

WEST SIDE TELEPHONE.

NOTICE.

We have engaged the services of Mr. A. V. R. Snyder to take charge of our local and editorial departments. He needs no introduction to the people of Yamhill.

OUR AGENTS.

Those wishing to subscribe for the TELEPHONE may do so through the following persons:

J. M. Kelly, Lafayette.
G. W. Sappington, North Yamhill.
J. F. Castle, Sheridan.
W. A. Graves, Amity.
R. L. Simpson, Bellevue.
O. G. Davis, Wheatland.
C. S. Williamson, Wheatland.

Agents at other points in the county will be announced soon.

TELEPHONE WHISPERINGS.

A glorious rain.
Wool from 16 to 20 cents.
Give your mite for the fair.
Raspberries, 25 cents per gallon.
Only three days till we celebrate.
The shower makes vegetation fairly hop.

The Sheridan cavalry will be here on the 31.

Mr. Eccleston's house receiving new shingles.

Some thistles in the northern part of town need cutting.

The Sunday school excursion to Yaquina fell through.

Step into the planing mills and see how busy they are.

Charley Carter is now "high boss" on the morning express.

Mr. J. C. Cooper yesterday returned from a trip to Albany.

Currants and raspberries wanted. Apply at the TELEPHONE office.

A majority of the band boys talk of going to Tillamook after the 4th.

Good Royal Ann cherries are selling at 4c per pound at this place.

Mr. T. N. Graves, of Sheridan was in town last evening, and paid the TELEPHONE a call.

Send to the TELEPHONE office for your job printing. Samples and prices given on application.

Thanks to C. Grissen for a copy of the "New South," a bright paper published at Birmingham, Ala.

D. C. Narver and family leave by today's train for the Yaquina, to be gone for an indefinite period.

We will gladly publish church announcements in our Friday editions. Hand them in Thursday.

Here is the way the North Yamhill base ball club knocked out Hillsboro a day or two since: 4 to 2.

The old locomotive that looked as if it had been run through a blackberry patch, has been taken up the track.

A. C. Saylor finished burning his kiln of 200,000 brick last Thursday, and says they will be ready for delivery by July 2 or 3.

The executive board for the county fair will meet next Friday at 2 o'clock at city hall. Let there be a full turn out of the board.

If you want a good gun, fishing tackle, or any machinery repaired, go down to Frank Collard's. He's the boy that can rig you out.

W. R. Boone, at one time connected with the West Side at this place, is now publishing the Oregon Siftings, a bright paper at Portland.

One hundred and four papers for $2—less than 2 cents per copy. Subscribe for the TELEPHONE—the only semi-weekly on the west side.

There will be a special dinner at the Central hotel on the 3d, served for 25 cents. "Brudner Gardner" will please all who will go and see him.

Mrs. A. M. Brown's house, 2½ miles west of Amity, burned down yesterday morning. No one was living in it. It was insured. No particulars.

Hon. M. B. Hendrick, of Wheatland, was in town yesterday. He reports grain in that section is looking well, and thinks it will yield extra heavy.

If you want the best meal for the least money; if you want the best bed in the city; if you want a quiet night's rest when you go to bed, go to the old reliable McMinnville hotel.

The Webfoot picnic Saturday last was well attended and enjoyed hugely by all. The game of base ball between Dayton and the Lone Star boys was won by the former by a score of 21 to 22.

It is astonishing to see the large number of people going to the coast—most of them to Nestucca. Supt. Freund and a large party passed through here from North Yamhill, yesterday, bound for that point.

We acknowledge receipt of complimentary passes over the Oregon Pacific from Corvallis to Yaquina. This company is doing the fair thing by the people, and we think will do a large business in passenger traffic in the near future.

Mr. L. H. Cook has fully determined to build a brick hotel at the corner of Third and E streets; but whether it will be this season or next he is undecided. A fine brick on that corner would be a creditable addition to the city, and we hope it will not be long till Mr. C. has one there.

There was a pleasant party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Shaden, Saturday evening; refreshments consisting of chicken, pie, cake, ice cream, strawberries, etc., were served and the large number present fared sumptuously and had a "way up" time.

