Getchell and daughter, of Amity, were here visiting the family of Dr. G. H. Smith last Saturday.
It took five dozen turkeys, save two, for the Thanksgiving dinner for the inmates of the insane asylum.
Dr. George Wright and wife, of Salem, will move to McMinnville this week to make their future home there.
Besides carrying a neat stock of furniture, W. I. Westerfield has a very select stock of holiday goods; go and see them.
Westerfield & Bryan at the Lafayette billiard parlors keep the finest assortment of French mixed candies in town.
Mrs. Harriet Ewing, of Alturas, California, arrived in town Monday evening, on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allison.

There are two Protestant hospitals in Oregon—the Good Samaritan, Episcopal, and the Portland, Methodist, both located in Portland.
J. T. Reed, of Carlton, called on Monday. In the future his home will be happier because of the weekly visits of the REGISTER.
"All's well that ends well." Go to C. Green, McMinnville, to buy your candy and holiday goods, and your money will be well spent.
Dr. Wm. Harrison, a physician of experience, has located at Newberg, and respectfully solicits the patronage of the people of this community.
Mrs. Rubel, daughter, of Rev. and Mrs. McIntire, visited her parents here a few days ago when en route to her new home in Southern Oregon.

The attendance at the open temperance meeting on Wednesday evening was very good, and the addresses, readings and recitations were praiseworthy.
Rev. E. S. Craven and family passed through town on Monday from their home in Hillsboro to Newberg, where Mrs. Craven's mother, Mrs. McCollum, is very sick.
The donation for the benefit of Rev. J. McIntire at the residence of Judge Hurley last Thursday evening was a very pleasant affair. The donation amounted to about $30.

Mr. Foster, of Carter & Foster, real estate agents at Newberg, was in town Monday and gave us a pleasant call. If you want to buy or sell real estate consult them. Their ad. may be seen in this paper.
POCKET PICKED.—S. A. Mulkey, who returned from Dallas yesterday, informs this paper that his brother, L. D. Mulkey, deputy sheriff of Polk county, was robbed of $1,445 while in Portland a few days ago. He is the Polk county agent for several agricultural implement houses, and after collecting all the money he could from his season's sales he went to Portland to settle with the firms for which he is working. He paid $240 to one firm, but before he could get to the next place where he was to transact similar business, his pockets were relieved of all the money he had in them, that being the amount stated above. He has no idea how the thief took the money from him, although he admits that he carried it in the outside pocket of his overcoat. The police are looking for the thief; but the chances are that he will never be found.—Salem Statesman.

ALMOST A FIRE.—Last Sunday evening about 5 o'clock a little boy of Mr. David Cherry's discovered that Mrs. Odell's house on the corner of 6th and Pearl Streets, was on fire and gave an alarm. Lester Beck with and Wm. Preston happened to be near and broke into the house and extinguished it before much damage was done. The folks had gone away from home and left quite a fire in the fireplace and, some wood in another room, piled up back of the fireplace, caught fire. No alarm was sounded. But for the timely discovery the house would probably have been destroyed.—Eugene City Register.

A FATAL HUNT.—Another fatal accident occurred recently on the Lower Siuslaw in the following manner: A party consisting of John Schwartz, George Montgomery and others, went out bear hunting. The dogs soon brought to bay a large black bear in a thicket of brush. Schwartz killed the bear and in the meantime Montgomery came up, and seeing the black coat worn by Schwartz, mistook him for the bear and shot, the ball entering his body near the short ribs. The man died in a few minutes.—Benton Leader.

ONLY ONCE.—A year can you indulge in the very pleasant privilege of giving beautiful and useful presents to your best girl, or your sister, your uncle, your cousin, or your aunt. That time will soon be here, and if you want to buy something extra good, and double extra cheap, go to Geo. W. Post at McMinnville. See ad. in this paper.
TO BUCKWHEAT GROWERS.—Sutler & Daniel give notice to farmers who have buckwheat, that they will make a run on buckwheat about the 20th of this month, provided enough is brought in to justify them in making a change from common wheat. To do this 50 to 60 bushels must be brought in before the 20th inst.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The first quarterly meeting of the Lafayette circuit will be held at Lafayette Saturday and Sunday, December 8th and 9th. Preaching by the presiding elder on Saturday at 10 a. m.; quarterly conference immediately following.
TAKE NOTICE.—All parties who know themselves to be indebted to me for medical services are requested to call and settle the same before January 1, 1889. J. C. MICHAUX.

