TELEPHONE WHISPERINGS.

Warm and dusty. Helyer's wood saw buzzeth. Come and get your baby's shoe. The new brick begins to loom up. Wheat remains at the same notch. Fair passed; business settled down. The rush of wheat has quieted down. R. R. Roper has been in town a day or two.

Fresh roasted peanuts at H. H. Welch's. For a square meal go to the St. Charles—only 25 cents.

Johnny Clark comes back from Zena to attend college.

Cholera morbus is what causes considerable complaint. Best meal in the city for 25 cents, at the McMinnville Hotel.

Services at the Episcopal church this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Go down and tell George Cornet you want to see that $12 picture.

Plenty of nice, ripe Gravenstein apples for sale at Mrs. Talmage's.

Billiards, 15 cents per game, until further notice, at H. H. Welch's.

Where's the sassiest drinker? They are getting dryer than local opinion.

Supt. Freund has a neat sign painted on his office windows. Wiles did it.

Sunday School at St. James' (Episcopal) church next Sunday at 9:30 a. m.

Yamhill has about the best horseman in Oregon, and that man is John Dudley.

Jeff D. Fenton and W. E. Martin have gone to Salem to attend the tournament.

Take your wheat to the old Newby mill, Happy valley, and get some good flour.

Why not pile several thousand feet of lumber on the bridges and leave it there?

Mr. N. J. Rowland's health is improving and he will be able to be out in a few days.

Those who attended the dance Tuesday night had a good time. Twenty-nine numbers were sold.

George Cornet is the efficient and gentlemanly artist in Welch's Tonsorial Parlors, after August 6.

Mr. B. E. Sanders' case is becoming quite critical and fears are entertained that he cannot recover.

Think of the pleasant rides people will take! Manning & Co. have sold 12 buggies since Saturday last.

I. P. Deshon of Portland, has been here several days in the interest of the Giant Powder fire extinguisher.

Blackburn & Peckham have just received and are unpacking a fine line of summer dress goods, hosiery, etc.

Clabe says if Dick Phillips had run his horse a little, he wouldn't have been distanced. "If it ain't a fact," etc.

Those having fruits of all kinds can find ready sale by applying to F. Klouchek.

SAFEST IS THE SUREST AND CHEAPEST.—That means call upon the county surveyor when you want LEGAL surveys made.

Found—a high-crowned hat, supposed to belong to the chairman of the managing committee of the fair. Cigars taken it.

Farmers having wool to sell will do well to consult Blackburn & Peckham before selling as they pay the highest prices in the county.

C. W. Talmage, the insurance man brings us a neat photograph of Union commanders, compliments of the Travelers Insurance company.

THE FAIR.

The third annual fair for Yamhill county is a thing of the past and we believe we can truthfully say, has proven a success. The display was not as large as was wished, but this was no fault of the management;—it was simply because people did not bring in articles for exhibition. At the pavilion the following number of entries were made:

- Art. division—14.
- Fancy needle work—26.
- Crochet work—6.
- Knitting department—5.
- Household department—25.
- Garden—16.
- Works of Antiquity—8.
- Indian relics—1.
- Pen Work—2.
- Floral department—4.

Among these we find many articles of merit and worthy of an extended mention, which we have not the space to make at this time. Manning & Co. and Ed Fellows occupied the new addition to the pavilion, exhibiting musical instruments, stoves, a fine bed-room set and other furniture making a neat display; Miss F. E. Russ' display of millinery goods and flowers was extensive and neat; Mr. Terry's display of work in steel was admired by all; the various exhibits of flowers, needle-work etc., by various ladies were closely inspected and highly spoken of by the many who viewed them. Some splendid fruit, vegetables and cereals were on exhibition. Johnson & Force's wagons, hacks and buggies were highly spoken of—in fact everything that was on the grounds was of the best and showed what Yamhill is capable of producing. At the stock pens we find:

CATTLE.
In addition to those mentioned in Tuesday's issue we find a Short Horn and Durham bull entered by Harry Jones, which we believe, was awarded first premium.

G. Springer enters four neat little Jerseys, one bull, 2 cows and a calf, that are much admired.

Jos. Watt has three head of Durhams—bull, cow and calf that were good looking animals.

Taking these in connection with those we mentioned Tuesday and we have a very good showing in the cattle line.

HORSES.
A fair number of horses are present, conspicuous among which we find four head of Clydesdales from Broadmead, brought down by Mr. Gamme. The lot consists of three mares and one stallion, and they are all fine look specimens of horse-flesh.

James Fletcher has an English Draft and Cleveland Bay stallion that commands considerable attention.

Dr. H. R. Littlefield's two yearling Altamont colts that are beauties.

Mr. Harbaugh presents a 2-year-old Hambleton filly, that shows plainly of that fine stock.

G. M. Patty's half-clyde 2-year-old stallion by King William, is a fine fellow and a worthy specimen of that noble draft stock.

G. Springer presents a two-year-old, a yearling and a suckling colt of the King William stock that will compare favorably with the horse flesh from any section.

B. F. Kaufman exhibits a yearling Morgan and English draft that is indeed a good colt.

All the horses on exhibition were good ones—stock that Yamhill may well feel proud of.

OTHER STOCK.
Those sheep, presented by C. K. Harbaugh were "Shropshiredowns" instead of "Southdowns," as we stated in Tuesday's issue. They were fine looking sheep, and Mr. H. added a ewe to the pen Monday evening.

Galloway's jack, "Noisy Billy" occupied a corner by himself, looking as sober as a judge and as wise as a Solomon. He is a fine animal.

THE RACES—TUESDAY.
Tuesday's races were the most interesting of the season. The first was a 3/4 mile dash between W. A. Howe's sorrel mare, Empress; Geo. Perkins' bay mare, Minnie D and Tom Nelson's bay gelding, Bunion. Minnie D won first money and Empress second. Time—first heat, 53 seconds; second heat, 54 seconds.

Trotting—two in three, between Hallet's Goodshot, Porter's Dan Holton and Littlefield's Cadet. First money was won by Dan Holton, second by Goodshot. Time—first heat, 3:04 1/2; second heat, 3:02; third heat, 3:03.

WEDNESDAY.
The first race was the 3/4 of a mile handicap between Perkins' bay mare, Minnie D, Purcell's gray mare, Flavella and Whitmore's grey gelding, Adam. This was the big race of the fair. In the pool box Adam was the favorite by large odds, Minnie D was next while it was difficult to sell Flavella for 50 cents in a $10 pool. But the crowd was fooled, as the grey mare came a neck ahead of Adam with the bay mare behind. Flavella carried Tom Williams, 81 1/2 pounds, Minnie D, W. B. Dudley 90 1/2 pounds and Adam, Tom Metcalf, 113 pounds.

In the trotting race for Yamhill county 2-year-olds, three starts were made. L. H. Baker's b. m., Katie Lee, Geo. Bryan's s. g. Turpin and Dr. Young's s. g. Kittleman. Turpin won the first heat in 3:28, Katie Lee second. Katie Lee won the second heat, time, 3:30. In the third heat Turpin came in about two feet ahead, in 3:27; but the heat and race was given to Katie Lee because the judge, Mr. Taylor, alleged that Turpin's jockey willfully ran his horse. Both horses ran, and public opinion was largely in favor of Turpin. But of course the judge's opinion prevailed.

The last was a 3/4 mile dash between Perkins' Mollie Flippen, Malone's Yamhill Dude, McCain's Buckskin and Nelson's Bunion. Flippen took first money; Dude second, Buckskin third, and Bunion behind. Time, 1:24.

NOTES.
One little knock-down Wednesday
