Colfax, W. T. December 4, 1886. Ed. TELEPHONE: Please permit me through the columns of your valuable paper, to tell my Yamhill friends something more of the glories of the region of rocks, hills, and bunchgrass. To an Oregon boy, accustomed for many years to the fogs and rains of November in the great valley, the month just passed has been a great change. Clear days with frosty mornings, a week of freezing weather and skating on the lakes, an occasional shower to keep the dust down, and barely snow enough to whiten the ground once—this was November at Colfax. They say this season has been less rainy than usual; it has been too dry altogether for the best interests of the farming community. But any amount of rain would fall to make this country very wet; the land is all stood too nearly on end to hold much water. The writer has not yet had the privilege of seeing an acre of level ground all in one place, since coming to this country. Such things are surely rare sights here. We have to be content to feast our eyes on hills, covered with beautiful, dried up bunchgrass, gullies between like spouts to carry the water off, and not even an oak grub to relieve the monotony. Still this is a wonderful place. It is queer the prices men will pay for this land, standing up at an angle of 30 to 60 degrees. For such land in the suburbs of Colfax men pay $100 per lot 50x100, while in the middle of town, lots of the same size, with perhaps a rough pine slanty on one corner, big enough to hold a sack of flour, a side of bacon, a box of soap and one of candles, and a man to sell them—such lots sell for $1,000 to $1,500 apiece. Yet they tell me Colfax is not booming. Verily, it Colfax is not booming when she does boom you will hear of it. Since coming to Colfax the writer has met many who formerly lived in the Willamette valley. Yamhill has her representatives in this section, among them Mr. Davis, formerly of the foothills west of McMinnville. He is ranching some 15 miles southwest of Colfax. Mr. Davis says he believes there is more money in farming here than in Yamhill, in spite of the scarcity of water and wood—he being obliged to haul wood 40 miles, requiring three days to make the trip. There seems to be no inclination on the part of those coming from the western valleys to return; the longer they remain the better they like it here. This, of course, speaks well for the country. December gales are blowing cold over the hills and through the gullies, whose homeliness will soon be covered by a garb of beautiful snow. And if he survives the tremendous weather they tell of here, isn't caught in a "blizzard," or blown away by a "harricane," you may hear again from HALL B. Council Proceedings. Council met in regular session Tuesday evening. Present, Mayor, Wortman; Recorder, Spencer; Treasurer, Rogers, Marshal, Kaufman; councilmen, Johnson, Campbell, Jones, Narver, Holl, Palmer. Committee appointed to confer with property owners on Third street between B and E, in regard to cleaning the mud off the streets, reported that the said property owners were in favor of having the streets cleaned. The recorder was ordered to post notices notifying citizens that the council would pass an ordinance requiring the streets to be cleaned. Street commissioner C. A. Wallace tendered his resignation. Accepted. Reports of chief engineer of the fire department and city treasurer read and placed on file. The treasurer's financial statement is as follows: Balance on hand Dec. 1, 1885, $ 481 44 Amount received from all sources during year..... 1905 56 Total receipts..... $2387 00 Warrants paid during year..... $1938 25 Amount on hand Dec. 1, 1886..... 478 75 The following bills were allowed: Gault & Wright, raising bell..... $38 28 Sam Goff, hauling brick..... 6 00 J. L. Rogers, treasurer's salary..... 50 00 J. L. Rogers, freight advanced on bell..... 10 65 Total..... $104 93 No further business being on hand, council adjourned. District Lodge. Yamhill County District lodge, I. O. G. T., convened in regular session at Grange hall yesterday at 10 a. m., and will hold until to-night. The lodge meetings are at 10 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. each day. Yesterday evening a public meeting was held and an interesting programme rendered. To-night also there will be a public meeting with the following programme: Singing, Audience. Prayer, Rev. Satchwell. Declamation, Henry Bertholomew. Declamation, Arthur Burt. Song, J. I. Knight. Declamation, Wart Gardner. Declamation, Helen Calhoun. Reading, Miss Emily Webb. Singing, Audience. The public are cordially invited to be present at this evening meeting. Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Rogers & Todd. Vote of Thanks. Ed. TELEPHONE:—The ladies of St. James (Episcopal) church guild extend a vote of thanks to the press, and all who so generously assisted them during their late fair. LILLIE IRELAND, Sec. of the Guild.

