CLUB LIST.
For the benefit of our subscribers who want to take some eastern paper or magazine, we have made arrangements to club with the following:
New York World, $2.50
Democrat Magazine, 3.00
American Agriculturist, 3.00
These prices include the REGISTER and periodical named for one year. Or we will furnish the World three months free with every cash in advance subscriber at $2.00. With every issue of the World is published a complete popular novel by some well-known writer. These are very liberal offers, and the publication named are the best in their lines.

REMOVAL.
THE OREGON REGISTER has been removed from Lafayette to McMinnville, where we will be pleased to see all our old friends and patrons, and many new ones. Correspondents and brother publishers are requested to send their communications and papers to McMinnville.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.
O. O. Hodson was in Portland on business Monday.
Rev. Burchett, of Portland, was in town Monday.
E. Carpenter, of Lafayette, has our thanks for favors.
J. S. Martin is lying very ill at his home in this city.
A fine son was born to the wife of A. Braly, January 21, 1889.
Martin & Sanders carry a fine line of table and pocket cutlery.
F. Barnekooff paid the metropolis a business visit last Saturday.
Dr. W. B. Magers, of Stayton, is reported dangerously ill again.
E. H. Flegg, lately of the St. Helens Mt., was in town on Tuesday.
High Arm Vertical Feed Davis Sewing Machines at Martin & Sanders.
Wm. Galloway returned from the Sound country Saturday evening.
Woodmen, buy your saws, axes, sledges and wedges of Martin & Sanders.
Go to G. S. Wright, dentist, Braly's block, McMinnville, for first-class work.
A railroad passing through this place to deep water would be a great blessing.
W. H. (Bill) Warren, a native of Yamhill, is now on the police force in Portland.
The county clerk and recorder moved into their offices in the court house on Monday.
A full line of hardware and agricultural implements at lowest prices at Martin & Sanders.
The Polk county Observer has been removed to Dallas. It wanted to be at the county seat.
Street Commissioner Heath has been suffering with an attack of quinsy for several days.
Teeth extracted without pain by the application of local anesthetics. G. S. Wright, dentist.
T. B. Kay has moved into the house, across the railroad, which he purchased of the Albe estate.
Martin & Sanders, the hardware men, are renovating their large store and building in a new office.
Frank W. Fenton, of this city, has been reappointed a notary public by his excellency, the governor.
The Young People's dancing club announce that there will be no dance Saturday evening of this week.
Louis McDox has been suffering severely for several days with pneumonia. He is reported out of danger.
William R. Bishop, of Portland, father of our fellow townsman, will be an applicant for the agency at Klamath reservation.

It was Newby & Edson who built the grist-mill referred to last week. Mr. Kinney was its third proprietor.
The West Side invites Mr. Mahana, the creamery man, to come to Independence and talk with people there on the subject.
Will Logan has disposed of his interest in the barber shop with Charley Fleming, and has purchased the shop of Force & Welch.
Mr. Dickerson, the expressman, who has been confined to his home for a couple of weeks with neuralgia, resumed work on Monday.
A shooting match took place at Lafayette last Saturday between E. Long, of that place, and a Mr. Tucker, of Beaver-ton. Mr. Long won easily.
Rev. Jordan and wife took their departure for their new home in Dixon, California, Tuesday. The best wishes of a large circle of friends go with them.
J. L. Rogers and J. A. Todd returned Tuesday from a visit to California. They had a fine trip, overland, and report native Oregonians down there as doing well.
E. H. Simpson, an employe in Hodson's iron cornice manufactory, had the misfortune to flip the ends off of two or three of his fingers with the squaring machine on Monday morning.
Mrs. Wm. Campbell and Mrs. E. W. Fuller have succeeded Mrs. Briggs in the millinery business. They have just opened a fine lot of millinery and bazaar goods, in the opera house block, and invite all the ladies to call and examine their stock.

