Prof. T. H. Parrott, his son John and brother John, of East Portland, passed through here yesterday on their way to Little Nestucca.
Farmers having wool to sell will do well to consult Blackburn & Peckham before selling as they pay the highest prices in the county.
One hundred head of sheep and Angora goats for sale. Address: ERNEST E. WERNER, Dolph, Tillamook Co., Or.
Miss Belle Cleveland, sister of Mrs. A. L. Talmage, arrived from Knoxville, Ill., Tuesday and will visit her sister for a week or so, when she will go to Tacoma to attend school.

A BIG RUNAWAY.—Sanford Goodrich's four horse team took a lively spin yesterday a. m. When in front of Logan & Henderson's upper stables, one of the leaders got a foot over the trace, let in to kicking and running and the whole team followed. Sanford hung onto the ribbons manfully, but could not hold them. They ran east to the railroad track, where the wheelers both fell and were stopped; the leaders became detached and ran on to this end of the Yamhill bridge, where they too, piled up. But little damage was done—the horses were scratched up slightly and a few minor breakages about the wagon. It was the biggest runaway of the season.
SNEAKS.—Several times of late some party has been sneaking about the premises of the distilleryman, F. Klouchek. The last visit he made was about midnight, last Sunday night. He had piled up several boxes at one of the windows for the purpose of effecting an entrance, when Mrs. K. was awakened. She informed her husband who arose, and the would-be burglar hearing him, beat a hasty retreat. Mr. Klouchek fired six shots at the fellow from a revolver, but he thinks none took effect. He says he shoots to kill; so, whoever the pilferer is he had better look out.
JUSTLY INDIGNANT.—There was a mad set of farmers about here last Wednesday. Cause—they started to the warehouse with large loads of wheat and when they reached Cozine creek bridge they found it torn up and hence were compelled to turn back two or three miles in order to reach town. It looks to us as if the supervisor would have thought far enough ahead to have given notice that this bridge would be torn up, at least at this particular season of the year. All he would have had to do was to breath it aloud and the public would have known it.
FINE STOCK FOR THE FAIR.—On Tuesday last Mr. George Gamme, overseer of the Broadmead farm was in the city, and paid us a visit. He has made arrangements to be present at the county fair with some fine stock from Broadmead, among which we may mention three imported Cleveland Bays, two mares and a stallion; six thoroughbred Clydesdales; several head of short horn cattle. This stock is some of the best in the country and it is quite gratifying to know that it will be brought here for exhibition.
RUNAWAY.—A team of horses belonging to Mr. J. W. Rogers took a lively spin on their own account Wednesday morning. Mr. John Farrar was driving them and went to the warehouse with a load of oats, from which point they started. They ran to H. C. Edward's where the wagon came in contact with the fence and was badly wrecked. Before being stopped both horses were pretty badly skinned up about the legs.
McMINNVILLE BUSINESS COLLEGE.—In our columns to-day will be found the advertisement of above school. This is one of our worthy institutions. Both of the gentlemen whose names appear as instructors are proficient as accountants and teachers of the fine art, and as they have the most comfortable quarters in the city they will undoubtedly have a rousing school the coming winter. They should have at least.
HOME FROM YUQUINA.—Monday evening's train brought from Yaquina Hon. W. D. Fenton and family. Mr. Fenton's health has been greatly benefited by a few weeks' roughing it, and he returns looking much more rugged than when he left for the coast. His family are all feeling well. Tuesday they began house-keeping in the Storey house on B street, and we are glad to welcome them as permanent citizens.
GOT LEFT.—Tuesday evening Mr. I. C. Lawrence came down from McMinnville, on his way to Portland to get some "ictas" to use in the construction of the building he is working on. He stopped over night at home, intending to go down on the morning train; but the pesky thing went off and left him; hence he was detained a day at this place.
LOST HIS WATCH.—John Glandon had the misfortune to lose his watch, Wednesday. He had come from Sheridan, stepped into a saloon and while talking with several parties his watch and chain were taken from him, and was gone about an hour before he missed it. The watch is a gold one and is quite a loss.
FIRST GRADE.—Carl Young was examined before the state board of education several days since, and the fore part of the week received from the board a first grade certificate, which allows him to teach in any county in the state for two years. This is quite a high recommend for Mr. Young, and we must congratulate him.
GOT HOME.—W. T. Booth and family and Ephy Ford got home from Little Nestucca Wednesday evening, having spent two weeks on the coast—most of the time at the month of Slab Creek. Billy says he feels splendid and wouldn't have missed the trip for an interest in the "bear-wallow" mines.
NATIVES.—Last Tuesday six wagon loads of "big Injuns," squaws and papooses, passed through town on their way down the country. They stopped in our streets several hours and gave our young Americans a chance for a "picnic," watching the maneuvers of the dusky maidens and little Lo's.
NEW SIDEWALK.—A new six-foot walk has been built the entire length of the block from Grande store east to the residence of A. Dielschneider, on Fourth street, which adds materially not only to the looks of the street but to the comfort of pedestrians who travel that way.
MISSED CONNECTION.—Dr. Mcintosh did not address our people as was intended, last evening. He got here Wednesday evening and passing business called him away Thursday morning.

