ACCIDENT ON THE O. P.

There was an accident on the Oregon Pacific Sunday morning at 11:30. A wrecking train, started for Yaquina to clear the track of Saturday's freight, consisting of thirteen cars which were derailed near Clitwood by the rails spreading, ran into a rock slide near siding 1, which resulted in throwing two cars from the track, killing one man named Aldrich instantly and fatally injuring one Spelling. Engineer Robinson had his leg broken and several others were badly injured. Owing to the very foggy weather the train was running very slow. This we believe is the first fatal accident on this road since the trains commenced running.
 "FIXING UP."—W. J. Garrison & Co., of the Eurisko market, have just put in a new marble top block and made other improvements in their market building, and it is now as neat and handsome a place as any body could wish to see. Their meats are of the best and they always have plenty on hand to select from. Their steaks are rich and tender and their roasts fine. We know for we have had one for a sample, for which "Uncle Jap." will please accept our thanks with our best bow.

Laughlin, Annie B. Wilcox; S. T. Likens, Mary B. Garrison; Wm. K. Curtis, Kate K. Snyder.

City Election.

Yesterday was the day appointed by our charter for the selection of officers who are to have charge of our city affairs for the ensuing year. Friday evening, at Grange hall, a meeting of citizens was held and an anti-saloon ticket was nominated as follows: For Mayor, Wm. Galloway; Recorder, B. F. Fuller; Marshal, J. O. Rogers; Councilmen, E. Russ, J. W. Gault, W. T. Baxter, W. D. Wright, L. Root, H. Tucker. Mr. Galloway afterward declined running and A. J. Nelson was placed on the ticket in his place. W. D. Wright also declined, and A. D. Howard was substituted.
 Saturday evening, at Firemen's Hall, another citizens' meeting was held and nominated a "citizens' ticket" as follows: For Mayor, Jacob Wortman; Recorder, J. J. Spencer; Marshal, George Kaufman; Councilmen, Wm. Campbell, C. D. Johnson, Wm. Holl, G. W. Jones, Chas. Palmer, D. C. Narver.
 On the street yesterday workers for both tickets could be seen, all trying for the success of their ticket, each bent on the success of the men whom they thought would best and most speedily advance the interests of our little city. A lively interest was manifested and a goodly number of votes polled, and at night the tally sheets showed the following result:
 For Mayor Jacob Wortman received 117 votes; A. J. Nelson 46; Wortman's majority 71.
 For Recorder J. J. Spencer received 114 votes; B. F. Fuller 49; Spencer's majority 65.
 For Marshal G. W. Kaufman received 111 votes; J. O. Rogers 53; Kaufman's majority 58.
 For Councilmen: G. W. Jones received 103 votes against J. W. Gault 62; Jones' majority 41. D. C. Narver 106 against L. Root 51; Narver's majority 55. Wm. Campbell 111 against E. Russ 50; Campbell's majority 61. C. Palmer 112 against W. T. Baxter 49; Palmer's majority 63. Wm. Holl 115 against L. K. Wallace 49; Holl's majority 66. C. D. Johnson 110 against A. D. Howard 42; Johnson's majority 68.
 This elects the straight "citizens' ticket." They are all good men and we believe they will fill their positions in a manner that will give universal satisfaction.
 Rally for Business.
 The P. & W. V. railroad opened for business yesterday morning, November 1. Trains commenced running between Elk Rock and Dundee Junction (without change of cars) with trains of the Oregonian Railway company to Astoria on the West side, eighty miles from Portland, and with Corvallis, East side 120 miles from Portland. The transfer steamer City of Salem, will leave the foot of Madison street at 11 a. m. for Elk Rock with passengers for Astoria, Corvallis and intervening points; returning with passengers from Astoria and Corvallis to Portland at 3:30 p. m. A morning train from Portland, fifty-seven miles from Portland, will reach there at 9 a. m. returning to Sheridan at 4 p. m. same day.
 Since the above was in type, we learn that there has been some trouble over the matter and it is probable it will be some days before the road will have regular trains running. It seems that some of the rails laid near Newberg, this county, were borrowed for the occasion, and were to be replaced by November 1, but as they were not forthcoming on that date, the owners of the rails took up about two miles of the track, and this gap will have to be laid before trains can run.
 "BEYOND REDEMPTION."—This interesting temperance drama will be presented at Littlefield hall, Lafayette, about the 13th inst, by the amateur dramatic troupes of that place. The proceeds to go towards paying off the debt on the M. E. church of that city. It is the intention of the troupe to appear in this city at some later date, if satisfactory arrangements can be made. As they have some good talent and the proceeds are for a laudable purpose, they should be well patronized.

 Prof. T. C. Stephens will organize a singing school to-morrow evening.
 Dr. E. Davis has come and will remain with us; so we have a dentist, too.
 Messrs. G. Durham and H. Thompson were in town last week on legal business.
 Mr. James Tewley was fined $100 by Justice Hurley on last Wednesday for obstructing a public highway.
 Word came last evening that they are tearing up some of the narrow gauge track. I do not know how true it is, or why it is being done.
 Miss Cora Lamson was thrown from a horse last Tuesday evening and knocked senseless for awhile. She struck her head when she fell, but was not seriously injured.
 The Willamina saloon keeper was brought down here last week and put under bonds of $600 for his appearance at the next circuit court. Two indictments were found against him by the last grand jury. He has been selling liquor without license.
 Frosty mornings.
 Mrs. Mills is better.
 Church all week at the Baptist church.
 Wm. Vanbuskirk's little girl is improving.

 We understand H. Newby, the blacksmith, is soon to have a partner. That's right, Henry; get in.
 Small scrap Sunday night—the kuklux and Molly Maguire. No bones broken, but considerable noise for Sunday night.
 We understand that Chas. Jack is expecting a sister out from the east to keep house for him. Looks "kinder bad." Charley.

