AN ITEM.—A call came to us the other day from away over in Michigan for us to send them a copy of the WEST SIDE TELEPHONE. We have never heard of the correspondent before, and I have not the faintest idea how he came in possession of our name or whereabouts. Still there is nothing new and startling about the little event. Such things are common in the experience of every journalist, and are worthy of mention only as a brief pointer to the outside world, concerning the work that is being done by every country by its local newspapers. Silently but effectively these messengers go flying into every nook and corner of the world bearing information back and forth to an extent that no other agency could ever reach, until friends and whole communities in remotest separation are kept pretty thoroughly posted upon the welfare of each other through the medium of exchange in local newspapers. Just now Oregonians may find a profitable lesson suggested by this little item.

THE SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—Friday evening last was a very successful affair, both as an entertainment and financially. The little folks did well in all their parts and many are deserving of special mention, but lack of space forbids. We may be excused, however, for mentioning the singing of little Flora Hammett. She is but six or eight years old and possessed of an alto voice that is marvellous for its sweetness and purity. Her singing was favorably commented on by all. A large audience was present and the proceeds of the evening were quite an addition to the fund for charts and apparatus which it is the intention of the teachers to furnish the school. Another entertainment, to be gotten up outside of the school, however, the proceeds to be devoted to the same purpose, is promised for about December 25—Christmas night.

CHORAL UNION.—The choral union met last night at the opera house as per adjournment and effected an organization with the following officers: D. C. Narver, pres.; C. P. Bishop, vice pres.; B. Apperson, sec.; Belle Johnson, treas.; Carl Young, musical director. Room committee, C. P. Bishop, Dr. Goucher, D. C. Ireland. Finance committee, G. W. Jones, Chas. Grissen, J. J. Spencer. Their next meeting will be held at the call of the president, as soon as music which has been ordered arrives. They will meet regularly thereafter at Grange hall on Tuesday evening of each week.

THE MCGIBENYS.—The McGibeny family appeared at the court house last evening, presenting their superb musical programme. The audience crowded the room, notwithstanding two very large political meetings being held elsewhere. Every one present was extremely enthusiastic over the little musical prodigies. All the numbers were excellently rendered, and if the family return from Portland via Fargo they may be assured of one of the largest audiences ever given a company in this city.—Fargo Argus. They will appear at Garrison's opera this city, December 14.

WHAT'S THE MATTER?—What's the matter with all our hunters, usually so lively at this season of the year? Here is Thanksgiving rapidly approaching and no talk of a shooting match for beef, turkey, chickens, or even no mention made of glass ball shooting. Come boys, wake up, and hear the little birds sing! Get up a hunting match if nothing more, and let us have something interesting going on. A game supper on Thanksgiving eve, would not be a bad introduction to the supreme delights of a royal Thanksgiving dinner! Eh, boys?

MONEY STOLEN.—Last week Mrs. J. P. Powell called at the postoffice and had cashed a money order for $10. Soon after, having occasion to use some of the money she opened her purse but the $10 was not there. She hastened to the postoffice but could find no trace of it. Mrs. Powell thinks she left it on the money order window, and that someone appropriated it. There was a Chinaman in the office when she first went out, and very likely he pocketed the $10.

SPECIAL SERVICE.—There will be a special Thanksgiving Service at St. James Church on Thursday at 10 a. m. the Rev. John C. Fair officiating. The regular appointed offering for the Good Samaritan hospital will be made during the service. The rector hopes the communicants and all attending this service will give liberally toward the maintenance of this admirable work.

REWARD.—For several nights past some party or parties have been opening the doors to the different street lamps in the city, thus allowing the lights to be blown out by the wind. Marshal Kaufman says he will give $5 reward to any person giving him information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the guilty ones. It is to be hoped they will be found and punished.

THANKSGIVING SUPPER.—On Thanksgiving night from 10 o'clock till 2 the next morning, Mr. Miltner of the St. Charles hotel will have an elegant lunch spread for all those desiring it at 25 cents each. Parties attending the firemen's ball can be served with all the delicacies of the season, by visiting the St. Charles. Only 50 cents a couple.

SOCIALLY.—An enjoyable dance party was given at the residence of A. K. Olds, two miles south of town, Saturday evening; and last evening a surprise party was given to Miss Mary Hembree at the residence of her uncle, W. C. Hembree, it being her birthday. She was the recipient of several nice presents.

LECTURE.—Dr. J. W. Watts delivered an able and interesting temperance lecture before the open temperance meeting at Grange hall last evening. There was a very good attendance, but had it been known that the Dr. was going to lecture the hall would have been packed with people.

College Notes.

Let us add another interesting fact in regard to higher education in our town. Not one young man in our beautiful village is a classical graduate of any institution. This does not mean that our youths are not educated. They are educated up to a certain point. That point, as we have before observed, is simply a business qualification. This one fact argues much. It shows that our youth are not in the habit of seeking a higher training anywhere. If our youthful state is to have her historians and poets, if the highest offices of state are to be filled with honor, if the ministry and other professions are to be filled by men that needeth not be ashamed, it is not likely that the men are to come from our own humble village. Have the youth had opportunity? Most assuredly. Have they lacked the means? No. Do they like the mental ability? The affirmative of this question is yet to be proven.

