"PRESCRIPTIONS"

Accurately compounded and lowest prices charged at Rogers & Todd's Drug Store.

TELEPHONE WHISPERINGS.

Town full of "drummers."
Lots of fun at Collard's shooting gallery.
Fresh roasted peanuts at H. H. Welch's.
J. W. Gault has moved into his new residence.
Many of our peoples are going to the Mechanics' fair.
For a square meal go to the St. Charles—only 25 cents.
Read the advertisement of the Burch sale near Amity.
Several new subscribers; and still more are wanted.
Mr. F. S. Keller is now sole proprietor of the city market.
County treasurer W. W. Nelson, was in town yesterday.
Don Gates goes limping. Cause—a badly sprained ankle.
Best meal in the city for 25 cents, at the McMinville Hotel.
The Nescence mill team still "pulls out" early in the morning.
Charley Cook and wife are back from California, looking natural.
Pomona Grange, P. of H., will meet in McMinville October 30.
Mrs. G. E. Detmering returned Friday from a short visit to Astoria.
W. H. Harrison, of Amity, smiled on us his brightest beam, yesterday.
Leslie Laughlin intends to make a flying trip to Astoria, starting to-day.
The firm of Galloway & Cook, warehousemen, have dissolved—Mr. C. retiring.
With a continuance of this kind of weather, ducks and geese will soon be plentiful.
With the circulation of the TELEPHONE now has it an excellent advertising medium.
Granville Baker left us yesterday for Whetcom, W. T., to be gone a week or ten days.
Dr. J. B. Loughary and W. S. Frink, Esq., of Dallas, visited at this place yesterday.
Supt. Freund is now at home, having completed his duties in the lower part of the county.
Archie Roof hands us some large potatoes and larger turnips. They are fine specimens.
George Cornet is the efficient and gentlemanly artist in Welch's Tonsorial Parlors, after August 6.
Geo. Cornet will probably occupy the tonsorial department of the new hotel when it is completed.
Messrs. B. Trullinger and W. Kuykendall, of Grand Ronde, visited relatives in town, Sunday.
Blackburn & Peckham have just received and are unpacking a fine line of summer dress goods, hosiery &c.
Hon. Wm. Galloway has improved the looks of his residence by adding two bay windows to the south side of it.
A hack load of young folks arrived last evening at Rev. A. J. Hunsaker's. They will attend school at the college.
The young man who left that pair of patent stocking supporters hanging on the gate, can have the same by applying at this office.
Vinegar, 25 cents per gallon, in large or small quantities; sweet cider, 15 cents per gallon, at the cider mill of Jno. J. Sax.
There's no danger of the roof of the new hotel blowing off or leaking. The Messrs. Hodson know just how to do a job of this kind.
Farmers having wool to sell will do well to consult Blackburn & Peckham before selling as they pay the highest prices in the county.
Billiards at the "Orphan's Home" 15 cents per game of 34 points; 20 cents for 50 points, and 25 cents for 50 points when one player discounts the other.
H. H. Welch.
Blackburn & Peckham, the agents of Chas. H. Dodd & Co., are doing the boss machine business of the county, sold some 25 twine binders and two steam threshers.

College Notes.

In a former note it was said in this column that "the mind is worthy of all the training that can be given to it." This is true as relates to the mind itself. But there are few who regard this subject in this light. Training is usually made subservient to some other cause. A young man desires an education, not because he is a noble being, possessed of high and lofty aspirations, but because he thinks that by means of a little learning a competence can more readily be obtained. This view degrades the pursuit of knowledge, if it does not wholly destroy a genuine thirst for what is true and noble. The mind must extricate itself from immediate contact with the world before it can appreciate its own true worth. Parents are to blame, in part, for this utilitarian view of life. They are anxious that their children be able to get a living. The children are hustled off to school with this object prominently before the mind of the child. To prove their fidelity in this respect, as soon as the child can stand behind the counter and measure tape, the parents remove them from the school room. It is certainly commendable for parents to take an interest in their children, but what is objected to here is that that care does not extend far enough. Parental care should be broadened and deepened by the thought that there is something noble, something grand in the mental endowment of the child. And that too regardless of dimes and dollars.

Rev. Mr. Henry of Portland, was up one day last week, making arrangements for two new students from Corvallis. They will probably be in this week.
Miss Birdie Maddock attended the Mechanics fair one day last week.
Miss Fannie Baxter accompanied her sister to Portland on Friday. The latter is going to Washington Territory to reside.
Mrs. P. W. Chandler of Forest Grove was on College side several days during the week.
That game of base ball did not come off on Saturday. The boys think that Forest Grove doesn't care to play.
Miss Minnie Smith, who attended school in '83 and '84, was in Portland last week attending the fair.
Mr. E. F. Clark of Zena, was in chapel this week. He came to bring Prof. Crawford who preached in Zena Sunday. Mr. Clark is the father of J. F. Clark, a student of the college.

