TELEPHONE WHISPERINGS.

To-night.
Choral union.
Put up your stoves.
Circuit court Monday.
River lower than for years.
Correspondents: Please wake up.
Wheat dropped two cents yesterday.
A little more rain needed for plowing.
Wes Wallace is at Monmouth at work.
Billy Spears, the painter, is at Grant's Pass.
TELEPHONE three months for 50 cents.
Try it.
Fresh roasted peanuts at H. H. Welch's.
For a square meal go to the St. Charles—only 25 cents.
Public examination of teachers at Lafayette tomorrow.
Hon. Wm. Savage of Polk county, was in the city yesterday.
Best meal in the city for 25 cents, at the McMinnville Hotel.
Fire and more "kiver" feels very comfortable these nights.
Many a straw pile has gone up in smoke the past two days.
Our sick people, so far as we are able to learn, are on the mend.
Mr. E. X. Harding's family returned from the east Tuesday evening.
Billiards, 15 cents per game, until further notice, at H. H. Welch's.
R. Jacobson & Co. of Sheridan, are selling off their large stock of goods at cost.
Rev. J. Hoberg will hold services at Obye's school house at 11 a. m. Sunday next.
Our young friend Link Gortner has gone to Portland to work for Haseltine & Co.
Messrs. Ed Biddleman and Orin Skinner return home, both looking and feeling well.
A little damp for the Newberg fair. Several talk of going down from this place, to-day.
The new pumps that are being put in will cost the city less than did the old wooden ones.
We see by the Rogue River Courier that Alex Watt is opening a mine on Josephine creek.
George Cornet is the efficient and gentlemanly artist in Welch's Tonsorial Parlors, after August 6.
Wheat appears to be a little on the decline. Still 67½ cents was paid at this place yesterday.
We are under obligations to County Clerk Birdwell and his deputy, John Thompson, for favors.
James Flett is down from the Nestucca mills and reports everything booming in the mountains.
Old school books re-bound and made as good as new for one-half price of new ones by J. C. Cooper.
It hasn't been decided yet who will get the gun at Collard's. Some close shooting has been done.
The wind blew a gale and it rained like fury, Wednesday night. But still it is too dry to start the plow.
Blackburn & Peckham have just received and are unpacking a fine line of summer dress goods, hosiery &c.
Rev. J. E. Connor will hold divine service at Carlton next Sunday at 11 a. m., and at Hutchcroft's school house at 3 p. m.
It is true, as we guessed, Corker, of Lafayette, is going to quit business, and that is the reason he is offering his goods at cost.
C. W. Talmage, the real estate and insurance man, has been re-arranging his office, and has it fixed up as cozy as you please.
Vinegar, 25 cents per gallon, in large or small quantities; sweet cider, 15 cents per gallon, at the cider mill of Jno. J. Sax.
Rev. John C. Fair will be absent from the city Sunday evening; hence there will be no evening services at the Episcopal church.
We hear that Corker, of Lafayette, is offering his goods at cost for cash, which means that he is going out of business in that burg.
Farmers having wool to sell will do well to consult Blackburn & Peckham before selling as they pay the highest prices in the county.

The Bellevue church will be dedicated Sunday next. This is one of the newest little structures in the county, and speaks well for the good people of Bellevue.

We think we saw some fine plows, harrows and other farmers' trinkets too numerous to mention, at Corker's, Lafayette, that might be bought very cheap for cash.

Tuesday we warned people against eating melons. We now take it back. You can eat them with safety until Baxter & Martin have disposed of those they have on hand.

Blackburn & Peckham, the agents of Chas. H. Dodd & Co., are doing the boss machine business of the county, and some 25 twin binders and two steam threshers.

Band of Hope day has been changed from Friday to Saturday, to allow the little folks who are going to school to attend. Hence the meeting will be tomorrow at 2 p. m.

Mr. Fred K. Heider, of Sheridan, is putting in a fine stock of boots and shoes. He dropped in to see us yesterday while on his way home from Portland. Look out for his posters.

Since the rains began Tuesday evening, our people all feel better and have got on a brighter look. If you want to see an Oregonian smile just dampen his "wells" and you strike him in a tender spot.

Hon. W. J. McConnell, was in the city Tuesday. A horse fell with him in the upper country several days since and bruised him up severely. He intends to move his family to Moscow at an early date.

Those two "brass-horn" Nimrods who, with their families went out for a couple of days' rustication, Tuesday, returned home Wednesday. They didn't get much game, but one of the most complete duckings imaginable.