There are two Protestant hospitals in Oregon—the Good Samaritan, Episcopal, and the Portland, Methodist, both located in Portland.
J. T. Reed, of Carlton, called on Monday. In the future his home will be happier because of the weekly visits of the REGISTER.
"All's well that ends well." Go to C. Green, McMinnville, to buy your candy and holiday goods, and your money will be well spent.
Dr. Wm. Harrison, a physician of experience, has located at Newberg, and respectfully solicits the patronage of the people of this community.
Mrs. Rubel, daughter, of Rev. and Mrs. McIntire, visited her parents here a few days ago when en route to her new home in Southern Oregon.

EDITOR REGISTER:
Allow me through the columns of your paper to thank the kind people of Lafayette for the many useful things presented to my family on Thanksgiving evening, at the residence of Judge Hurley. One of the pleasant features of the evening was the presence of Brother Travis and several of the members of his church, who by their generous gifts added to the liberal stores brought in. We were much pleased with the outcome and feel it was a success socially and financially. Many thanks to all. J. McINTIRE.

G. E. JOHNSON, Postmaster.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says:
TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.
Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co.—Gentlemen—I have been in the general practice of medicine for 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience, I have never seen a preparation which I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.
Yours truly,
L. L. GONASCH, M. D.,
Office, 215 Summit St.

We will give $100 for any case of Catarrh Cure. Taken internally.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. 18

The O. P. steamer Three Sisters took 800 tons of straw from Wheatland, this county, to the paper mills at LaCemas Washington territory last week.

NEWBERG.
December 3, 1888.
The town is still booming.
Weather rather damp, although mild. J. M. Holston and family have moved to Portland.
Samuel Hobson, the photographer is ready for business.
Moore Bros. have a nice assortment of holiday goods and toys.
Geo. Haworth and family expect to start for California this week.
New houses are going up in spite of the muddy roads and damp weather.
The winter term at the academy opened to-day with 104 pupils in attendance.
J. D. Tarrat & Co. have plenty of water to run their grist mill all the time.
Mrs. Mary Hadley had an attack of apoplexy, and is paralyzed on one side.
Dr. J. B. Moore seems to be doing a lively business, as he is going nearly all the time.

Our new paper, the Newberg Graphic, did not get out last week, but will make its appearance this week.
The engine at Vincent & Spaulding's saw mill had a slight break last week, and they had to go to Portland for repairs.
Paul Macy and family, who have lately arrived from the east, have rented Mr. and Mrs. Round's place, formerly J. M. Holston's.

A debating society has been started at the Chehalis mountain schoolhouse, with the following officers: President, David Guber; vice-president, Joshua Ford; secretary, N. L. Wiley; treasurer, Mrs. Susie Guber. They meet on Wednesday evenings.

PROHIBITIONIST.
CARLTON.
December 4, 1888.
Business is good—everybody in good humor.
Our school is full these days, which is proper.
Shot guns are good persuaders—are they boys?
Our genial friend, Eb. Sitton called on us the other day.
Mr. and Mrs. Plummer visited McMinnville yesterday.
Mrs. Plummer has sold her house and lot on east Main street to Mrs. Caldwell, of McMinnville, who will take possession soon.
Our old time friend, Glass, of the Reporter, called on us yesterday. Call again, friend Glass, the latch-string is on the outside.
Our wants are modest. We want a furniture store. We want a drug store. We want a hardware and tin shop. We want a good doctor.

The two school districts, numbers 1 and 11 will have a fine Christmas tree and school exhibition on Christmas eve in the new opera house.
W. A. Howe has received a car load of goods direct from Chicago, consisting of men's clothing, ladies' cloaks and one of the finest selected stock of goods in Yamhill county.

DAYTON.
December 5, 1888.
Where is that flouring mill?
John Jones, of this city, went to Portland Tuesday on business.
The steamer Champion is now making regular trips to this place.
Road Supervisor W. T. Hahs is having some work done on Ferry street.
It is reported that a shoemaker from Salem will soon locate at this place.
Mrs. John Gillanders has moved into the house vacated by Robert Alexander.
A series of meetings will be commenced in the Holiness chapel on next Tuesday evening.
The windmill in the public square makes a nice ornament. If it had wings it would fly away.
There are some sidewalks in town that need repairs. The town council should see to this matter.

There was a meeting held in the M. E. church on Tuesday evening for the purpose of organizing a literary society.

COUNTY COURT.
The county court convened pursuant to adjournment last Saturday, and made the order for the removal of the public records and court business to McMinnville, and fixed Monday, the 7th day of January, 1889, as the day of said removal.