M. E. Conference Notes.

A correspondent from Forest Grove to a Portland paper, under date of August 30th, writes:
Willamette university now has endowment funds to the amount of $10,000. Three families from a distance attending the conference have been camping out.
Street preaching on Sunday evening was conducted by Messrs. Sails and Jones.
The benevolent collections of the church during the past conference year amount to $2869.
Rev. J. T. Wolfe is now serving his thirteenth year as secretary of the Oregon conference.
A large number of members of other conferences have been visiting here the past week.
On Sunday morning three persons were ordained deacons and in the afternoon three others were ordained elders.
Wm. Roberts and N. Doane are the oldest members of the Oregon conference having been admitted in 1853.
Rev. M. C. Wire, of Salem, filled the pulpit of the Congregational church on Sunday morning and Dr. H. K. Hines in the evening.
Rev. Matthews, of the West St. Paul, M. E. church made a splendid speech Friday evening on the subject of higher education.
One thousand and twenty-nine persons have been taken into the church during the past year, making the total membership five thousand seven hundred and fifty-four.
Just before the conference adjourned yesterday, a resolution was offered and carried to the effect that the conference of bishops be asked to get the time of holding the Oregon conference to some time in the early part of September.
The congregation at the M. E. church last Sunday was the largest known to the church here. Over fifty teams from the country were hitched in the grove adjoining. The bishop was listened to by more than a hundred from outside the church.
One of the candidates for deacon's orders was a Chinaman named "Chang" who will labor among his people at Seattle. He made a most interesting talk at love-feast Sunday morning touching his conversation, always referring to himself as "this lad."

A FINE BIRD.—T. S. Patty has just returned from Southern Oregon. While gone he purchased a stuffed grouse from G. J. Langingburg, a taxidermist of Roseburg, which is now on exhibition at Rogers & Todd's drug store. The bird looks as natural as life; being just ready to fly, and it is worth your time to stop and look at it. Mr. Patty will take this specimen east with him; and not only this but other varieties of birds that he intends to collect.
A PERFECT SELF-REVOLVING CHURN DASHER.—This is the name of one of the most complete contrivances we have seen that is on exhibition at the St. Charles by Mr. H. D. Montgomery. With it you can do a large churning in six minutes; is highly recommended by large dairymen and from the looks of it will do all that is claimed for it. Go and see this dasher. County and township rites for sale.
FRIDAY EVENING SERVICE.—Beginning this evening, there will be a regular Friday evening service held at St. James' (Episcopal) church. Services begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Our Neighbors.

North Yamhill.
September 2, 1886.
Farmers are about all done harvesting in this section.
George Cunningham has moved into J. Delap's house.
F. Archibald and family spent Sunday up at the mineral springs. He reports everything lively up there.
L. Perkins, son-in-law of J. L. Castle, went to Salem yesterday, to see the circus. He took a lady with him.
J. L. Castle went to Portland yesterday. He says liver is getting scarce here, so he went below to lay in a supply.
Jerry Williams has sold his ranch to a Mr. Grace. So the prophet is happy, now. I think he will send east for his girl, soon.
Poor old R. Shuck has lost his wife.—She started east to-day to visit her folks. So Rube, you will have to make the best of it till she comes back.
Lee Laughlin and wife, J. D. Edwards, John Dempsey, and Mont Stewart have all returned from their trip to the coast. They report having a way-up time. They say "Sack Eye" killed a dead deer; he shot it through the head; one other man of their party reports killing three deer at one shot—but we do not believe it.)
SUNFLOWER.
Woodville.
August 30, 1886.
There are quite a number of campers on the beach.
It is quite foggy here forenoons, but the weather is pleasant.
Mr. A. Phelps has gone to Portland to lay in his fall stock of goods.
James McPhillips passed through here to-day for a short visit on the beach.
We learn that Rev. Hunsaker preached at the Knifong school house yesterday.
We learn that there is a stray printer over here but we have not seen him as yet or we would start him—if he is not too big for us to tackle.
Our town has been surveyed and lots are as cheap here as they are in Portland. And there is more sand here than there, and it goes with the lot.
Rev. Mr. Sellwood preached a splendid sermon here yesterday to a large congregation of visitors and natives.—There was quite a crowd of natives over from Little Nestucca.
Messrs. Unruh & Buckley have packed about one hundred barrels of salmon, up to date. They understand how to take care of silver sides and chinooks, and warrant all the salmon that they pack.
AUNT SUSAN.
Amity.
September 1, 1886.
Everybody hauling wheat.
The warehouse at this place is doing a good business with Uncle Bob at the wheel.
A young runaway in town Monday—Frank Harpole's team taking a little spin; no damage done.
Mr. Gortner, formerly of your place, can now be seen at Landefeld's store, with his usual pleasant manners.
Most of the farmers of this section are insuring their wheat. That is business. Don't be burned out by one little blaze, and a year's work gone.
Mr. Simpson, our druggist, is ill from the effects of a whole lot of watermelon but will soon be around for Dr. Smith knows just how to handle such cases.
Major Brown's new house is nearing completion and rumor has it that Brown's carriage factory will soon have a junior partner. How is it, W. R., anything in it?
Get your books ready for next Monday week, when school begins with Prof. Longacre teacher. Mr. Longacre comes highly recommended and it is thought he will have a good school.
Mr. Grant Smith took his departure yesterday for Ann Arbor, Mich., where he intends to take a three years course of medical lectures. Mr. Smith has the best wishes of his many friends in this community.
Melon stealing seems to be all the rage. We hear several of the melon raisers of this section complaining of recent raids. Go it, boys! There are several shot-pickers in town—and just think of the fun there is in it.
ALBY.
About Those Apples.
W. Houck says I am "no good!" and advises people to not bring me fruit. If Jew Houck had brought me a BUSHEL of apples instead of three PECKS of apples I would have paid him the same as other people. But because I would not be imposed upon by him, I am a bad man. I have dealt with people here for three years, and had no man treat me so mean before. There were five men at my premises when this man Houck was there and they all said I did just right in not taking his fruit. Now Jew Houck I have been in the habit of getting along peaceably with everybody, and I do not want any such man as you to come about my premises.
