

WEST SIDE TELEPHONE.

NOTICE.

We have engaged the services of Mr. A. V. Snyder to take charge of our local and editorial departments. He needs no introduction to the people of Yamhill.

OUR AGENTS.

Those wishing to subscribe for the TELEPHONE may do so through the following persons: J. M. Kelly, Lafayette; G. W. Sappington, North Yamhill; J. F. Castle, Sheridan; W. A. Graves, Amity; R. L. Simpson, Bellevue; G. S. Davis, Wheatland; C. S. Williamson, Wheatland. Agents at other points in the county will be announced soon.

TELEPHONE WHISPERINGS.

Eggs, 16 cents. Wool, 16 to 20 cents. That key is still here. Appricots in the market. Cords of wood coming in. Butter, 35@40 cents per roll. Cloudy and sultry during the day. New potatoes retailing at 2 cents per pound. Clyde Apperson is wrestling with the mumps. Go to Frank Collard's for your fishing tackle. Currants have been selling at 20 cents per gallon. See the notice of stray hogs in another column. The gum-chewing brigade has received reinforcement. Miss Myrtle Apperson is still quite ill, though some better. McMinnville foundry for sale. Enquire of Carl Young. Miss Ida Smith left us for her home at Brownsville, Wednesday. Miss Lillie Kirkwood, of Wheatland, is a guest of Miss Belle Cooper. Profs. Houghton and Payne and their party have returned from the coast. Dr. Calbreath and P. P. Gates, with their families are sojourning at Nestucca. Miss Umphrey, of Monmouth, is visiting in the city, a guest of Miss Mattie Todd. It is astonishing to see the number of binders, new and repaired, leaving town. Ladies, look under "New To-day" and see where you can get your dresses made. The best job printing at the lowest prices at the TELEPHONE offices. Come and see. Mr. J. F. Allison, of Dayton will begin harvesting next Monday, if it doesn't rain, opening out on barley. Several breaks in the sidewalk on Third bet. B and C have been repaired and pedestrians are happy. Mrs. H. P. Stuart will leave this city on Monday next. If you wish anything in her line call early and get a bargain. County fair executive board meets at City hall, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Let there be a full attendance of the board. Messrs. C. W. Talmage and W. V. Price, with their families, and Miss Flora Russ started for Tillamook, Tuesday. The teachers at the Yaquina are having a fine time. The association opened Tuesday with appropriate and interesting exercises. Work on the race track continues with unabated zeal, and by the time set for the fair no better race course will be found in Oregon. Mr. Campbell is fixing up the building formerly occupied by Mr. Tazzart, the tailor, and Fred Hodges, the barber, will soon occupy it. "Single blessedness" does not suit W. H. Bingham. Hence he followed Mrs. B. to Yaquina, yesterday, and will be gone several days. Our townspeople, J. H. Henderson and family and W. J. Loughery intend to start for Little Nestucca to-day, to be gone several weeks. "Don't grumble about the rain. As "Uncle" John Martin puts it: "While I have a little hay down, this rain is making more than I will lose." Charles Grosning's team ran off Wednesday. They had nothing left to them but a neckyoke, and from what we learn did no particular damage. I have two lots in North McMinnville, on Johns' addition, that will sell at $50 a piece. This is a sacrifice, but I am going to do it. Enquire of Carl Young. Mr. David Gelwich, an old and experienced liveryman is now holding forth at Henderson Bros. stable. By the way, a new hack has been added to this stable. L. H. Cook and his daughter Eva, W. E. Martin and wife, Miss May Alexander and J. D. Fenton "pulled out" for Nestucca Wednesday. They go bent on having a good time. A long article arrives from Moscow; but it contains too much of the superfluous to make it interesting. We are glad to get communications; but want them short and to the point. Bish Bailey of Tillamook, came over the fore part of the week, had Dr. Johnson prescribe for him for an affection of the throat and then went on his way rejoicing. The Dr. says he could cure him if he would remain here for awhile. Lee is unfortunate. He prepared to go to the coast at all hazards. Borrowing bedding of Lonis he tied them up and put them in the wagon, and a short time after noticed them smoking and on examination found them badly burned. Lee never smokes, (2) but somehow a lighted cigar was found to have been the cause of the mischief. Then the team ran off and played hob with things. Moral—Hold your horses and never hide a lighted cigar in a bundle of bedding.

County Court in session. Proceedings next Tuesday.