Saturday last a new 45-horse power engine was taken up to Jones & Co.'s new mill on the Nestucca and yesterday the old one was brought down and will be allowed to rest for a time. The old engine is 25-horse power, and the 20-horse addition the company will gain by getting this new engine will enable them to cut much more lumber.

Little Nestucca will celebrate the 5th in grand style. See posters.

Messrs. Stowe & Brower have builded themselves a new lumber house on the Andy Baker lots in the western portion of town.

We learn that blackberries are ripening in the Willamette bottom near Wheatland and people are flocking there by the hundreds.

The improvement boom still continues. In south-west McMinnville, near the college, numerous parties have added materially to the looks of their property by building additions to their dwellings, putting up new fences, etc. Rev. Mr. Soper has part of the lumber on the ground for, and is getting ready to erect a neat little residence on his lots. It is plainly to be seen that that portion of the town, at no distant day will be the main residence portion of McMinnville.

Lyle Wright returned from Nestucca last week. He states while there the body of a fisherman was picked up on the beach; short time after his boat drifted ashore and the next day his net came in. The man had but one gum boot on, and that was partly off, looking as if he had attempted to pull his boots off for the purpose of swimming. The unfortunate had probably drifted out over the Columbia bar and met the fate of hundreds that are not accounted for every season. The people of Nestucca gave the body a decent burial as possible on the sand spit that divides the bay and ocean.

THEY GOT THE TEA.—We don't think that all of our people saw that glowing tea advertisement in the Portland papers that represented that a person had but to purchase a can of tea to become wealthy. Diamonds in profusion, gold by the wholesale, silver in endless quantities; all these things could be had by investing $1 in a pound can. Several, however, read the advertisement and took stock. The money was forwarded, the tea came in return; also the diamonds and jewelry. Ten or twelve dollars had been appropriated, and we will venture the assertion that in fifteen minutes after the arrival of the cans, tea jewelry and all could have been bought for 25 cents on the dollar. Out on such deceitful humbuggery and false misrepresentation in advertising.

RETURNED.—Our young friend Tommy Kirby of Bellevue, returned from his eastern trip, Saturday evening. Of course Mrs. Kirby accompanied him. We welcome the young couple and extend to them our congratulations and wishes for a life of happiness and prosperity. And not only do we congratulate the worthy couple, but their many friends in the neighborhood of Tommy's old home—Bellevue—have been making it very pleasant since they arrived. There was a reception given them Saturday evening, and from what was being whispered about here yesterday they were surprised last evening. Such treatment will surely be appreciated both by the bride and groom.

MAJOR DIXON WILLIAMS.—This evangelist is stirring up the people of this place to a considerable extent. There is nothing particularly brilliant about his addresses, but rather sensational, and by this means he rivets the attention of his hearers to his remarks. Large congregations turn out to hear him and his utterances cause much comment and will perhaps be the means of a lively awakening on the subject of christianity in and about here. He is a young man of 27 years and to use his term has "been a brick, and don't you forget it." The Major will be here ten days or two weeks during which time he will hold regular day and evening services at the C. P. Church.

BIBLE SOCIETY.—The McMinnville branch of the American Bible society met at the Christian church, Sunday evening. Rev. P. C. Hetzler, general agent of the society for Oregon and Washington Territory, was present. The following officers were elected: O. B. Whitmore, president; G. J. Burchett, vice-president; Miss Lizzie Handley, secretary; Rogers & Todd, treasurer. A collection was taken up and $5.85 was donated.

LOOK OUT.—Marshal Kaufman is getting mad. He says he has notified people in a gentle manner to remove the moss from their roofs; some have complied, but many have not. Now then, if it is not removed, at once, our worthy official says that somebody will have some costs to pay, as he is determined that the ordinance governing the case shall be enforced. You are warned; now look out.