Hon. Wm. Galloway Wednesday sold his jack "Noisy Billy" to Mr. N. K. Stitt, of Carlton. Several offers were made for him by Polk county men, but Mr. G. was determined that the noble animal should remain in Yamhill.

A full line of furniture of all kinds, bird cages, wall papers, baby carriages, carpets, matings pictures, etc., etc. Also, New Home Sewing Machines and machine repairs at W. H. Bingham's, and at prices that defy competition.

Billiards at the "Orphan's Home" 15 cents per game of 34 points; 25 cents for 50 points, and 25 cents for 50 points when one player discounts the other.

Again the Portland Telegram makes a thrust at Yamhill by getting off a wisewashy yarn about a young couple who walked into town from the rural districts of Multnomah and then applying it to Yamhill. Jealousy goes a good way in this age.

Only a few harvesters standing out in the fields around through the country just let them winter there; it'll give machine men a chance to sell you another harvester next season. They don't cost much you know—$350 or thereabouts is easily made. With wheat at 60 cents a bushel how many bushels will it take to pay for a $350 machine?

THOMAS PETTIGREW DEAD.—The death of Mr. Thomas Pettigrew occurred at the residence of Mr. C. D. Johnson, this city, about 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. Deceased had been ailing for some time past, and seeing that he was fast failing he abandoned his lonely home and went to Mr. Johnson's where his every want was supplied by willing hands until he closed his eyes in death. He was a prominent member of Union Lodge, F. and A. M., and was buried by that fraternity at 10 o'clock Wednesday. Mr. Pettigrew has made McMinnville his home for many years; at one time carried on a general merchandising business, but left that and has since lived a quiet and retired life. He was rather eccentric in some ways, but for all that was a truly good man. Was an old school Presbyterian and he believed lived the life of a Christian. He had no relatives on this coast. Having several thousand dollars he made a will bequeathing it to relatives and those who had befriended him in his latter days. Mr. Pettigrew was about 70 years of age.

HOW TO BUILD A HOUSE.—We have just received from the publisher a neat, new book, with the above title, containing plans and specifications for twenty-five houses of all sizes, from two rooms up; also, engravings showing the appearance of houses built from the plans given. In addition, it has valuable information of permanent and practical value on subjects relative to building and building contracts, that cannot fail to be of value to those who intend to build, and it will be sent to any address on receipt of 25 cents, by J. S. Ogilvie & Co., publishers, 31 Rose street, New York.

THE BEE-KEEPERS' ASSOCIATION.—Held at Grange hall their annual meeting Tuesday and Wednesday, but the attendance was small and the interest appeared rather dull. The following persons were elected officers for the ensuing year: C. E. Hoskins, president; D. Kauffman, vice-president; Mrs. M. C. S. Young, secretary; S. F. Harding, treasurer. The right of naming the place for holding the next meeting was left with the officers.

RUN OVER.—On Monday last a son of Lufe Kinney, of west Chehalis, was thrown from a wagon to which a runaway team was attached, and two of the wheels passed over his body. For a time it was thought certain that his spine was injured, but from later investigation it is thought not. Dr. Littlefield of Lafayette attended the unfortunate lad.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—Indian War veterans will please bear in mind that the election of officers of Camp Hembree will be held at the opera house in this city, one week from to-day, Friday, October 1st.

Religious Services—Sunday Next.

J. S. WHITE, Rector.

C. P. church. Services at the usual hours. Subject for forenoon discourse, "Some lessons from the recent earthquake disaster at Charleston, S. C." Subject for evening discourse: "The Saving Power of Knowledge." Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. All are invited and made welcome to these services.
T. H. HENDERSON, Pastor.

St. James' church. Rev. John C. Fair, rector. Services 11 a. m. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Friday evening services at 7:30 p. m. Seats free. All are cordially invited to attend.

W. V. B. K. A.

McMINNVILLE, Sept. 21, 1886.

The Willamette Valley Bee Keepers Association met at Grange hall accordingly to the notice. The first day there were but a few in attendance and some were quite disheartened, but the earnest workers for the improvement and extension of the principles of raising bees and making honey a better and more profitable business, was bound that the meeting should not be a failure. On the following day, the 22d, the meeting was called to order by the president, Frank S. Harding. The annual address by the president was an interesting document, showing to the association the necessity of more diligent work with bees and the pasturage for them. After the election of officers, questions and answers were introduced and a pleasant and profitable time was enjoyed by the members and those that did not belong to the association.

To the Farmer.

