DR. PAUL BOYCE—Whose death was mentioned in our last, was born at Waterbury, Washington county, Vermont, September 23, 1833, and died at Dayton, Yamhill county, Oregon, October 17, 1886, after a tedious illness of eight months. Deceased came to California in 1856, thence to Oregon City in 1876. He was united with the Baptist church in San Francisco, and has been a member of that church ever since. The funeral took place October 19th, at Dayton, Rev. G. J. Burchett, of this city officiating. The attendance was very large. Dr. Boyce leaves no near relatives in this country except a wife; but a large circle of friends mourn his demise.

SALEM'S NEW FIRE ENGINE—On Tuesday the Salem firemen made a test of their new LaFrance engine. Three and a half minutes after fire was started in the engine thirty pounds of steam was raised. The machine threw a stream of water 270 feet, through one and a half inch nozzle, 289 feet with one and three-sixteenths inch nozzle, and 278 feet with one and three-eighths inch nozzle. The weather was bad for the test on account of an adverse wind. The engine meets with the approval of the Salem department.

RETURNED—Miss Rosie Hembree, who for the past seven months has been visiting in the east, returned Tuesday evening. During her absence she has visited friends and relatives in nearly all of the central and western states, and returns much improved in health and otherwise. Miss Hembree is one of our most estimable young ladies, and she has many friends in McMinnville and vicinity who are glad to welcome her home again. Her cousin Miss May Hembree, accompanied her home.

CERTAINLY—A gentleman picked up a child's hat on the street one day this week, and handed it into the TELEPHONE office to be advertised. But before the next issue of the paper the hat was properly identified and claimed by the child's parents. Instinct taught them to apply at the TELEPHONE office, as a matter of course, for any missing article, which would be sure to be left there by the finders for identification. Instinct always teaches us aright.

PEARL WEDDING—Wednesday was the fortieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Adams' wedded life. In the evening numerous relatives and friends gathered at their residence, completely surprising them. A general good time was had and each guest presented Mr. and Mrs. Adams with a handsome and substantial token of their esteem. May they have many more happy anniversaries, is the wish of their numerous friends.

SURPRISED—Mrs. P. A. Derr was made glad the fore part of the week by a visit from her brother, Mr. John Rhinearson, accompanied by Mrs. Will Rhinearson and her sister, from the Grand Ronde neighborhood, eastern Oregon. Mrs. Derr has seen neither of her brothers for several years, and although the visit was but for a day or two, it was none the less a glad surprise and a great pleasure for all.

McMINNVILLE BUSINESS COLLEGE—Prof. G. R. Higgins, whose name succeeds that of C. F. Houghton as principal of McMinnville Business college, is a man well qualified for the position. Under his management this college is sure to succeed.

OFF FOR MISSOURI—Yesterday, Mr. Jas. Fletcher left for Kirksville, Missouri, the scene of his boyhood day. It has been more than twenty years since Mr. Fletcher left Missouri for Oregon, and he has not been back since. He has several brothers and sisters living in the neighborhood of his old home. He expects to be gone about six weeks or two months.

REJECTED—The man who contracted hops in the vicinity of Wheatland, some time since, at 21 cents per pound, now rejects about two-thirds of the crop. The hops are all in first-class condition, but the writings were rather loose. The parties owning the hops, however, can do better, as they are worth now about 24 cents per pound.

NEW WALK NEEDED—There is a short piece of sidewalk on Fourth street between B and C, that is full of holes and broken planks. It is a splendid place for some unfortunate pedestrian, who chances to pass that way next winter when dark nights come on, to fall down and break his neck. A new walk should be built there at once.

Bouty Sanders Dead.

Died at the residence of his aunt, Mrs. Martin, in this city, last Tuesday evening at 9:30 o'clock, after an illness of many weary weeks, Boughton Everett Sanders.
The deceased was a son of Hon. J. R. Sanders, of Amity, and was born near that place, in Yamhill county, March 14, 1861. The last few years of his life were spent in this city where he won the respect of all by his exemplary, upright and honorable bearing. He was a consistent member of the Baptist church of this city. It was with a feeling of the most profound sorrow that we heard of his death. His loss will be felt, not by the few, but by the many. The remains were conveyed to Amity on Thursday morning's train, and were escorted to the depot by Custer Post Band, playing a funeral hymn, followed by the I. O. O. F. lodge and the McMinnville Fire department, of which organizations Mr. Sanders had long been an active member. The funeral services were held at the Baptist church in Amity at 11 a. m., under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. lodge of that place, Rev. G. J. Burchett, of this city, officiating. He leaves a father, five brothers and one sister, besides many friends to mourn his loss. The heartfelt sympathies of the entire community are extended to his sorrowing relatives and friends. "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord."

Payne—Raymond.

Prof. C. J. Payne, of the McMinnville business college, and Miss Mattie Raymond of Gervais, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at St. James (Catholic) church, yesterday at 1 o'clock, Rev. J. S. White officiating. After the ceremony the bridal party, followed by a host of friends repaired to the residence of Mr. Chas. L. Bergevin, where a sumptuous dinner awaited them. After dinner the party took the 4 o'clock train carrying with them the best wishes of all present. They were the recipients of many handsome presents of which the following is a partial list: cake stand, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fortian; china tea set, Mrs. Fortian; the brides mother, and Mrs. Provoc; set silver knives, forks and spoons, Mr. and Mrs. Warren; silver pickle dish and table linen, Mrs. Butler; set glass dishes, H. Burns; paragon silver castor, Mrs. H. Burns; glass fruit dish and cake stand, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Warren; silver napkin rings, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Galloway. The TELEPHONE force acknowledges the receipt of cake, cigars, etc.

AT THE CAPITOL—The furniture and carpets in the senate chamber have been removed and the room will be frescoed to match the supreme court and the supreme judges' consultation room. As it was, the senate chamber was a very handsome room, and frescoing the ceiling will make it look grander. The work on the roof extension is going ahead rapidly and within a few days the scaffolding will all be taken down from about the Corinthian columns, when the west front of the building will look something like a capitol building should. The work of putting in the stairway will then be pushed right ahead to completion.—Statesman.

RUNAWAY COUPLE MARRIED—Recently E. G. Coffin, a young man 23 years of age, ran away with Etta Rudder, daughter of a Yamhill county farmer. The father followed the pair to this city and notified the police authorities, who assisted him in finding the missing couple. Yesterday Mr. Rudder, accompanied by his daughter and Coffin, repaired to the county clerk's office, and procuring the necessary license, had Coffin marry the girl, Judge Stearns performing the ceremony.—Oregonian 20.

ATTACHED—Attachments were placed on the type and material of the Prohibition Star, of Salem, the first of the week, by the Pacific type foundry, of Marder, Luse & Co., and the Statesman Publishing company, of Salem. The claims against the institution are small, and it is probable they will be settled, and publication resumed with the loss of but one issue of the paper.

ARRESTED FOR BEGGING—A youth aged 12 years was arrested yesterday afternoon for begging. He gave the name of Tom Dermont, and said he was trying to obtain money to go to Yreka, where his brother resides. His arm was frightfully burned, and he was given medical assistance and afterwards released. He had $2 upon his person.—Albany Herald. This is the same youth who was upon our streets several days last week.

Following is a list of presents: Nice dress, Wm Booth; cake dish, Miss Josie Dutcher; fruit dish, F. Wallace; handkerchief, C. B. Wagner; nice lamp, W. R.—