It might be of interest to ask another question. How many of the fathers and mothers of these young men whose cause we are so earnestly pleading, have had anything like a college education? It is fair to presume that very few of them have anything more than a meagre share of education. This may account for a lack of interest in many instances upon the part of the parent. The excuse is altogether too common viz: "I have had very little learning and have succeeded, therefore Jane or John, or Susie can do as well as I have done, and consequently a college education is no use." There is no small amount of such sophistry used by parents. If you doubt this assertion, make diligent search.

Another good list of students enrolled last week: Lee Collard, Mary Collard, Minnie Magers, Cora A. Bogue, Anna M. Dielschneider, Henry C. Brown, W. B. Holman, Charlotte Jones, Amasa Sanders, Edie Sanders, Bessie Burchett. Mr. Lincoln Gortner visited the academic room last week.
Prof. Crawford was at Zena last Sunday. His little daughter Stella accompanied him.
A fine Grenett battery with the new induction coil makes good music for those who like a shock. The coil will give a continual spark three-fourths of an inch long.
Thomas Kay, of Sheridan, was on Colleside Sunday.
A new horizontal bar has been erected on the campus.
Next Thursday the college will take a recess, it being Thanksgiving day.
The literary society has a good programme for next Saturday evening.
The class in chemistry has been experimenting with oxygen gas.

JACKSON.
DON'T WANT ANY HUNTERS.—There appears to be in the heart of the average farmer an inherent antipathy to the usual run of city sportsmen which is made fully apparent by the "numerosity" of the "Notice to Trespassers" posted about their ranches. The festive gunners of this city will do well to wear their "spectacles" when out in the wilds of Oregon, and to use their optics both in search of "notices" as well as game.

WHEAT POOL.—Last week Joe Watt and Mr. Coulter, in behalf of the grange at Amity, induced farmers of McCoy to place 20,000 bushels of wheat in a pool, and the farmers of Perrydale a similar amount in the same pool, making 40,000 bushels from these two points. The price paid was very close if not exactly 65 cents per bushel. This is a good price, and the farmers in that section of the country feel very good over their sale.

THE NEW SECRETARY.—Hon. Geo. W. McBride, secretary of state elect, arrived here last evening, says the Statesman, and his friends will find him at the Chemekeeta hotel. Mr. McBride's health is considerably improved, though he does not look so well as when here before election. He is gaining strength, however, steadily, and hopes soon to feel as well as ever, considering his lameness.

LOST.—On the road from Sheridan to McMinnville, Sunday afternoon, a black leather-covered pocketbook, containing several notes, papers and one $5 green-back. The papers are of no value to anyone but the owner. A reward of $5 will be paid to party finding and returning this property to the undersigned at Sheridan or to the TELEPHONE office at McMinnville. VICTOR GROSS.

FOR SALE.—A piece of valuable property situated just outside the city limits, for sale at a bargain. Large house, well built; several acres of ground for gardening, small fruit of various kinds nicely started, numerous outhouses, barn, etc. Everything in good order. Satisfactory reasons for wanting to sell. For further particulars enquire at this office.

SNOW.—There was a sudden change of temperature Saturday night, and Sunday morning enough of the "beautiful" fell to entirely cover the bosom of mother earth for the first time this season. It was rather unexpected and the nature of a surprise. Before night the weather moderated and the snow turned to rain.

FIXING UP.—To make room for a larger stock of goods, C. Grissen has been making some changes in his store. The partition at the back has been torn out and shelves have been put in across one side and end, making a much larger store room in which to display goods.

A SCARE.—Friday evening while the boarders at the Central hotel were at supper, some one sounded an alarm of fire. There was great excitement for a few moments. It was only a false alarm, however, and quiet was soon restored. No damage was done.

The drama that was played here on last Friday evening was quite a success financially as well as otherwise. The receipts were $51.00.
It is reported that there are some men seen on our streets, nearly every night, very late; sometimes as late as one and two o'clock in the morning. They do not like to be seen as they run every time they see any body. Several of the citizens claim to have seen them. Their object is not known, but if the truth is found out I think it would be developed that they are men who live here, who are out foraging.
There was quite a blaze near Dayton on last Friday evening resulting in the destruction of the old Powell sawmill, the burning of a span of horses and wagon. The mill belonged to Mr. Ball, of North Yamhill, and he had bargained it to a Mr. Byres, on the day previous to the fire. He, (Byres), had gone there to remove the machinery and while there the mill was burned along with his team. He claims to have been robbed of $71.00 the same night, hence he concludes that it was fired by some one for the purpose of plunder. The loss is about $1,000. It is not settled who will be the loser, Byres or Ball.
