Fresh roasted peanuts at H. H. Welch's. John W. Baker is at home again for a few days. For a square meal go to the St. Charles—only 25 cents. W. D. Laughlin, of Carlton, was in the city, Tuesday last. For posts and boards go to R. B. Snow's lumber yard. 61tf The posters announcing the firemen's fair are being circulated.

Mrs. Annie Todd is suffering from a severe attack of neuralgia. Band of Hope meeting at the Methodist church to-morrow at 2 p. m. Mr. F. Multner was a passenger for Portland on this morning's train. R. McMillen is suffering with a painful attack of erysipelas in his hand. Sam calls the new soda syrup at Welch's, Food and Drink and almost Clothes. Try "Food and Drink and almost Clothes" at Welch's.

Several culverts and small bridges in this vicinity have been washed out by the high water. Ducks are said to be very plentiful along the river bottoms at present, but very hard to get. A little child of Art. Balls, living near the Yamhill lumbering company's mills is very sick. The board of trade will meet at the council chambers, Monday evening. Let every member be present. Firemen supper at the opera house next Tuesday evening. Tickets 40 cents each to be had only of firemen. D. C. Narver left on yesterday's train for a tour through Washington Territory in search of a business location.

Rev. P. N. Nystrom will lecture at the Christian church, Sunday, both morning and evening, at the usual hours. Next Sunday being the fifth Sunday in the month, Rev. J. S. White will hold services at St. James (Catholic) church at 10 a. m. Dr. Calbreath was called to Ballston Wednesday to see Mr. Ball, founder of that place, who is lying very ill at his residence there. If you want to purchase a good second-hand piano, comparatively new, at a very reasonable price, call at this office for particulars. A letter received from Ira Nelson, says he arrived safe in Sprague, and found a situation open for him, and immediately went to work. John J. Sax wants it known that he is ready to chop at the mill for $2 per ton, or will take 1/2 ton. Corn meal also ground. Satisfaction guaranteed. *

In the suit of the United States against Hibbs' bondsmen to recover $10,000, the jury rendered a verdict for the full amount. The defendants will ask for a new trial. Wednesday evening there was a sort of informal meeting of the city council at their chambers, to discuss the proposed amendments to the city charter. No other business was done. One of the features of the firemen's fair will be the broom drill under charge of Colonel J. C. Cooper. The young ladies are carefully drilling and it will, no doubt be a novel and interesting entertainment. Beware of premature conclusions when you see a man sit down hurriedly but gently on the sidewalk at this time of the year. Don't conclude that he was drunk, simply because he happened to take a drop. Jas. McPhillips says he feels like a new man since Dr. Taylor treated him and that a person is very foolish to suffer with piles when so fair an offer is made to them by Dr. Taylor at the office of Dr. Johnson. 61tf Kick like a bay steer if you don't read this advertisement and know that on and after the new year my billiard tables will be rented only by the hour or fraction thereof, at the rate of 40 cents per hour. 56tf H. H. WELCH. It is next to impossible for a man to teach a pretty girl to whistle. When she gets her lips properly puckered she looks so bewitchingly tempting that he loses his head and kisses her, and she doesn't have a chance to blow a note. Prof. Corwhurst's last lecture was delivered Wednesday night in the opera house. The Grange hall, was deemed too small to hold the large audience. After the lecture an invitation was extended to come forward and sign the pledge, and was accepted by many. A man rushed into Recorder Spencer's office yesterday noon, wildly gesticulating, and exclaiming, "Where's the constable, where's the marshal, there's a man being murdered." etc. Upon investigation it was found that a couple of our citizens were rolling over and over in the mud on B street, endeavoring to gouge somebody's eye out or chew off the end of another man's thumb, or well, they were trying to fight, anyway. They were separated, and we believe, beyond some badly mud bespattered clothes, nobody was seriously hurt.

A TOUGH EXPERIENCE.

The men spoken of in our last issue as having capsized in the Yamhill river near here, were Messrs. Davidson and Boyer, farmers living about three miles south from this city. It seems they had gone out in an old boat to rescue a calf that was in danger of being drowned, and the animal, in its wild floundering upset the boat, precipitating the men into the ice-cold waters. Mr. Boyer succeeded in reaching a tree near the place where the boat upset, but Mr. Davidson was compelled to swim some little distance before he could find a tree large enough to support him. Mr. Day, a neighbor of the men, attempted to go to their rescue on a raft, but was carried against a drift by the strong current, and he was obliged to climb on top of the drift while his raft disappeared from view underneath. It was about 11 o'clock a. m. when the accident occurred and the three men were obliged to stay in their perilous positions until about 3 o'clock in the evening before help arrived and they were brought ashore. They were nearly perished with cold. Mr. Davidson had removed his coat before entering the boat and sat perched on the limb of a tree in his shirt sleeves nearly six hours, while the sleet, rain and snow poured down upon him, and all this after he had been upset into the cold waters of the Yamhill. It was a tough experience, and one which the gentlemen will not care to undertake again very soon.

DEATH FROM PARALYSIS.—Mr. Geo. W. Elmer, who was stricken with paralysis on Tuesday while returning from his luncheon to the state circuit court, where he was serving as a jurymen, died at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning. Mr. Elmer was born in Allegheny county, N. Y., in 1818. He came to Oregon about 1850. He was a school teacher by profession, and taught school for many years in Yamhill and Tillamook counties, and served Yamhill county as superintendent of schools for two terms. Many of his former pupils will remember him kindly, and will regret to learn of his sudden death. In 1864 Mr. Elmer was elected county clerk of Tillamook county, and served in that capacity for two years. For the past ten years he has resided in Portland, where he has made many friends and has won the esteem of all who knew him. He leaves a son and a daughter residing in Portland, and a daughter in New York state, and a daughter in Tillamook county.