College Notes.

It has been argued in this column that mental training was all important to the youth of our country. Let it be affirmed also that the well-being of society in America is dependent upon the cultivation of the mind. Does anyone doubt this proposition? Is there anyone prepared to defend the negative? Certainly we are not so low in the scale of civilization as to believe that "ignorance is bliss," and that physical force is all that is needed here. Motives higher than those of depravity and despotism move the heart of the typical American. If society is threatened by any class, it is threatened by the ignorantly depraved. Those of our youth who are wilfully ignorant are culpable. They are too easily led into vicious ways. They are the danger element in society. Having little independence of thought they naturally prefer combinations. Like a band of sheep, they follow their leader. It is not to be denied that our society is threatened. The daily news informs those who read of unceasing turmoil. Bitter strife, envy and drunkenness, like bloodhounds, are let loose upon society to prey upon its vitals. Then comes the despotic class who are determined to "rule or ruin." These latter generally ruin a good cause to rule a bad one. Will education, indeed, prevent all these evils? No, no. It cannot do that. While it cannot prevent the attack, education will furnish a shield and buckler to the valiant defenders of society. If the school boys on Boston common remonstrated with the British soldiers because they interfered with their sports, the school boys of to-day should guard with care the legacy bequeathed to them by their revolutionary forefathers. Liberty is sweet to man, but sweetest of all to an American.
 Mr. Burns, a student from Dallas, was advised by his physicians to quit study for awhile. Sorry he left school.
 Miss Emma Wright, a former student, visited the academic room this week. Roswell Holman was also in to see the old students.
 Mrs. Reugg returned from her grandfather's home on Monday. We learn he is improving. He will likely recover. He is one of the oldest members on the board of trustees.
 Prof. Crawford went to Sheridan Sunday to perform the marriage ceremony for Prof. E. E. Selph. Mr. Selph was married to Miss Lulu Gwin of Polk county. Both are reasonably young and both seemed very happy it is said.
 The second term of school begins Nov. 10.
 Mr. Haynes, of southern Oregon is boarding at John Rhodes' residence on Collegeside. He begins school this week.
 Another telegraph office was established on Collegeside. Lonis thinks telegraphing is harder to read than German.
 Mrs. Dallas has a new barn.
 The theological student, who asked a question in Swedish of the spiritualistic lecturer the other night, thinks that the spirits are not acquainted with his language, since the lecturer failed to read the question.

Married.

Near Sheridan, in Polk county, Oregon, October 31, 1886, Miss Lulu Gwin to Mr. E. E. Selph, W. J. Crawford officiating. The wedding was a private one, there being but a few friends and relatives present. The happy couple will commence keeping house at once, near the school where Prof. Selph is teaching. They carry with them to their new home the best wishes of a large circle of friends. May they live long and prosper well.
 SEVERE FALL.—A little child of Mr. J. T. Fryer of Carlton, had a severe fall a few days since. It was playing on the upper porch of their residence, and ventured to near the edge, tumbling off to the ground below, a distance of about fifteen feet, alighting on its head. Dr. Covert was called and found it was not damaged, only slightly hurt. He dressed the wounds and the little one is getting along as well as could be expected.
 "SKIPPED OUT"—Al. Young, who has been engaged in the harness business at this place, for a year or two past, left rather suddenly on Friday morning's train, forgetting to bid his friends good bye. Mr. Young has always seemed to be an honest, straightforward young man, and as he left very few bills unsettled, as far as heard from, the cause of his sudden departure has occasioned a great deal of speculation.
 FRACTIOUS COW.—Last Tuesday evening a cow belonging, we understand, to Mr. Jim McCollough of Amity, was being driven through town and made things lively for a few minutes. She ran at several people who barely escaped in time to prevent being horned by the ferocious animal. "Coony" Werners, who could not get out of the way quick enough was thrown over the fence, but not badly hurt.
 RUNAWAY.—A team belonging to Wesley Jones, became frightened while standing in front of Booth's blacksmith shop, and started to run. They turned around in the street and ran to Aperson's corner where they brought up on the sidewalk in front of the store and barely missed smashing into one of the large windows. No damage was done to team or wagon.
 PLEASANT AFFAIR.—A very pleasant party was given to her friends by Miss Mary Johnson, at the residence of her parents, Saturday evening. About twenty young ladies and gentlemen were present. Games and plays were indulged in till a late hour and an elegant lunch spread, after which the party dispersed, declaring they had passed a very pleasant evening.
 NOT DECIDED.—A meeting of the Band of Hope was held Saturday last, to make arrangements for a concert, but owing to the sickness of some of the members, arrangements were not completed. Next Saturday, however, there will be another meeting, at which time it is probable everything will be arranged satisfactorily.
 HOME AGAIN.—P. W. Todd who has been in California for nearly a year returned home yesterday, via Yaquina. During his absence he has been engaged in grape raising near Cloverdale, and still owns a vineyard in there. "Dick" is looking well, and we are glad to welcome him home.
 DIED.—Mr. Hiram McCutcheon, an old and respected citizen of Carlton, died at his home near that place, last Thursday evening. His funeral took place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. He leaves a wife and nine children, and a large circle of friends to mourn his demise.
 ALEX. HERT.—Varied Hunsaker of this city, who is spending the winter at Geiner, Marion county, was thrown from a horse somewhere in that neighborhood, and had his arm quite severely hurt. We could learn no particulars, but it is believed it is not broken.
 REMAINDERS.—Mr. James Tyler is making some extensive improvements on his home, at the foot of the Cozine creek railroad bridge. When it is completed it will present a very handsome appearance.