C. B. Wiley, of Sheridan was in to see us a day or two since. Remember that this is the day you pay for street sprinkling.

Billiards have been reduced to 15 cents per game at Welch's.

Wild blackberries 40 cents a gallon. Whew! We can't eat them.

Mr. James Reid of Dayton was in town yesterday and came in to see us.

Mr. F. Barnekoff was in the city and dropped in to see us last evening.

Born—Near Dayton, July 6th, 1886, to the wife of Thos. Cooper, an 8-pound son.

Everybody goes to the Willamette for wild blackberries. Millions of 'em there.

The new engine at the Nestucca mills, Mr. Jones informs us works like a charm.

All who return from the coast, either Tillamook or Nestucca, report pleasant times.

G. V. Snelling and family, Mrs. Snelling and family, Roy Wiles and family and Mrs. Hays left last evening for Nestucca.

Mrs. J. L. Rogers, while watching a game of ball, the other day had her watch and chain broken by an overthrown ball.

Prof. Van Scoy and others are expected to assist at a basket meeting to be held on the Hibbs camp ground by the M. E. church on Saturday and Sunday, 17th and 18th inst.

Supervisor Underwood proposes to have the bridges in his district fixed up in good shape. He has, during the past spring, put a new floor on the Gaunt bridge, besides others we have mentioned.

And here comes our young friend James P. Magruder, right from Baker City, looking as natural and robust as when he left here. He arrived Wednesday evening, and may remain with us.

Several parties of this city attended the celebration at Gervais, on Monday last, and report a most successful time. Though it rained hard all day, here, no rain fell there and it was warm and dusty.

All strangers who see our fair grounds are delighted with them; the shady grove, the water accommodations and the natural lay of the land. Golly, but won't we have a big crowd on them this fall.

Miss Grace Hanna, who taught in our schools two years ago, came down from her Corvallis home Tuesday and stopped off at this place till Wednesday and visited friends. She paid the TELEPHONE office a call.

All who have not paid their subscriptions for celebrating, should see Dr. Tucker and pay him the amount. Funds are short and there will probably be other bills to pay. As you were benefited so should you help the affair out.

Received at C. Grissen's from San Francisco via Yaquina: choice lot fresh uncolored Tea in bulk; twenty-bbls. Sugar; two cases fresh Cheese; one case cigars (to be sold retail at wholesale price, two for a nickel.)

Cleo and Vernie Force come in to tell us that we had their names spelled wrong in our celebration report. We had them "Bernie" and "Gelca," and of course that wasn't right. Thank you, little girls for the correction.

"My dear, isn't this egg-celent ice-cream?" "Eggs-actly, my dear; it is very egg-tradinary how egg-quisite-ly delicious; and it is flavored with lemon eggs-tract." Then they both proceeded to eat out of one dish with two spoons.

Miss Mollie Hill, a teacher in the Portland schools came up Saturday last and remained here until Tuesday, when she went on to Yaquina to attend the teachers' association. While here she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Turner and Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Tucker.

Do you want a sewing machine? If so, go to W. H. Bingham's and look at some that came up Wednesday of the "New Home" pattern. They are finely finished, strong and durable, and you are sure to like them. At Mr. Bingham's you can also get sewing machine needles and extras of all kinds; also machines oils.

Messrs. F. Barnekoff & Co. have thoroughly renovated and overhauled the Fellows' warehouse at McMinnville, recently purchased by them and are now ready to receive grain. They will clean and store at 3 cents, and will be ready to buy and pay the highest price going, IN CASH. Sacks kept on hand and sold to farmers at the lowest rates.

We are continually in receipt of letters from different parts of the county, which warmly commend The TELEPHONE and express a desire on the part of the writers for its success. We hope to make it better as it grows older, and the way to help us do that is to get all the subscribers possible, and send us the names and money, and by so doing make the heart of the printer to rejoice.

Rev. J. R. N. Bell, of the Roseburg Review, will create at McMinnville on the 3d, in honor of the 4th. How a man can run as good a paper as his and never stay at home to attend to it, is a mystery. He must be in league with a No. 1 "devil."—Engene Register. You're mistaken Bro. Hodson; no man in league with an agent of "hell" is capable of delivering as good an oration as Bro. Bell.

All is quiet now; and it was made so without calling out the militia; but it looked mighty blue for a time, Monday evening. At one time clouds of blue smoke and dust was seen to rise in the eastern part of town. The beligerents separated and for three or four hours excitement ran high; but the city recorder finally stepped to the front, read the riot act, and that settled it. Boys, you ought to be ashamed of yourselves; now hadn't you?