Little Lester Vnatta met with a serious mishap the other day. James Minty was sawing wood, and the little fellow was pulling the slivers from in front of the saw. He got his hand too close and as a consequence lost the end of his middle finger. The piece was replaced, and it is thought will grow on all right.
Word has been received here that Mr. Smith, an employe of Davis & Rankin, the machinery manufacturers, will leave Chicago next Monday for McMinnville, to superintend the construction of the creamery, cold storage and cheese factory. Work will begin soon after his arrival.
E. B. Fellows will receive next week the largest assortment of carpets ever brought to Yamhill county. The stock will consist of body Brussels at $1.25 per yard; tapestry, 75 cents to $1; three ply, $1 to $1.10; two ply, 75 cents to 85 cents; Excelsior, 60 cents; Union, 35 cents; Elgin, 50 cents; Brittanite, 50 cents. Call and examine these bargains, and you will be surprised.

COUNTY SEAT CONTESTS.—Notwithstanding the cool weather our neighbors in Polk county are getting warm on the matter of relocating the county seat. Independence people are out with petitions asking the present legislature to grant an enabling act, and Dallas people are out with a remonstrance. This is the second effort Independence has made in this direction. Union county, Eastern Oregon, is also very much excited on the same question.
Will Meet Here.—The president of the County Sabbath School association announces, through the columns of the Newberg Graphic, that their next convention will be held in McMinnville, if they invited or encouraged to do so. The attention of our local Sunday school workers, therefore, is called to this fact, and more than likely the proper arrangements will be made for the meeting here. J. H. Boverman, Newberg, is the president.
A SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE.—Not quite two years ago Jas. Huddleston was somewhat staggered by an offer of $12,000 for 100 acres of land adjoining Eugene on the west and came near selling. About one month ago he refused an offer of $20,000. Last week he was offered $25,000 but refused to sell. This is a substantial increase in valuation of property near Eugene and is not an exceptional case.—Guard.

BUSINESS TRIP.—O. O. Hodson started yesterday on a trip up the valley in the interest of Garry's patent cap iron roofing, for which he is the sole agent for Western Oregon. He is also manufacturer of galvanized iron cornice, in which business he has a good outlook. His trip will extend as far south as Roseburg and probably to Ashland.
S. and P. C. BALL.—The next ball day on the United States calendar is St. Valentine's day. The Young People's dancing club proposes to celebrate the day this year with a grand sheet and pillow case ball. The opera house has been secured, and invitations will be issued in due time.
JOB WORK.—For all kinds of job printing call on the REGISTER office. We can suit you on prices and quality of work. Neatness and promptness will be assured at all times. Office on D street, opposite postoffice.
All parties having accounts with C. A. Wallace & Son not settled will please call and do so at once, no matter how small an account you owe us, your account must be balanced, as we have to pay for our goods, and we shall require the same of you.

THE QUARANTINE.—The city council met in special session last Saturday evening to consider the matter of quarantine against Amity, on account of smallpox. It was decided to be for the best interests of this city to quarantine, and accordingly guards have been placed on the road leading from Amity to this city. We have talked with a number of our business men and they do not approve of the action of the council in this matter. The citizens here are generally disposed to trust the Amity people to care for and control this dread disease in their midst. From all that can be learned the greatest diligence is being exercised in the matter at Amity, and as no one will knowingly expose himself to the disease, there is not any probability that it will spread outside of those already exposed. Vaccination is a better and simpler method of dealing with this disease than is the quarantine. A very large majority of the people of this county have been vaccinated within the last few months, and all who have not should attend to the matter immediately, for the good of themselves and the public. Children attending the public school especially should be vaccinated, and the directors have advised that this be done. The latest advice from Amity are to the effect that of the nine cases in the post house all are convalescing or doing well, and it is not thought there will be any more new cases. We hope not, for smallpox is a disease to be dreaded; but when it once breaks out it must be carefully treated and not run away from, as that will not stamp it out.

