McMINNVILLE, TUESDAY, AUGUST 31, 1886.

THE COUNTY FAIR—OUR LAST SAY.

Before another week will have rolled around the third annual fair for Yamhill county will have begun and in our issue of one week from to-day we will be able to prophesy whether or not it is a success. We believe the people of this town have done the largest part of their duty in contributing so generously of their means to defray the expenses of the fair; and we believe that, not only the citizens of the town but of the county at large will lend their presence during the three days, so that at the end we may be able to say that Yamhill still leads the van in the matter of home enterprises.

It is not intended that this will be any stupendous exhibition; it is for Yamhill county, gotten up by her own citizens for the purpose of drawing together the productions of the county for comparison and mutual benefit among neighbors. Much has been said in print and in public regarding racing, but it must not be inferred from that that racing is the principal part of the programme. On the contrary everybody who takes enough interest to bring an article for exhibition will have a hearing and receive due recognition by the management. Some people are proud to exhibit a good draught horse; others take pride in a good foalster, while others take the same pride in speeding over the race course. Just so in cattle; some put them forward for milkers, others for their size and other fine points. The same may be said of sheep, hogs, poultry, etc. And it must not be thought that articles exhibited by the ladies will be overlooked, for the management have decided and will see to it that cash premiums will be awarded in that department.

These are our last words regarding the fair until it will have begun. We have spoken of it quite often during the past two months; but in doing so we have uttered nothing but what we believe we were justified in saying. There are some few things connected with the grounds that are not entirely satisfactory to everybody; it is impossible to make it so. But we can assure the people of Yamhill county that the management have worked assiduously for one end and that is to make this exhibition for the county a success; and with the assistance of the people we have no fears of the result.

STATE FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT.

The following is a list of the contests and prizes to be competed for at the State Firemen's Tournament, which will be held at Salem, commencing September 8, 1886, and continuing three days. The purses offered are certainly liberal, and will, no doubt, excite a lively competition among the volunteer firemen of Oregon and Washington Territory:

1. Steamer contest—Running test.—Steam engine to run (300) three hundred feet, with not to exceed forty-five men on the rope; hose companies to run nine hundred feet, with three hundred feet of hose on reel. Hose to be in one continuous line, all couplings made; attach hose to engine, lay one hundred feet of hose, break coupling, put on play pipe and throw water; pipe to be screwed on, and if blown off no time to be given. Time to be called when water passes through the nozzle. First prize, $150; second prize, $50.

2. Hook and Ladder contest.—Hook and ladder teams of not more than thirty men, shall run six hundred feet, put up a thirty-foot ladder within ten degrees of perpendicular in the street, and have a man ascend to the top in any manner that he may select. Time to be called when he grasps the top rung, which must be held until time is called. First prize, $100; second prize, $25.

3. Three hundred yards foot-race.—Open to any firemen belonging to the association, professionals only being barred out. Prize $50.

4. Tender race.—Twelve boys to run 200 yards and carry in their carts 200 pounds of coal. First prize, $35; second prize, $15.

5. State Association Champion Hose Race.—Open to all; wet run; distance, two hundred yards to hydrant; lay 350 feet of hose, disconnect the last or seventh section, and connect the section removed to the sixth section; attach pipe and throw water. Time to be called when water leaves the pipe. All couplings after the start to be made to the full. Hose and couplings to be regulated four-ply rubber hose, two and a half inches in diameter, with couplings of eight threads to the inch. Any service cart or carriage may be used that is capable of holding four hundred feet of regular fire hose, and service pipe to be not less than ten inches in length. Hose and pipe supplied by the committee on the grounds. Number of men not to exceed fifteen, exclusive of captain or trainer, and all must be on the rope or reel from the start. First prize, $250; second prize, $100.

Hose contest—Wet test.—Hose company of twelve men to run 200 yards to hydrant, attach, and lay 300 feet of hose, uncouple and screw on pipe. Time to be called when water leaves the pipe.—Carts to carry not less than 350 feet of hose.

Special prize of $100 offered by W. F.

Brown, of Portland, Oregon, agent for the Gutta Percha and Rubber Manufacturing company.

7. One hundred and fifty yards foot race—Open to all firemen belonging to the state association, professionals excepted, and winner of the 300 yard race barred out. Prize, $50.

8. Make and break couplings—Hose companies, any team, to "make" and "break" five couplings in the "line" hose. Prize, $25.

9. Hose race—Dry test.—Hose company of twelve men to run 200 yards to hydrant, attach and lay 300 feet of hose; all couplings made, pipe to be screwed on. Hose to be reeled on cart or carriage in one continuous line, all couplings to be made to the full. Time to be called when pipe has been screwed on and strikes the ground. First prize, $100; second prize, $50.

At least two companies must compete for any prize, and three or more must compete to secure second prize in contests 1, 2, 4, 5 and 9. No harness allowed to assist runners in any contest.

Newspapers in Oregon and Washington territory published where fire companies are organized will please publish the above for the information of their local firemen. For further information address the secretary of the association, Frank E. Hodgkin, Salem, Oregon.

The "Plumed Knight" appears to be receiving more attention to-day from anti-Blaine organs, than when he was a candidate for the presidency. But every true American must accord him due praise for his broad American ideas. Whatever may be said against the great statesman does not alter the opinions of his friends regarding his ability, and there is still a warm place in their hearts for the champion of republican principles.

People to-day are clamoring for more stringent laws on several different points. We have enough laws, as a general thing, already. What we need is a due observance and enforcement of the laws now on our statute books.

J. L. Hallett raised wheat on his farm near Dille, Washington county, that yielded 85 bushels per acre. The land was "beaver dam" and there was twenty-two acres of it.

General John A. Logan is a great man and is being boomed for the presidency in '88. Logan is a "hunky boy;" but the question arises "can he carry New York?"

Mr. August Detmering, brother of our merchant, G. E., came up from Portland last Friday and has been paying his brother a visit. He was accompanied by Alfred Morris, who returned Saturday.