WIDE AWAKE.—We are pleased to welcome among our exchanges the WEST SIDE TELEPHONE, a new arrival in the journalistic field published at McMinnville. It is a six column folio and is chock full of news. Messrs. Talmage & Turner are the publishers and A. V. R. Snyder is editor.—Corvallis Gazette.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—Mr. E. B. Fellows has bought Mr. D. C. Narver's furniture stock and business, and has commenced operations. While we are sorry to lose Mr. Narver from our business circle we are pleased to welcome Mr. Fellows to the arena and bespeak for him a successful business career.

Attention Sheridan Cavalry.

The members of troop A, 1st regiment cavalry, O. S. M., are hereby notified to assemble at Armory hall, in Sheridan, Or., at 6 o'clock a. m., July 3d, 1886, for the purpose of marching to McMinnville, to join the public parade on the anniversary of our national independence.

E. TILLOTSON, Captain Commanding.

June 26, 1886.

TO THE PUBLIC.

We wish to state for the benefit of the public and in justice to all concerned that Mr. J. C. Cooper, who so ably edited the "Campaign" recently, is in no way connected with the TELEPHONE either editorially, locally, mechanically or otherwise.

TALMAGE & TURNER.

Masonic Celebration.

St. John's Day, June 24th, was observed in appropriate style by the Masonic fraternity of Amity. The day was one accompanied by a soft balmy breeze, with clouds just heavy enough to check the hot sun rays, and consequently everybody in the vicinity of the "city of peace" turned out, while many from other portions of the county and Polk helped to swell the multitude to a thousand or more. At 10 o'clock the brethren came forth from their hall, a hundred or more, formed a line, and headed by Custer Post Band, under the guidance of the Marshal, Gen. Chris. Taylor, marched to the shady grove in the western portion of town, where the following programme was successfully carried out, Mr. F. J. Babcock, of Salem, acting as president:

Music—Amity choir.
Prayer—Dr. Johnson, chaplain.
Music—Bethel choir.
Music—Custer Post band.
Oration—Hon. N. L. Butler delivered one the finest addresses that we have listened to in years, in which he showed himself to be an orator in every sense of the word.

Song—Amity choir.
Music—Bethel choir.
After music by the band came dinner—and such a dinner. On the clean grass, in the shade of the young oaks neighbors spread their white table linen and upon these were placed viands of all kinds, from the substantial to the most delicate, and in abundance. Could anyone help enjoying such a dinner, in such a place and under such circumstances? It was a regular old-fashioned picnic, and old and young, enjoyed the romance of the occasion. We were awful hungry and had just about decided that we would get "more so" when Mr. J. F. Allison and his estimable lady took us into their tender care and "sandwiched" and "pied" and "caked" us until we don't believe shall wish anything more to eat for a month. But poor Prudhomme of the Itemizer! there he sat out under a tree, hungry, but not alone. We really believe from the way he looked that he was engaged. But he did not remain hungry long, for the last we saw of him he was making off with a chicken in one hand and a loaf of bread in the other. Dinner over there was more music, speeches by Drs. Goucher and Johnson and the programme was brought to a close. It is safe to say that there was never a happier gathering in Yamhill or any other county and everybody went home feeling happy.

Mother Goose Lancers.

This will be presented at the Fellows warehouse in the eastern part of the city, July 3d. Following is a list of names and characters of those taking part. The Lancers will open with a Grand Serpentine and Platoon march.

Arthur Burt—Man in the moon.
Lena Baker—Old woman.
Leonard Ireland—Little Boy Blue.
To conclude with the Arbor march.

Card.

To my friends and patrons who have dealt with me in my furniture and undertaking business, I hereby tender my kindest regards for all past favors, and having sold my entire stock to Capt. E. B. Fellows, one of Yamhill county's best and most upright business men, I hope and trust that you will one and all show him that you appreciate good square dealing by patronizing him in his business, and I can freely recommend that you will be honestly dealt with and lowest prices asked you. Again, thanking all for past favors.

I am yours respectfully,
D. C. NARVER.

Card of Thanks.

Ed. TELEPHONE.—Allow us through your columns to return thanks to the kind citizens of Lafayette for their sympathy and the active part they took in assisting to find our nephew Roy Brown; and we would especially return thanks to those who in their endeavors to find the body, risked their lives by diving and other means. Let us assure them that their kindness will never be forgotten.
