ON HAND.—A number of the mem- bers of the legislature of 1887, which meets on next Monday, have arrived in this city, and taken up their quarters, to be in readiness for the coming season. Those on hand now are Senators Dawson and Irvine, of Linn, Rinehart, of Union, and Siglin of Coos; Representatives Paulson, of Washington, and McCully, of Union; besides Senator Cham- berlain and Representative Gregg, of Mar- ion. The representatives' hall is not quite ready, as yet, for its occupants, but it will be in a day or two. The speaker's and secretary's desks and the bar have been placed in position, and the carpet is being laid. A novel piece of furniture is the mail-box.—States- man.

KINDERGARTEN.—Several gentlemen in this city, are talking of establishing a kindergarden school, if enough names can be secured to guarantee the success of the enterprise. A number of scholars have already been promised and if a few more can be obtained, a lady in this city who has had many years of experience as a teacher, will take charge of the school. There are a large number of little ones in the city who are too small to be sent to the public school, and a good kindergarden would be just the place to send them. These schools have been established all over the United States, and have proved of great benefit to the children.

PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.—In mak- ing a note of that fine shooting on ex- hibition at Collard's gun store we omitted some of the facts in the case. Am Shad- den sent that gun to Portland three dif- ferent times at heavy expense, and it never gave satisfaction. He then took it to our local gunsmith, W. F. Collard, when it made the following target at thirty-five yards with 4 drams of pow- der, 1 1/2 ounces No. 8 shot: left barrel 420 shot, right barrel 390 shot, in a 24- inch circle. This target is hard to beat with large loads of powder. Frank makes a specialty of choke-boring. Give him a call. Satisfaction guaranteed.

OUR GLORIOUS CLIMATE.—This is Janu- ary 7th, 1887, and the people of this section of Oregon are in doubt whether it is winter or spring. Thus far we have not had enough snow to track a coon, and not enough frost to hinder the growth of all kinds of grasses in the open air. Clover is in bloom in many places throughout the country, and out- door vegetation is flourishing as nicely as it does in the eastern states in May or June. This is truly a land of almost perpetual spring.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—Forty acres of land, situated five and one-half miles northwest of McMinnville, adjoining the Dave McCall place on the left. This piece of land is offered for sale cheap on easy terms. It is well fenced, contains a living spring of water, ten acres of it has been under cultivation, and eight acres has been slashed. Price $10 per acre. For further particulars call at the TELEPHONE office.

FOR SALE.—A piece of valuable prop- erty situated just outside the city lim- its, for sale at a bargain. Large house, well built; several acres of ground for gardening, and fruits of various kinds nicely started, numerous outhouses, barn, etc. Everything in good order. Property is situated on Colleeside. Satisfactory reasons for wanting to sell. For further particulars enquire at this office.

HORSE STOLEN.—Last month a horse belonging to E. N. Ford was stolen from the pasture of A. K. Olds near this city, and Monday W. G. Cameron and Frank Wenn, of North Yamhill, were arrested on a charge of stealing it. They had an examination at Lafayette yesterday. There was not sufficient evidence against the prisoners to bind them over, conse- quently they were discharged. Ephy, however, is out a horse.

THE NARROW GAUGE.—The Narrow Gauge lines are now in full operation. The first through tickets were purchas- ed by Col. Geer and daughter, of Silver- ton, last Saturday. The newly con- structed Portland & Willamette Valley road is in good condition. On Saturday the run from Dundee to Elk Rock, twenty-eight miles, was made in one hour and thirty-five minutes.

FIX THE BRIDGES.—Several of the bridges in this vicinity need fixing badly. The long bridge across the Yamhill at this place has a plank or two broken in it. A gentleman called here yester- day and said his horse fell through a hole left by a broken plank, and skinned and bruised one of its legs badly. It should be fixed at once.

AUCTION SALE.—To-morrow the stock and fixtures of the shop belonging to the late departed Al Young, who departed hence without bidding goodbye to his creditors, will be sold at public auction by Marshal Kaufman to satisfy a judgment held by W. H. Bingham. The sale will commence at 10 o'clock at the shop on Third street.

REVIVAL MEETINGS.—Rev. A. J. Hun- saker has been holding revival meetings in the South Yamhill church during the week. The meetings have been quite largely attended, and we learn there have been several additions to the mem- bership. The meetings will continue for several days.

