

TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

As a special inducement to new subscribers, we make the following offer: Every person sending us $2 cash will be given the WEST SIDE TELEPHONE for the balance of the present year free.

The Salem bridge is done. The people of that thriving city can now turn their attention to paying the $50,000 which it cost.

Fish Commissioner Wallace Ballwin says it will cost in the neighborhood of $2,500 to put the fish ladder at Oregon City in shape.

The Salvation Army has not been very successful in reforming Portland. In fact, it would seem that the rank and file of that regiment were only additions to the already overcrowded ranks of deadbeats and toughs.

The suit between the stockholders of the Oswego Iron Works has been decided in favor of the right of the old board of directors to manage the affairs of the company.

The excitement in Great Britain over the Irish Home Rule question has recently grown more intense than for some months past.

President Cleveland has announced his intention of taking hold of the tariff question and telling his party that it must take some advanced positions on the subject.

The Portland Evening Telegram says of the case W. W. Saunders, under sentence of death for the murder of Chas. Campbell which will come before the supreme court on the 9th of December.

The Salem Statesman devotes nearly a column of its editorial space to some sensible remarks upon the value of advertising, and concludes by saying: "Not the business community alone, but the general public as well, forms its opinion of the standing and prospects of a firm, by its methods of advertising."

It is clear that there will be a contention in the Democratic ranks in the House at once on the tariff. The Administration will recommend the Hewitt bill, both in the President's message and in Secretary Manning's report.

NOTES AND NEWS.

The Golden Chariot French doctors bilked Portland to the tune of $28,000. A judgment has been given the Soldiers' National home against Old Spoon Butler for $16,537.

The Western Union Telegraph company is engaged in stretching another wire from Seattle to Portland. The business is so large that it cannot be handled by two wires.

Four prisoners in the Multnomah county jail attempted to escape Friday. They had nearly succeeded in cutting their way out, when they were detected and locked up in an iron cage for safe keeping.

Portland News: The rainfall here during November was less than ever before known in the history of Portland. The precipitation was only one inch.

The Portland News promises that in about thirty days it will furnish the most complete telegraphic report ever published on Pacific Northwest, and says: "The days of associated press and the western union telegraph monopoly are speedily drawing to a close in this country, thanks to John Mackay and the postal telegraph."

The search for and seizure of contraband opium has become an object of considerable activity on this coast. Recently in San Francisco a steamer was fitted up and sent out to meet an incoming steamer and search it for this contraband article that has been so successfully eluding revenue duties.

TELEGRAPHIC.

NOGALES, Dec. 5.—Six Mexican editors have been arrested and imprisoned by the Governor of Sonora, for publishing articles hostile to this government.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 5.—The secretary of state finished the count of the official vote last night except Sacramento county. The returns including the vote as counted by supervisors, gives Bartlett 85,004, Swift 84,439. Bartlett's plurality 565.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 4.—The American ship R. D. Rice left port this morning in tow of tugs for the Delaware breakwater, bound for Hiogo, Japan. She had on board 800,000 gallons of refined petroleum in 80,000 cases.

RICHMOND, VA., Dec. 5.—Richmond is building a city hall of granite, which will cost probably $1,000,000. Skilled mechanics of the colored race have so far been unable to get work on the building and on a formal application for it before the building committee of the city council the committee decided adversely to colored mechanics.

LINCOLN, ILL., Dec. 5.—A Deputy United States Marshal was here to-day subpoenaing witnesses to appear at Springfield against V. N. Hinkle, Postmaster at Burtonview, this (Logan) county, who is charged with violating the postal laws in regard to the sale of stamps.

OREGON'S EXACT BOUNDARIES.

Perhaps but very few people know the exact boundaries of Oregon. They are annexed as found in the state constitution. Beginning one marine league at sea, due west from the point where the forty-second parallel of north latitude intersects the same; thence northerly at the same distance from the line of the coast lying west and opposite the state, including all islands within the jurisdiction of the United States, to a point due west and opposite the middle of the north ship channel of the Columbia river; thence easterly, to and up the middle channel said river, and when it is divided by islands, up the middle of the widest channel thereof, to a point near Fort Waila Walla where the forty-sixth parallel of north latitude crosses said river; thence east on said parallel to the middle of the main channel of the Shoshone or Snake river; thence up the middle of the main channel of said river to the mouth of the Owyhee river; thence due south to the parallel of latitude forty-two degrees north; thence west along said parallel to the place of beginning.