Roll of Honor.

McFadden—Burnett.

On the evening of October 14th, the most intimate friends and relatives of Rev. and Mrs. P. R. Burnett, gathered at their residence in Monmouth, Or., to witness the marriage ceremony of their daughter Josie, to S. S. McFadden, of Albany, Or. The house which was beautifully decorated with evergreens and festoons, was brilliantly illuminated and by eight o'clock was well crowded.

The bride and groom preceded by the bridesmaid Miss May Smith, of Salem, and groomsmen, Mr. Willard Adkins, of Monmouth, soon took their places under a beautiful floral bell and were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock by Rev. D. T. Stanley. The bride wore a beautiful dress of white with flowers of pure white. The groom was attired in a neat cut-away evening suit, and like the bride wore tan colored gloves. The bridesmaid wore a dress of golden brown silk with delicate pink flowers. The groomsmen like the groom wore a full evening suit. Numerous and costly presents were given them together with several handsome floral offerings.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Rogers & Todd.

Our Neighbors.

North Yamhill.

October 14, 1886.

J. C. McKern is down from Marion county paying his old home a visit.

The I. O. O. F. of this place will give a ball on Oct. 22, 1886. All are cordially invited.

And still the improvements go on. D. Busbee is building a new side walk and porch in front of his place.

A. H. Powell has sold his farm to Mr. Wm. Laughlin. Mr. Powell will go east of the mountains in a short time.

J. Brashine, the druggist of this place, has bought the house and lot formerly owned by the late Aunt Sarah Davis.

BRACHVILLE.

Lafayette.

October 18, 1886.

We are to have a dentist. Dr. E. Davis is going to locate here permanently. He comes from the Dalles and will be here on the 20th.

S. Grazier, our butcher, has sold out and will try something else for a livelihood. I did not learn to whom he sold. They will take possession the first of November.

The Presbyterians are going to build a church and parsonage at this place. The church to cost $1,200 and parsonage $300. They have over half of the money subscribed now.

The M. E. church has been holding their quarterly meeting. Prof. Starr of Salem, preached to a large audience yesterday at 11 o'clock and Dr. Harrington addressed a crowded house in the evening.

Freight is brought to our town now on the narrow gauge. It is shipped to White's on the west side road and transferred to the narrow gauge cars there. The cost is the same as it was when the freight was left at St. Joe.

Resolutions of Condolence.

HALL OF OCCIDENTAL LODGE }
No. 30, I. O. O. F. }
McMINVILLE, Oct. 16, 1886.

WHEREAS, The members of Occidental lodge No. 30, I. O. O. F., have recently been called to mourn the loss of our much esteemed and fellow brother Geo. Bangasser, whose death can only be remembered by us with feelings of sorrow and regret; therefore

Resolved, That by this brief memorial we do express a sense of our mutual sorrow sustained in the loss and labor of one of our members.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his sorrowing and bereft family and that a copy of this memorial be tendered them as a token of the same, and placed on the records of the lodge; that it be handed to the WEST SIDE TELEPHONE and Yamhill Reporter with a request to publish.

WM. HOLL,
L. BETTMAN,
J. E. BROOKS,
Committee.

Farm for Sale.

The Wm. White place 2½ miles east of this city is in my hands for sale. This farm consists of 280 acres of land well improved and can be had for $25 per acre, if sold before December 1st. Terms very easy. Also some valuable personal property can be had with the farm cheap, good 4-year old horse, 6 head of cattle, 50 full blood merino sheep, 1 new wagon, some hay, sheep oats and household furniture.
C. W. TALMAGE,
McMinville, Or.

FROM ASTORIA.—Mr. E. Coovert, of the law firm of Thompson & Coovert, Astoria, has been in the city for a few days on legal business. Mr. Coovert reports business very lively in all branches in the "Venice of America," and also spoke in highly complimentary terms of the growth of McMinville since he was last here. He left for home yesterday.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all coughs and colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this wonderful discovery.
Trial bottles free at Rogers & Todd's drug store.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica salve, and my leg is now sound and well."
Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica salve at 25c. per box by Rogers & Todd.

REV. DR. FREELAND, of Fowlerville, N. Y., writes us that two bottles of Gilmore's Aromatic wine cured his wife of nervousness and sleeplessness. Sold by Rogers & Todd.

GILMORE'S AROMATIC WINE is a positive cure for all those painful complaints so common to all our best female population. Sold by Rogers & Todd.

WANTED. A case of female weakness, general debility or nervous exhaustion that Gilmore's Aromatic Wine will not cure. Sold by Rogers & Todd.