THE ASTORIA RAILROAD.—The McMinnville REGISTER calls attention of its home readers to the importance of co-operating with Salem in the construction of the Salem, Tillamook and Astoria railroad, and urges the McMinnville board of trade to take the matter in hand. It is impossible to overlook the benefits of this proposed line. They are recognized as soon as mentioned. Concert of action is the only thing needed. The company organized in Salem will doubtless hold conferences with the people of McMinnville and other intermediate points before long and ascertain the necessities and possibilities along the route, after which decisive action will be taken. In the meantime the stock books are open for subscriptions and all are invited to join the procession.—Salem Statesman.

ABOUT RIGHT.—The state legislature pays out each session about $11,000 for clerk hire for work that as a business transaction could be obtained for less than $1000. It is done merely for patronage. The clerks of some of the committees hardly make a scratch of the pen and use only a little gum stickum, and a poor woman or young man stands no show of getting the clerkships at that.—Albany Democrat.

A FRIEND.—The talk of killing off the Chinese pheasants is ill-timed if not senseless. They have not grown so plentiful as to be a nuisance, their beauty is a matter of pride to our state, and they surely kill enough worms and destructive insects to offset any harm they may do.—Portland Welcome.

NEWBERG.
January 21, 1889.
Lots of property changing hands.
Mrs. Jane Blair's health is quite poor.
Miss Abbie Myers' health is improving.
Frank Newman is sick with catarrhal fever.
School is progressing nicely at the academy.
A. B. George is crippled with a stitch in his back.
Ezekiel Stanley is down with the catarrhal fever.
Mrs. Brant, of Ellendale, was at this place yesterday.
The first snow of the season made its appearance last week.
Reva Jesse and Mary Edwards and daughter started to California last Tuesday.
C. F. Moore has a fir root that is quite a curiosity. Call at Moore Bros' drug store and examine it.
Word has been received here that Miss Kate Holston and John Kirkley, both of whom formerly lived here, are sick at Portland with the typhoid fever.
There will be a joint discussion at the Chehalis mountain schoolhouse on Wednesday evening, January 30, 1889, between the Chehalis mountain and Mid-jetton debating club; subject, "Which has done the greater service to mankind the printing press or the steam engine?"
DERRY.—At Newberg, Oregon, January 15, 1889, Mrs. Hulda Hadley Derby, aged 26 years and 8 months.
Mrs. Derby was born in Morgan county, Indiana, May 15, 1863, and was married to Mr. John Derby on the 25th day of May 1882. She had suffered for a long time with consumption, and gradually grew weaker until death relieved her of her suffering. She was honored and respected by all who knew her, and the bereaved husband and two children have the sympathy of all.

THOSE CLERKS.
McMINNVILLE, OR., Jan. 22, 1889.
Editor Register:
The Oregonian of 21st under head of "Removals Necessary" says, "the mail service of Oregon is notoriously inefficient because of the removal of veteran clerks to make room for inexperienced men." It also says that those who have been appointed under Cleveland's administration "are wretched ignorant, inefficient, characterless material." From personal knowledge of the clerks now in office in Oregon I know that they will compare in ability with those under former presidents, and as to character, they are far ahead of the old clerks. Take for instance the two who were appointed from this town—both good clerks and both of good character. I suppose Mr. Scott would have the mail clerks proficient in Greek and Latin, or poker and faro, as were some of the former incumbents. There seems to be a desire on the part of the republican press to pave the way for a "clean sweep" immediately after March 4th; but Mr. Harrison is a civil service reformer, and what are you going to do about it?
McGURUM.

NORTH YAMHILL.
January 22, 1889.
Hon. R. R. Laughlin is attending the legislature.
Roads muddy. More rain. Strangers numerous in town.
The dance Saturday evening was well attended, and everyone had a good time.
Messrs. Hopkins, Agee and Morris, of McMinnville, were on our streets Sunday, Grain looks well in this vicinity and there is every prospect for a good crop. Quite a large amount of grain, principally oats, yet remains in our warehouses.
Not seeing any items from this place in your valuable paper, I will send you the following:
Our school is doing nicely under the efficient management of Prof. Buchanan and Miss Poppleton.
Joe Livingston has returned to his old home from Eastern Oregon, where he has been for some time.
The Yamhill boys have returned from the Columbia, and are having a good time at home with friends.
Mrs. Alex Miller and Mrs. John Maddox, who have been very ill for some time, are slowly convalescing.
C. C. Tallman is making valuable improvements on his property recently purchased from Frank Housworth.
A. B. Seal, of San Francisco, representing A. Schilling & Co., and Geo. Lang, representing Corbett & Magley, of Portland, interviewed our merchants Saturday and Monday.