HERE'S A CHANCE.—We have for sale a small place adjoining town containing a little more than an acre of ground; a good two-story house and barn; well set with small fruit trees; good well, etc. We will sell this place at a bargain. For further particulars enquire at this office.

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.—Revival meetings are now in progress at the Baptist church, and will continue every night till further notice. The interest is good and the attendance large.

BOYS.—Near McMinnville, Oregon, Sunday, January 1, 1887, to the wife of E. Owens, an 8-pound daughter. Mother and child both doing well.

Near Corvallis.

January 4, 1887.
Ed. TELEPHONE:

As I have a chance to send a few lines I will improve the opportunity. We left home on the 27th for Wheatland, when we again resumed our journey up the river by the steamer Willamette Chief. Reached Corvallis on the 29th, and went into camp five miles below town where the festive duck claweth the gravel on the bar at Halfmoon bend. Here we find high water and navigation almost impossible for our frail craft on account of drift wood and debris of every description, but with our competent guide, Capt. Fetters, we feel compara- tively safe, as he grasps his paddle in both hands and rolls his quid to the other side of his mouth to trim the boat and in accents wild yells "cast off that ar head line," and we start on our jour- ney down the rapid waters of the Wil- lamette, looking for sign. The festive goose squawketh with great squawkness in the wee small hours of the night on the lonely sandbar, but never hath he appeared in steaming state upon the medical aid chest to be devoured by the three hungry mariners of the Wanderer. But enough of this nonsense.

The railroad bridge at Albany is nearly completed. The approaches are finished and they are at work on the swing. We find grain looking fine all through this section of the country. Pilot R. Peters says he does not like ducks (a la petite poule). The new bridge at Salem is a fine structure and is a feature of the town. At the time we passed the water regis- tered 19 feet above low water mark. We took in the town by gas light, and Jason took in the Salvation army through his specs. At Albany we noticed the wreck of the N. S. Bentley, which lies on the Aldany side of the river, lying in 16 feet of water. She was loaded with 130 tons of grain, which is a total loss. We met an old friend aboard the Chief, pursar Warren. Billy says to remember him to old friends in McMinn- ville. This leaves the camp kicking and the boys in the land of nod.

Petition of W. J. Loughary and others for crosswalk on the north side of Fourth street from A to G, granted.
Petition of Washburn and others for crosswalk on Second street near Wash- burn property, granted.

The bills of marshal for $37.72 cents, and recorder for $5.70 were allowed.
No further business appearing, coun- cil adjourned to meet in special session, Monday evening January 9, 1887.

Card of Thanks.
I wish to return thanks to all those who so kindly assisted at the funeral of my brother Gaines, and to all those who so kindly waited upon him during his brief illness, and to thank them for the sympathy extended.
H. C. BURNS.

A RELIC.—On New Year's day, while a lady, living in the southern part of the city, was searching on the bank of the slough for ferns, vines, and snow-ber- ries, with which to decorate the table, a pair of deer's antlers was found, partly imbedded in the moss and earth. The horns must have been there for thirty years at least, and how much longer cannot be estimated. They were in an excellent state of preservation, and will be mounted and kept as curios, in remembrance of a past decade when the Indians feasted and feasted upon our hills. Near the same spot flint arrow- heads and other Indian relics have been found several times.—Statesman.

Dr. I. C. Taylor is in the city with headquarters at the office of Dr. H. V. V. Johnson. Dr. Taylor makes a specialty of honor holds in other diseases of the rectum. No charge for examina- tions. Care guaranteed or no charge made.

OUR ASSISTANTS.

Sheridan.
January 5, 1887.

County Clerk, G. W. Bridwell was in town Monday.
Miss Lela Shortridge returned to her home at Nestucca today.

Walter Durham now wears the meas- uring string in Bishop & Kay's store. Mr. Kay goes to McMinnville.

Robert Caples, of Portland, who has been spending his holiday vacation at Sheridan, returned home Wednesday.

There will be preaching at the Chris- tian church at this place Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. by Eld. H. M. Waller. All are cordially invited.

Neil Litchfield made fun for our town Saturday night. Those who attended his entertainment speak very highly of him as a humorist.

Nestucca Bay.
December 31, 1886.
The weather has been very stormy for the past week.
Fred Shezinger went to Tillamook the first of the week.
The big Nestucca river is five feet above its usual height.

The ball at Oretown, on Christmas eve, was a grand success.
Mr. C. Leinenweber commenced work on his cannery at Shezinger's landing, the first of the week.