AUCTION SALE.—The furniture of the St. Charles hotel will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder, on Monday, February 7, 1887, consisting of a fine large kitchen range almost new, suitable for a large family, a hotel or restaurant, beds and bedding, carpets, kitchen and dining room furniture, lamps, tables, chairs, and a thousand other things too numerous to mention. Terms of sale—all sums under $10, cash. All sums over $10, eight months' credit, with approved notes. This is a positive pre-emptory sale, and there will be an excellent opportunity to secure bargains.

HAND CUT.—Monday night about 11 o'clock a young man from the country called at Dr. Young's house, and said that he had been shot. The Dr. got up let him in and found that he had a badly cut hand, made probably by a knife or piece of glass. He would not tell how he came by the cut. The probabilities are that he fell and cut it on a piece of glass, as he had been imbibing too much "nerve." His hand was properly dressed and he was taken to the hotel and put to bed. Keep sober next time young man.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Recorder Spencer was employed Wednesday afternoon in trying a case wherein an individual was charged with riding his horse through the streets, faster than law allows. He was found guilty and fined $5 and cost, amounting in all to $11. Yesterday afternoon, another individual was charged with the same offense, and contributed $5 to the city finances.

I. O. G. T.—After the lecture Wednesday evening seventeen new members were obligated, besides some half-dozen old members, and all will be initiated at the regular meeting of the order this (Friday) evening. There will also be an election of officers for the ensuing quarter, this evening. This will give the lodge quite a boom.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.—We are in receipt of the seventh biennial report of the superintendent of public instruction. It is a valuable work and contains many good suggestions as to what is most essential to promote school work. Mr. McElroy is an able and efficient officer, and his suggestions should be heeded by our legislature.

LOOK OUT FOR HIM.—A Dr. Johnson is doing the country in fine style. He formerly worked in the treasury department at Washington. He organizes a class which he agrees to instruct how to detect counterfeit currency at $10 per capita. It takes but an hour and he soon cleans up a pile.—News.

SOCIALLY.—A very pleasant party was given by Mrs. A. C. Chandler, at her residence, near the college, last Wednesday evening, it being in honor of her birthday. About two dozen young people gathered in and spent the evening in merry enjoyment, all wishing her many happy returns of the day.

SNOW.—Enough of the beautiful fell Wednesday night and Thursday morning to entirely cover the ground to a depth of about two inches, and give the small boys a chance to pelt each other while the marshal's back was turned. By noon yesterday the snow had all disappeared.

MARRIED.—In Lafayette, Oregon, January 27, 1887, by Hon. L. Loughery, Mr. Henry Eccleston and Miss Rosalthea Baker, both of this place. The Telephone extends congratulations, and acknowledges compliments received.

To "Jackson."

Since the opening of your school in September, we have been carefully, thoughtfully reading your "College notes," which have appeared from week to week. In much that has been said we have heartily agreed, and much we have thoroughly enjoyed. At one statement we have greatly wondered, and, as you advised, diligently searched for an answer. In one of your November notes you said that although "McMinnville college has been standing at the very doors of young men in this city for more than a quarter of a century, not a single young man had graduated from a thorough course." Cannot McMinnville college help us to answer this question? Is the standard of that college then so high that young men and women of our town have been forced to go elsewhere, as they have done before? Is then the course so much longer, so much more thorough than the schools in our surrounding towns? The university at Eugene, the colleges at Monmouth, Salem, Forrest Grove, the ladies' seminary at Portland, the academy at The Dalles, can all claim graduates from our little town. Why then McMinnville college cannot also claim its quota of graduates is alone for McMinnville college to answer. Z. McMinnville, Jan. 27, 1887.

WHO WILL HE BE.—The Statesman says Gov. Penoyer has received the following letter from C. R. Pringle, president of the southern forestry congress. It is self-explanatory: "To his excellency the governor of Oregon:—Dear Sir:—I had the honor to address you a letter under date of the 10th of December, asking your excellency to name some prominent person from your state to whose memory a tree may be dedicated in the arid around the great spring representing the American union. Please send the name and address to me at once, in order that steps may be taken to have your state represented in the circle." It has been suggested to the governor that he name Gen. Lane, the first governor of Oregon, and the suggestion will probably be followed.

NIBBLERS.—The nibbler is the man who enters a store, runs his fingers in to barrels, then goes to the cheese box and cuts off a slice, then, as a matter of course, must have a few crackers. He then proceeds to the show window and swallows some caramels and a chunk of candy, asking the proprietor in the meantime "how he sells 'em 'ere apples?" But after eating the biggest one in the pile he concludes that "they are not good eatin' apples nohow," and helping himself to a chew of tobacco with the remark that he had "plenty in his pocket but it isn't good," he then consoles himself with the idea that he complimented the proprietor on the value of his wares! Nibblers are the biggest kind of nuisances.

STATIONERY.—Every enterprising business man or firm should be provided with stationery in the way of letter heads, bill heads, envelopes, statements, etc. They are not only a great convenience, but they speak well for the man who uses them. They show that the business men are up to the age and abreast with the spirit of progress. This office is always prepared to do such work in the latest and neatest style and at the lowest possible prices.