OUR ASSISTANTS. Bellevue. December, 6, 1886. Prof. C. J. Payne and wife were visiting here last week. Hon. Wm. Galloway and family of your city were up to see their old home Sunday. Last Friday evening there was a pleasant surprise party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gunning. The guests made themselves at home and a general good time was enjoyed by all present. Daniel Buell has sold his band of horses east of the mountains to Mr. Wm. Savage. Byron Branson of Hopewell was in the neighborhood Sunday. It wouldn't surprise us to see him over quite often in the future. We are sorry that we done Mr. Sargent the injustice he claims in our last. It was his son that met with the mishap, and the opposite "critter" that balked. Amity. December 9, 1886. All the farmers are complaining of the ground not being wet enough to plow. The funeral of Mrs. D. Goucher was well attended; services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Satchwell, of McMinnville. Everybody is preparing to go to the McGibeny concert. A grand time is expected at the ball Christmas eve. Good music has been procured. Bart Keys has returned. He says that Yamhill takes the cake. Rev. Doty, who has been ill for some time past, is able to be around and attend to his pastoral duties. Getchell has a nice assortment of Christmas goods. Why not have Christmas tree here this year? There is plenty of time, and why not take steps in that direction? MCM. Wheatland. December 7, 1886. News items very scarce in this vicinity. G. C. Davidson is building a neat residence in this place. A party of hunters passed through this place to-day from Hubbard, Marion county, bound to Mount Hebo, deer hunting. The Willamette river remains very low; boats can scarcely get up this far. M. B. Hendrick has shipped some grain from this place. I am told that about all the grain has passed out of the farmers' hands. The present price is 70 cents clear. Mr. A. M. Layson died last Saturday night after a long illness. Mrs. McCallif was adjudged insane and taken to the asylum, last week. Mr. J. O. Beardsley returned from his eastern trip and reports a very good time, but is glad to get back to Webfoot again. VET. Lafayette. December, 9, 1886. The city election passed off quietly yesterday with the election of the entire citizens' ticket. We will have the following officers for the ensuing year. Trustees, John Thompson, M. J. Ramsey, Henry Hopkins, Ed. Perkins and Thomas Huston; Recorder, M. Riddinger; Treasurer, W. W. Nelson; Marshal, Tom Bryan. Mr. J. M. Kelly has just received a fine lot of clocks. Among them is a "cuckoo" clock—quite a novelty here. The bird comes out every half hour, makes a graceful bow and says cuckoo and retires and closes the door after it. Sheriff Harris sold at public auction, the tools and stock belonging to Mr. Jay a blacksmith, who has been running a shop here for the past year. His business was closed out and tools sold by the sheriff, to satisfy his creditors who did not realize, from the sale, more than fifty cents on the dollar. The iron for the narrow gauge has come and the track will be laid this week, so the men say who live down about Dundee. It may prove, as it has done before, a failure. Q. Woodville. December, 5, 1886. There has been quite a shipwreck in here. There came in on the beach last Thursday morning, at 3 o'clock, the fast sailing iron ship Carmathen Castle, under the command of Capt. W. Richards. There were twenty-eight men on board and they all got ashore safe. One boat capsized, but no one badly hurt. The vessel is one hundred and twenty days from Liverpool. She is going to pieces. The natives will get rich off the wreck. J. Fuqua took a load of the sailors to Sheridan to-day. Woods, Hulbert & Co. are at work on their sawmill. They expect to have it running by the first of March. Crap Bros. will have their running by the first of January. Born, November 28, 1886, to the wife of Mr. A. C. Gist a baby weighing 9 pounds. Mother and child doing well. S. M. Knifong is up at J. Fuqua's at work on his house. Mr. Fuqua is going to have plenty of room for the travel next summer. C. Wymer has bought a lot in the burg. What does that stand for? Cumtux? The weather is fine in here yet and every body are as happy as clams at high tide. There is plenty of hardtack since the ship came ashore and the natives will live high. Mr. Kellow is in here. He is going to stop here this winter with his son. He is from Stringtown, Washington county. Mrs. Waller Grayes, of Sheridan, is in here visiting her parents, Rev. Wm. Butt and wife. Smith, Farmer & Knifong are talking of putting up a shingle mill.