COLUMBIAS DEFEATED.—In a game of base ball at North Yamhill, last Saturday, between the North Yamhill club and Columbias, of Portland, the latter were defeated, after a hard struggle, by a score of 3 to 1. It will be remembered that the Columbias are the club which so signally defeated the Owls of this city at Oregon City, about a month ago. The Yamhill club must be daises, if they are from the "kentry."—Statesman. That's just what they are Bro. Statesman.

Reduction of Rates for G. A. R.

The Oregon Pacific railroad and Oregon Development companies have issued a circular giving round trip rates from the principal points in western Oregon to the grand encampment of the G. A. R. to be held at San Francisco, August 2d, 1886:

These rates, which are extremely low, are extended only to members of the G. A. R., their families and members of the Women's Relief corps.

Fare from Corvallis or Yaquina to San Francisco and return, $16.

ACCUSED OF SEVERAL THEFTS.—Tuesday Joe Cogdill was arrested and locked up in the city jail on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, and it has subsequently transpired that he is wanted for graver crimes. One of which he is accused of is stealing a horse from Dayton, Yamhill county, belonging to D. L. Curl, and disposing of the same at Hunter's point. During his visit to Hunter's, report says, Cogdill amused himself by breaking into a house there. Two weeks ago he made off with a horse belonging to Wm. Frazer, of this city, and sold the same at Vancouver. In fact, he is said to have a mania for making off with other people's horses. Cogdill has worked as a steamboat engineer, and has occasionally filled in his odd time playing piano around different dives. He will probably be taken back to Hunter's.—Portland paper.

Best meal in the city for 25 cents, at the McMinnville Hotel.

Reply to Norman Tucker, Esq.

"Shall we know each other there?" "If a man die shall he live again?" This question asked by Job was answered by Christ and Paul for they reasoned that "We shall know as we are known" when we are able to see face to face. The strongest ties known in the universe of God are the ties of affection, and those ties are strengthened in the breasts of the living for those who have crossed the dark river. When we cry in anguish around the gasping form of a loved one, begging piteously for but one more hour of life that we may pour out a whole lifetime of love, we cannot be comforted except with the hope that we may be granted that blessed privilege when we have passed the same portals. You say that it is a common error that we carry our affections into the spirit world. If we cannot meet the loved ones there we will be shorn of its glory and man, poor sorrowing man, of his happiness. "As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive." As holiness and true happiness are inseparably connected, so is perfect holiness and perfect love of all human kind, and a desire for their welfare. This boundless love of God we believe will be meted out to all his children, that when we meet beyond the dark river, we will greet the loving ones with tears of joy and thanksgiving, that we may make amends to all those we have wronged, and forgive face to face those who have wronged us. In the great commingling when the lost enemy is destroyed and the lost wanderer brought home, the glad triumphant "Hallelujah, the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth," will go ringing through the spheres throughout the ages of eternity.

"Or must we feel the ceaseless pain Of absence in that glorious sphere, And search through heaven's bright hosts in vain, The sainted forms we've cherished here?" Will not their hearts demand us there,— Those hearts whose fondest throbs,— To us on earth, whose every prayer Petitioned for our ties in heaven." J. C. COOPER.

A MURDERER ESCAPED.—W. W. Saunders, who was convicted of murder in the first degree at Albany on Saturday night for the killing of Chas. H. Campbell in November 4, 1885, sawed the bars of his cell and escaped. Examination revealed that he had sawed off the rivets which secured the lock and door, and substituted two made of dark wood and lead. James Jamieson, who had been indicated for perjury and illegal voting at the last election, escaped with Saunders. Saunders was to have been sentenced to death Wednesday. D. S. Smith, sheriff of Linn county, has offered $1,000 reward for the capture of Saunders. Following is a description of the escaped murderer: Six feet high, very slender, is delicate in health and pale from confinement; smooth very dark hair, weighs about one hundred and thirty pounds, thirty years old and slightly neck-marked, thin, prominent nose, sharp features, small, dark deep-set eyes, with habit of blinking frequently, has sallow complexion, nervous temperament and has morphia habit. Finger on one hand slightly injured at end, and claims to have been shot through chest or body. Spits blood sometimes.