Messrs. F. Barnekoff & Co., have thoroughly renovated and overhauled the Fellows' warehouse at McMinnville, recently purchased by them and are now ready to receive grain. They will clean and store at 3 cents, and will be ready to buy and pay the highest price going, in cash. Sacks kept on hand and sold to farmers at the lowest rates. This is a perfectly responsible firm, and those having grain to sell or store, or in need of sacks, should call and see them.

Sale of Personal Property.

There will be an auction sale of all the personal property of the late J. D. Benton, at his farm two and one-half miles north-west of Lafayette, Sept. 25th—to-morrow. Horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, farm machinery and many other things will be sold. Remember the date, Saturday, Sept. 25th—to-morrow. Terms of sale, twelve months credit upon all sums above ten dollars.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Rogers & Todd.

A. A. McCULLY'S ESTATE.—In the matter of the estate of the late Asa A. McCully, Willis Starr, Geo. B. Benton and Samuel Pate, appraisers for Yamhill county, and David McCully, Chas. Clagget and J. I. Thompson, appraisers for Marion county, have filed their report containing an inventory of the property of which A. A. McCully died seized, as follows: Personal property in Marion county valued at $13,488; real property in Marion county $13,700; personal property in Yamhill county, $371.03; real property in Yamhill county, $15,887.—Statesman.

A DISGRACE.—We dislike to grumble and find fault; but we must say that the man or woman that wouldn't feel like using a curs word if compelled to come into this city by B street is almost a saint. To avoid "chuck-holes" deep enough to bury a horse, you have got to run over rocks as big as your head, for a distance of three or four blocks. It is a shame and disgrace to the place and we shall hold it up as such until it is improved.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's parents, near North Yamhill, Monday, Sept. 20, 1886, by Rev. J. Hoberg, Mr. Beverly N. Daniel and Miss Kittie E. Maddox. The Maddox and Daniel families appear to "stand in" pretty well, as this is the second marriage existing between them. They are of Yamhill's best citizens, and we wish the couple just united their portion of joy and happiness.

DEATH OF A PIONEER MOTHER.—Mrs. Catherine Panbrum, aged 81 years, died at the home of her son-in-law, L. W. Harger, West Chehalis, last Saturday, 18th inst., and was buried Sunday, the 19th, Rev. J. Hoberg officiating at the burial services. Mrs. Panbrum's husband during his life was a prominent official of the Hudson Bay company.

CHORAL UNION.—At the opera house this evening will be held a meeting for the purpose of permanently organizing a Choral Union. There is plenty of good musical talent in this city for a union that will furnish music that will make the hills and valleys fairly ring, and it is hoped that all the warblers of the town will be on hand to give the thing a boost.

Our Neighbors.

Dolph, Tillamook County.

Sept. 20, 1886.
Very warm, dry and dusty.
Roads in good condition over the mountains.

One would think, seeing so many people on their way to the beach, there was no fair in session at the capital.

We learn there is a Dutch colony settling on the head waters of Slab creek, from there over to Salmon river.

Judge Boise passed through here on his way home last week. Also several of the well-known Yamhillers, Ed. Wallace and family, Cook, Ford, Booth, and many others, that are accustomed to making frequent visits to the beach. That's right, come one, come all, we are pleased to see those pleasant faces.

We learn that young Turner, from near Bellevue, and Miss Etie Jones, went out boat riding on the bay one day last week, and came near meeting with a watery grave. They went where old fishermen said they would not dare to go. He cautions you young, inexperienced boatmen.

The parties from Salem that were arrested a while back on the Big Nestucca, for killing deer, came out and camped just over the line in Yamhill county, then went in Tillamook county hunted deer and killed several, then sent word they had been killing deer for them to come and arrest them.

New fashion now for the ladies to carry air on horse back from Dolph to Oretown.

Ask Joe Hill what makes him hold his neck so stiff? He will tell you a horse can bite as hard as it can kick.

MOUNTAIN TOP.

Dayton Prairie.

September 21, 1886.

Items are pretty scarce.

And still it is warm. The farmers are now pretty near at a stand still, as far as work is concerned, on account of dry weather. They will not sow summer fallow ground for fear it will not come up.

Mr. William Cooper left for Yaquina bay last Tuesday for the benefit of his health. A. J. Cooper and Ben Deford accompanied him.

Mrs. Geo. Morgaridge, who has been quite ill this summer, has so far regained her health, as to be able to attend to her household duties.

John Versteeg has rented a farm in Moore's Valley and will remove from here there in a short time.

Most all the apple orchards have been purchased in this section by apple buyers. The price paid was 25 cents per box picked.

State fair is over and a great many are sadder but wiser, but we will remain on the OUTSIDE.