We understand that Wesley Morgan has bought George Van Gorder's barber shop. We bespeak for Wes a liberal share of patronage. Mr. Van Gorder will probably go to Kalama and engage in the same business.
AGITATOR.
PUCKERVILLE.
January 21, 1889.
Joe Kidder is very low with rheumatism.
Farmers are busy doing nothing, as usual.
We want a doctor, lawyer and undertaker.
The young folks are having a good time sleigh riding.
We don't see anything of the new store building—where is it?
W. B. Holman, of McMinnville, spent Sunday in our burg with his best girl.
Mrs. Carl Little has been quite sick, but we are glad to say she is convalescing.
Several of our Puckerville dudes went out on a deer hunt last week, but after being out twenty-four hours returned sadder but wiser men.
Say, boys, let George alone, guess he can write his girl on a postal card, asking for her company, if he wants too; it's nobody's business.
Puckerville talks of organizing a literary society. Go ahead. Puckerville has more get-up than any other town of its size in Yamhill county.
Fred says, "we can't raise money enough to pay the fiddlers, let alone raising enough to pay the preacher." What is this world coming to?
Some of our young folks started out Sunday evening for a good old fashioned sleigh ride, but after two or three break-downs came to the conclusion they had better wait until it quit raining and snowed again.
BLUE EYES.

SAWED FINGERS.—Mr. B. Clark, the furniture manufacturer, met with a serious accident last Friday. He was working the buzz-saw we have all read so much about, when his fingers came in contact with the saw's inviolable teeth, and when he got his hand away he found the second and third fingers badly lacerated and the first and little fingers severely scratched, in fact the nails were gone from all the fingers of his left hand. It was thought at first that he would lose one or two of them, but they are healing nicely, and his friends are glad it's no worse.

THE LAW OF NEWSPAPERS.
1.—Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscriptions.
2.—If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals the publishers may continue to send them until all arrears are paid.
3.—If subscribers neglect to order or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they have been directed, they are held responsible for all they have authorized, and ordered their paper discontinued.
4.—If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.
5.—The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncollected for a prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
6.—The postmaster who neglects to give the legal notice of a suspended or refused to take from the office the paper addressed to him, is liable also to the publisher for the subscription price.

No weekly paper published in the United States contains as much or as good a variety of good reading matter as
THE WEEKLY EXAMINER.

The coming year promises to be crowded with stirring events.
In the United States the entrance of new issues into the political arena has been followed by a change of administration. But the great economic question on which the campaign turned is still unsettled, and the solution is now committed to a congress generally divided between the two great parties.
Europe is a vast camp. Army corps patrol the frontiers, and millions of men await the signal for the most titanic war the world has ever seen.
The EXAMINER'S news-gathering machinery is unequalled. Its correspondents dot the habitable globe. Nothing can escape their vigilance, and no expense is spared in spreading the results of their efforts before the EXAMINER'S readers.
The most noted writers of fiction in the world contribute to the WEEKLY EXAMINER. Jules Verne, author of A Trip to the Moon, etc.; Robert Louis Stevenson, author of Treasure Island, etc.; Rider Haggard, author of The Sheena, etc.; Anna Katherine Green, author of The Leavenworth Case, etc. have all written stories for the WEEKLY EXAMINER, and will do so in the future.
The WEEKLY EXAMINER has established an Agricultural Department, in charge of a practical agriculturist, who is the best writer in the United States on agricultural subjects. This department will contain concise, clear, and leading topics of interest to vineyardists, orchardists and farmers generally.
The EXAMINER'S Commercial News is compiled by experienced men who carefully guard the producer's interests in all market reports.