RUNAWAY.—Wednesday evening Rev. A. J. Hunsaker's team felt like taking a little spin, and they took it. A party was preparing to go the coast and Wayland took the team and he and Lee Collard went to get some bacon, over near the college. The reins were dropped and away went the team, with a bran splinter new Studebaker wagon. In their rout they struck a wagon of Mr. W. Milsap's, turned it bottom up and broke the reach. They did not run far, and stopped of their own accord; but before coming to a standstill one wheel of the wagon was completely demolished. This was rather unfortunate, as the wagon had just been taken off the cars and hitched to. Wayland, my son, you will have to keep a close watch of your spirited steeds.

BURGLARY.—It seems that McMinnville must "stand in" and furnish the light-fingered with a share of plunder. Wednesday night the residence of F. W. Redmond was gone through. The family sleep up stairs. During the night entrance was made by some one through the window and into the dining room. A bureau was ransacked, but nothing was taken therefrom, as the "tappers" overlooked a sack of old coins that was in one of the drawers. Mr. R. had left a coat with a bunch of keys in the pocket, down stairs. This was taken; and a gold pen is missed. Mrs. R.'s cloak was carried out, but hung on a fence across the street. These articles are all that have been missed, so far. Frank says he wishes they would bring back his keys.

Webfoot Notes.

July 3, 1886. Fall grain is looking well and we are preparing for harvest.

The weather at present is not very favorable for hay-making.

Potatoes and late sown oats are in need of rain.

The family of H. Peery has gone to the coast to remain a few weeks.

E. Sees is putting finishing touches to his house in the way of rustic and porches.

M. Miller is finishing a new barn 30x40 feet in size.

The Evangelical Sunday school, at Pleasantdale is well attended and quite interesting. Children's service was held last Sunday to a crowded house.

The wife of Theodore Hearn is somewhat improved since her return from California.

Sheridan.

June 7, 1886. W. A. Gardiner, of Dallas, made us a pleasant call. Billy looks hale and hearty.

Wm. Chapman has just returned from Oregon City. Uncle Billy has been astride the cape over at Nestucca and thinks it "just the fit." Hence the trip to the land office.

The pile driver has been at work here on the Narrow Gauge, driving piles for culverts and small bridges.

Ed Tillotson fired up his brick kiln on Tuesday.

Harvest has commenced. Our patent office red chaff winter wheat is ready to cut, being two weeks earlier than the imperial white.

J. M. Chapman is receiving lumber for his addition to his furniture store. Increased trade demands more room.

Many horses in this vicinity are afflicted with distemper. Farmers should be very careful where they hitch their animals, as they may by accident hitch where an afflicted animal has been standing, and their horse become infected by the same disease. Horse labor will be in good demand in a short time. An ounce of preventative is worth a pound of cure just now.

Our mail west now goes by mule teams. It looks a little "democratic."

Capt. Lafollet has gone to the Soda Springs. We hope to hear of his recovery and return home soon.

A Voice From Ill.

Oregon Ill., June 29, 1886.

ED. TELEPHONE:—I received a copy of your commendable paper a day or two since and I must admit that I like its general make-up first rate. It is decidedly a credit to Yamhill county. It contained an item that I arrived safely at this place, &c. Yes, I left Dallas, Or., a town of the glorious west, on the 11th of May, and, owing to a lack of time was compelled to pass through your town without stopping to bid you and my friends in old Yamhill adieu. I came by the N. P. route, and can say to all who contemplate making a trip across the continent, that their taste for the beautiful and picturesque will be amply gratified if they travel by the N. P. R. Especially, is the scenery along the Columbia river, grand; I will venture the assertion that there is no spot in the whole range of Cascade mountains that combines more of the requisites for a perfect landscape than this romantic stream and its shores.

Had I the time, I should like to contribute to your columns a sketch of my entire journey, but, as nearly every journal we turn over now-a-days has an extended article on some person's travels from west to east, or visa versa, perhaps it would not prove interesting reading.

But the TELEPHONE! Success to the WEST SIDE TELEPHONE! May her career be unintermitted—her circulation wide—and may her enterprising managers make her boom! boom! boom!!!

Respd., C. E. COXNER.

FINGER OFF.—Yesterday morning Ephy Ford went out to Mr. J. E. Derby's farm to start a binder. While removing some dirt from a boxing, the horses backed the machine, catching the index finger of the right hand and mashing it to a jelly. He came to town and Dr. Goucher, assisted by Dr. Young, amputated the injured member just above the first joint. It is pretty hard to lose a finger, but as Ephy says: "Better one finger than a whole hand."