The Oretown and Grand Ronde mail carrier dropped one of his horses, on the 20th, while crossing Louie creek.
Mr. Dutcher's clerk, of Woods, looks very downhearted since the candy pull- ing. Probably it did not agree with him.

HUCKLEBERRY FINN.
Webfoot.
January 2, 1887.
Jess Hutchens says the ground will soon be damp enough to plow.
Harvey Lambert returned a few days ago from a visit to friends in Polk county.

Mr. Ty. Hutchens and family of Day- ton W. T. are here for the winter visit- ing relatives.
The Rev. Mr. Post was called last week to officiate at a double wedding in Clackamas county.

Mr. Elmer Covert of Astoria, is spending the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Sylvester Robertson.
Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Grimes are the happy parents of a bouncing boy and all are getting along well.

Born, near Webfoot church Dec. 27, 1886 to Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Nichols a son. Congratulations are in order.
Grandma Odell long known and much loved in this vicinity died to-day. Will send a more extended notice next week.

An eye witness reports the tree at Pleasantdale exceedingly pretty and the decorations worthy of more than a passing remark. An arch hung with mottoes and ornaments extended from the tree to the wall; under this was a cross of pure white with the words "Rock of Ages" beautifully lettered up- on it.

The election of officers for the Sunday school here last Sabbath gave the fol- lowing board for the ensuing year: Su- perintendent, K. Nelson; Asst., J. B. Stillwell; Sec., Mrs. Jennie Whitlow Carey; Treas., Quin Lambert; Christo- rer, J. B. Stillwell; Organist, Miss Ida Covert; Librarians, Charlie Nelson and Lena Stillwell.

The Christmas tree exercises at Web- foot, performed chiefly by the little peo- ple were appropriate and well rendered, the tree itself being a thing of beauty, bearing so proudly its tastefully arrang- ed load, and the tables literally glitter- ed with their crystal burdens. The wall decorations were well designed and alto- gether it was a pleasing success, there being not one disagreeable thing connect- ed with it. The peace and harmony which exists among the members of this society is beautiful to see.

We had a china wedding in our midst—I did not say a Chinese wedding, but china, do you understand? Well this is what I mean: Our esteemed fellow citi- zens William and Lizzie Clemmens celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their marriage; this event took place on Thursday the 30th. A goodly number of their friends being present, the day was passed, of course, in a most agree- able manner. Though not among the guests we unite with them in wishing these friends many happy returns of the happy bridal day.

And wishing you Mr. Editor with your great family of readers a happy and prosperous New Year we are still

Mrs. John Haney has a fine baby girl.

Revs. Gardner, Bitner and Conner are holding a series of meetings at this place.
Senator Watts leaves to-day for Salem to be ready for work when the legis- lature meets.

Mrs. Martin returned from an extend- ed visit in Illinois, last Monday. She has been gone nearly two months.
J. Matty has enlarged his store room and is putting in a full line of general merchandise with ten and twenty-five cent counters.

The masque ball given here on last Friday evening proved a grand success. There were several from Forest Grove in attendance.
Gid Ely was arrested and put under $300 bonds, on last Thursday, the charge being that he was with Marple when he (Marple) shot at some Chinamen, for which Marple was placed in jail some time ago.

The council met last Monday evening and repealed the ordinance prohibiting saloons and substituted another instead allowing a saloon, but no gaming either for fun nor a consideration, and it requires $300 a year in advance. Frank Giltner proposes to start a saloon next week.

It was reported at Forest Grove that Rev. Hoberg was dead and buried, which he says is not true, as he is still able to talk. He left this place for Brownsville Tuesday to deliver an oration at the public installation of officers of the I. O. O. F. lodge at that place.

Trains are running on the narrow gauge now two each way daily, which leaves Lafayette four trains to and from Portland each day and each alternate day five. I venture to say there is not another town in Oregon that can boast of as good railroad communication as this place. Besides we have a boat two and three times a week.

At the public installation of officers of A. F. & A. M., lodge at this place the following persons were installed: R. R. Daniels, W. M.; W. R. Derby, S. W.; E. B. Collard, J. W.; R. P. Bird, Treas.; J. Hoberg, Sec.; M. C. Rudder, Tly.; T. J. Harris, S. D.; T. M. Morris, J. D. The Masons and families were present. J. Hoberg delivered the address.

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery
Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly effected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free Trial Bottle of this Standard Remedy at Rogers & Todd's Drug Store.

Renews Her Youth.
Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co. Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having re- newed my youth, and removed completely all diseases and pain."
